

BETH ISRAEL PAYS HONOR TO SOLDIERS

Thirteen Stars Added to Service Flag at Impressive Church Ceremony.

RABBI JONAH WISE TALKS

Speaker Refers to Children of Israel as Down-Trodden People and Says They Have Serious Duty to Perform.

Impressive services were held at Temple Beth Israel last night, when 13 stars were added to the service flag, already containing 73 stars, in honor of the young men of that congregation who have enlisted in the service of their country.

Rabbi Jonah B. Wise, speaker of the evening, discussed Israel's portion in winning the present world war. "There is a special task for the children of Israel," he said. "They are more capable of assimilating the fight for world democracy than any other people for the reason that their history has been one of constant resistance to oppression. From the beginning almost they have been what we might call a downtrodden people. If they do not feel that they are capable of doing more than any other people, then they are not true descendants of martyrs."

Common Sacrifice Needed.
"There is a special task for the children of Israel. It is to keep men alert and alive. It is to keep men willing and anxious to make sacrifices. The children of Israel may be among the first to give up rights, wealth and privileges so they may have a part in the great common sacrifice which must be made in order to obtain a lasting peace."

"You should plan to be with those who are now wading the plow which is digging up the furrows into which are to be planted the seeds of peace. Join with those who seek real peace. There is no indignity in doing trivialities."

"Tonight we dedicate additional names on our service flag. They have gone into service, not only for America, but for all men and women. Peace will bring no blessing unless we sleeplessly and earnestly pray that this Nation and all nations may be worthy of it."

Thirteen Stars Added.
Those for whom the stars were added last night included Ben Eitelson, Louis Gevurtz, S. M. Sherman, Lester Reichel, Allan Meier, Charles Cohen, Milton Meyer, James Reichold, Harold Malson, Jerome Stone, Dr. L. Rosenberg and Samuel Joseph.

The young men who already have been honored on the flag include the following:

- I. C. Brill, Jacob Feldman, James Gilbert, Herbert Goldsmith, Louis G. Haas, David Levy, Jesse J. Rich, Herbert Siebel, Milton Smith, Clarence Fox, William Heller, Joseph Goldman, Sanford Adler, Baruch Bar, Marvin Arfeld, Joseph Arndt, Leo Baruh, Leon Beniman, Edward Bollak, Edward Blumenfeld, Adolph Bloch, Alvin Binawasser, Edward Cohn, Alvin Citron, Samuel Chernin, David Chernin, Isaac Bellak, Arthur Crick, Julius Cohn, A. A. Cohn, Sylvan Durkheimer, Jesse Eitelson, Paul Feldensheimer, Elmer Feldensheimer, Roy Feldensheimer, Adolph Friedenthal, Harry Fischer, Gus Feldman, Joseph Fulton, Albert Feldman, Milton Gevurtz, George Jehlinger, Edgar Hexter, Louis Hertz, I. H. Kramer, Leonard Kaufmann, Georges Leonard, Krause, Harry Levinson, Bernard Metzger, Eugene Oppenheimer, George Leonard, Edward Oberdorfer, Philip Phillips, Bert Rosenfeld, Lawrence Rosenthal, Daniel Robinson, Arthur Rosenfeld, Sidney Schuch, Jerome Steinbach, William Spielman, Jack Spielman, Max Schilling, Charles Schilling, Lawrence Seiling, Wilson Schiffer, A. Schill, J. Schlossberg, Sydney Schlossberg, Geo. J. Simon, H. Birch, R. J. Silvestro, Geo. J. Schloss, George Wolfe, Sanford Wendel, Benjamin Warzweiler, Edward Warzweiler, Edgar Weil.

—W. S. S.—BUY THE LIMIT—

TRUE BILLS RETURNED

GRAND JURY DISPOSES OF 20 CASES DURING MONTH.

Fifteen indictments submitted to Judge Morrow, while five charges are not sustained by evidence.

Quick disposition of criminal matters arising within the past month was made by the Multnomah County grand jury in a report submitted yesterday to Presiding Judge Morrow. Fifteen true bills and five not true bills were reported yesterday.

Harry Wilson was indicted on two counts, threatening to commit an assault and assault with attempt to kill. Lynn G. Gordon must stand trial for contributing to the delinquency of Henry Bryant, a minor.

Charles Dewett, an automobile salesman, is accused of stealing a machine from the Overland-Pacific Company, and H. C. Irwin is indicted for forgery on two separate counts.

Leroy Creal, alias Jack Creal, is accused of obtaining money under false pretenses by cashing two worthless checks. Two indictments were returned against him.

Knut P. Madsen is alleged to have two wives. He is charged with polygamy. One of the wives is now suing him for divorce.

Clarence A. Howe, a Salem man with a wife and family, and Beulah Walling, of the Salvation Army, are charged with a statutory offense, while James Fitzgerald is accused of larceny from the dwelling of Etta Farrow, June 4, last, at which time he is alleged to have stolen $40.

James A. Saylor is charged with a statutory assault against his daughter.

—W. S. S.—BUY THE LIMIT—

Woodburn Raises Its Quota.

WOODBURN, Or., June 28.—(Special.)—Woodburn is nearly over the top in the war savings stamp campaign. Following the address at the Armory to-night by Walter M. Pierce, the $30,000 still needed to make up the original quota of $30,000 was subscribed in a brief period.

We manufacture for Shipbuilders

BOAT SPIKES

BOLTS

SHIP RIVETS

NORTHWEST STEEL CO.

Portland, Oregon.

MOVING PICTURE NEWS

"Doug" Fairbanks in "Say Young Fellow" at Peoples.

Herbert Rawlinson in "Smashing Through" at Star.

TODAY'S FILM FEATURES.
Majestic—Hessie Barriscale, "Madam Who?"
Peoples—Douglas Fairbanks, "Say, Young Fellow."
Columbia—Harold Lockwood, "Lend Me Your Name."
Star—Herbert Rawlinson, "Smashing Through."
Sunset—Norma Talmadge, "Ghosts of Yesterday."
Liberty—"My Four Years in Germany."
Globe—Pauline Frederick, "Nanette of the Wilds."

SMILING, athletic "Doug" Fairbanks returns to his host of admirers today at the Peoples Theatre in his latest Artcraft photoplay, "Say, Young Fellow." "Doug" has played the Western bad man, society chap, detective, heir to a throne, etc., but this time he devotes his talents to the art of newspaper reporting.

There never was a newspaper scribe quite like Fairbanks. He makes the game almost as dangerous as aerial battling, while the reporter of "Say, Young Fellow" possesses all of the qualifications of a circus acrobat and burglar. The city editor's "young fellow" gains distinction by interviewing a millionaire who had always evaded newspapermen, and then is sent to a neighboring town to uncover a graft scandal.

The reporter makes good in a typical Fairbanks way, during which he manages to become involved in a series of mixups which threaten a hospital or morgue trip on numerous occasions. "Doug" has plenty of opportunity to display his athletic prowess and his optimistic smile.

Marjorie Daw, Frank Campeau, Edythe Chapman and James Neill are members of the supporting cast.

Majestic.

Harold MacGrath's popular story of spies, warriors and society belles of the Civil War days, "Madam Who" has been pictured by Peoples with Hessie Barriscale in the title role, and will be presented today at the Majestic Theatre.

"Madam Who?" is a spectacular photoplay and is rich in martial atmosphere. However, it's not a regular war picture, for its story deals with the life of a determined young girl who becomes a secret service agent to avenge the death of her father and brother, lost in service of the South.

Edward Coxen, Howard Hickman, J. J. Dowling, Eugene Pallette and Wallace Worsley are members of Miss Barriscale's supporting cast.

A new Christie comedy, "By Orange Aid," with Bobbie Vernon, former Keystone player, the star, and Pathe News of world events, including glimpses from the trenches, are other subjects on the new bill.

Star.

"Smashing Through," the Herbert Rawlinson-Universal photoplay which is said to contain all of the spectacular and melodramatic action of a typical serial, will be shown at the Star Theatre at the Star Theatre. "A Mixup in Affinities," a Keystone comedy with Chester Conklin and Mack Swain as the boss and the clerk, is another feature on the bill.

All the hero of "Smashing Through" has to do for exercise is to fight a posse of cowboys who are after another man escape down a mine shaft with a girl in his arms, pursue the girl in an auto, permit it to be wrecked in a collision with another car, steal a motorcycle and ride like a champion, jump from the motorcycle going at full speed to a freight train, and land on the trucks just over the track, while the train is making 30 miles an hour. Such minor things as personal combats are scarcely worth mentioning in the medley of thrills.

Screen Gossip.

GREAT REVOL IN AUSTRIA REPORTED

Dual Monarchy Censorship Silences Publication of Recent Developments.

ARMY MUTINIES RUMORED

Paris Advices Say 2000 Soldiers Have Been Condemned to Death for Participation in Rebellious Outbreaks.

WASHINGTON, June 28.—Censorship is preventing late information of Austria's labor and food difficulties from reaching the outer world. An official dispatch today from Berne, Switzerland, said the Austrian newspapers reaching there contain no mention of the Hungarian strikes and that not a single telegram had come from Budapest on the subject.

A copy of the newspaper Pesti Naplo of Budapest, dated June 22, however, quoted a speech in Parliament by Deputy Lahn of the Karolyi party, who said that on June 20, the number of strikers in Budapest exceeded sixty thousand. According to Lahn, the strike continues to spread and is supposed to have reached several provincial towns.

PARIS, June 28.—There have been rebellious outbreaks among the garrisons of Győr and Komárom, Hungary, as a result of which 2000 of the military involved in the mutiny have been condemned to death, according to reports received by the Matin today.

Both Austria and Hungary are affected by the revolutionary movement which is said to be in progress on a large scale in Austria, the newspaper's advices declare. The spirit of revolt is said to be strongly pervasive in the army.

Violent demonstrations are reported to have occurred in numerous cities. Pecs is the Hungarian name for the city of Fankirchen, 105 miles south of Budapest. The city has a population of about 45,000. Győr, more commonly known as Raab, is a city of some 60,000 population, 67 miles northwest of Budapest.

—W. S. S.—BUY THE LIMIT—

SELF-DEFENSE IS PLEA

WILLIAM HOLBROOK TELLS STORY OF KLAMATH MURDER.

Defendants Declare Victim Attempted to Drive Them Off Their Ranch Prior to Fatal Shooting.

KLAMATH FALLS, Or., June 28.—(Special.)—Self-defense moved William Holbrook to shoot and kill O. L. McKendree, the well-known sheep man, at Dry Prairie on April 20 last, according to the defendant's testimony at the trial for murder, which began today at Klamath Falls. Holbrook, who also is a defendant in the case, testified as to the alleged circumstances leading up to the shooting.

Both defendants declared that McKendree had attempted to drive them off the ranch and in the quarrel which followed Holbrook had shot when McKendree moved to raise his gun to his shoulder.

It was alleged that Holbrook had leased a tract of land from Paddock for the lambing season, and had retained Paddock to assist during that period. The land where the men were camped until Paddock's arrival, although Paddock had been made by Paddock. The defendants contended that McKendree had attempted to usurp the land, and that he had shot when Paddock, for his sheep. Both Holbrook and Paddock received lengthy examinations today. They were proceeded by Barclay Holbrook, counsel for the defendants, who was half a mile distant at the time of the tragedy. He declared that there were four shots fired, two first from the Holbrook camp and two immediately following from the McKendree camp, a short distance away. Testimony for the defense was completed today and the state will complete its rebuttal tomorrow or Monday.

The jury will be taken to the scene of the tragedy 50 miles east of here, according to a decision of the court to-night.

—W. S. S.—BUY THE LIMIT—

PAY INCREASES GRANTED

Roadmaster Yeon Permitted to Increase Salaries in His Office.

By unanimous vote the County Commissioners yesterday granted the salary increases for the office of Roadmaster Yeon, as he had requested. The increases go into effect July 1 and affect nearly all the employees in the roadmaster's office.

Miss G. G. Creasey, superintendent of the County Hospital, yesterday petitioned for salary rises for employees of that institution. Her requested increases are: Three waitresses from $40 to $25 a month; four orderlies from $30 to $40; one dishwasher from $30 to $40; one gardener from $35 to $50; one house doctor from $50 to $100; one house doctor from $10 to $50.

—W. S. S.—BUY THE LIMIT—

FLORAL GIFTS WANTED

Appeal Issued for Flowers to Send to Military Hospitals.

All kinds of flowers are wanted this morning at Liberty Temple to be sent to the county hospitals, in the hospitals of various Army camps in the Northwest. Semi-weekly shipments of roses have been made for some time, but yesterday Mayor Baker, who originated the plan, asked that all kinds of flowers as well as roses be donated.

The hospital should be in good condition and should be delivered to Liberty Temple between 8 and 10 o'clock this morning. Shipments will be made to Camp Lewis, Vancouver cantonment and Fort Stevens.

—W. S. S.—BUY THE LIMIT—

BUTTON FIRMS ENJOINED

Concerns Alleged to Control Prices and Raw Material Market.

DES MOINES, June 28.—Twenty-six concerns alleged to virtually control prices and output of the pearl button industry in this country, consented to a decree in Federal Court here today permanently enjoining any of them or their officers from attempting to fix prices or control the output of the raw material for buttons. George Birrell, Incorporated, and the Button Export & Trading Corporation, both of New York City and Muscatine, Iowa, and 24 concerns listed as subsidiary were named in the decree. It was alleged by the Government that the concerns named were a combine in restraint of trade and that they were able to fix prices and regulate the output, as they "owned or controlled" almost the entire output of cutting machines for shell buttons.

—W. S. S.—BUY THE LIMIT—

LINNTON ROAD INSPECTED

Highway Commissioner Says Condition of One Section Deplorable.

Mayor Baker and members of the City Council inspected the Linnton road between the Forestry building and the paved Linnton road, following receipt of a communication from S. Benson, Oregon State Highway Commissioner, which calls attention to the deplorable condition of that section of roadway.

Attention of the Mayor and Commissioners is also called to the condition of East Seventeenth street from Ochoco avenue to the Clackamas County pavement.

In both cases the department of public works made efforts to improve the two roadways, but have been halted by protests of property owners.

—W. S. S.—BUY THE LIMIT—

CRIMINAL WARRANT BOMB

Mrs. Engel, Seeking Foster Daughter's Custody, Is Checked.

When Mrs. Maud Engel appeared yesterday afternoon in the County Court to resist proceedings started to take her foster-daughter, Nellie Engel, from her, she suddenly lost all interest in the 14-year-old girl's affairs when Sheriff Hurlburt appeared in the office with a criminal warrant.

Mrs. Engel was indicted by the present grand jury on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of her step-daughter. She was immediately released on her own recognizance. Her indictment followed disclosures made at the recent trial of her son, Fred Engel, who was convicted of a statutory assault upon the foster-daughter and sister.

—W. S. S.—BUY THE LIMIT—

ELDERS FIGHT OVER BOY

Stepmother Opposed by Grandparents and Aunts.

Taking of testimony in the habeas corpus proceedings involving 9-year-old Russel Jennings was started yesterday before Presiding Judge Morrow. The boy's stepmother, Mrs. Marie Jennings, is resisting the efforts of the child's grandparents and aunts to obtain his control and custody.

An aunt, Mrs. Deal Jennings Hartwell, of Park City, Utah, testified that the grandparents of the child were in a better condition to provide for the boy. Mrs. Jennings contends that she loves the boy as though he were her own child. The boy told spectators in court yesterday that he would rather stay

