STOVE TOPS FURNISHED CAMP.

Through the generosity of Tom N. Monks, manager of the Portland Boiler Works, the eight camp stoves at Eagle Creek camp ground have been supplied with tops cut to the right size made from one-quarter inch boiler plate. When Mr. Monks, who was camping at the Eagle Creek grounds, discovered that the eight stoves were not provided with tops he offered to furnish them without cost to the government. Forest Ranger Albert Wiesendanger, who has charge of the Eagle Creek grounds, immediately offered to accept and install the gift for the government. This gift will be especially valuable during the summer months as many parties come to Eagle Creek to picnic and camp.

REPUBLICANS TO MEET.

MILK PRICES MAY VARY

BEGINNING TODAY TWO SCHEDULES WILL PREVAIL IN CITY.

Oregon Dairymen's League Accepts Findings of Commission, but Producers' Association Refuses to Do So.

MILK, 12 1/2 cents a quart.
 Cream, 25 cents a pint.
 This advance of 1 cent for cream and 1/2 cent for milk, beginning today, is authorized by the city milk commission. The prices of raw milk delivered to distributors in Portland have been increased 25 cents a hundred pounds.

"Let no one in the city of Portland pay more than these prices for milk and cream," said Henry E. Reed, chairman of the milk commission. "These prices are fair to producers and consumers, and plenty of pure milk is to be had at these prices. To pay more is unnecessary. The members of the Oregon Dairymen's League are pledged to stand by the findings of the commission, and will charge the prices we have recommended."

Members of the Portland Milk Producers' Association are not pledged to stand by the prices recommended by the commission, however. They say that they have already served notice of an increase in price to 15 cents a quart. There will be two prices for milk in the city after today. The Oregon Dairymen's League is already making arrangements to enlarge its plant to capacity of 10,000 gallons of milk daily in order to handle the increased custom which it expects as a result of its lower rates.

P. M. Kiger, president of the Portland Milk Dealers' Association, says that the increase in price made by the commission is so small as to be ridiculous in these times of abundant milk and high prices for everything. "Portland milk users should not change dairymen on account of slight difference in the price of milk," says Mr. Kiger.

LYRIC FARCE IS SCREAM

"IN POPPY LAND" WINS APPLAUSE FROM LARGE AUDIENCE.

Dillon and Franks, in Leading Roles, Provide Plenty of Laughter.

Musical Numbers Score.

"In Poppy Land," a comical travesty on current events, opened the week at the Lyric Theater yesterday with success. Dillon and Franks play the leading roles, supported by the entire Lyric musical comedy company.

The first scene involves a sanitarian where an old Dr. Pest guarantees to cure all kinds of troubles. Handsome Harry, like many of his kind, is among the patients, each with troubles of his own. He is much worried by the extravagances of his young daughter, Becky. As a matter of relief from this and also as a matter of business, he is trying to force the attractive and rather flirtatious young woman into marrying a rich man, and so when Becky meets Handsome Harry, who unfolds to her tales of magnificence and wealth untold, all of which he has derived from his father, Mike, who falls for her. Handsome Harry, who falls for her, and all goes along smoothly until he induces Mike and Ike to "let 'er up once" as a sure cure for their troubles. When they do a surprise follows and, well, the play just closes.

"In Poppy Land" is a real laugh-provoker and the musical interruptions which intermingle with the plot alone are worth the price of admission. Among the musical numbers introduced are: "There's a Good Boy," "From Heaven," "Queen of Poppy Land," "Everyone I Love Lives Down in Dixie," "Howdy," "My Uncle Sammy" and "Hello."

"In Poppy Land" will appear at the Lyric each day this week.

MUSICIAN WINS APPLAUSE

Professor Earnest, Chicago, Heard at Swedish Tabernacle.

Before an audience that filled the Swedish Tabernacle, Seventeenth and Second streets, Professor Frank Earnest, of North Pacific Park College, Chicago, Saturday night rendered a splendid programme of piano compositions.

The selections included several not usually included in the repertoire of concert pianists. Swedish, Danish and Norwegian folk music, and pieces by Scandinavian composers added a touch of novelty to the programme.

Professor Earnest is a masterly musician who plays with feeling and understanding the works of Scandinavian composers. The audience was enthusiastic in its applause.

Several of the selections were given by the Tabernacle Chorus. The proceeds of the entertainment will be divided between North Park College and the Tabernacle choir.

BOYS LEAVE FOR COUNTRY

Sixty Lads Will Spend Summer at "Big Brothers Farm."

A happy bunch of boys left Portland Sunday for the "Big Brothers Farm" conducted by Mr. and Mrs. Chester A. Lyon. Sixty boys will be taken care of at the farm this summer.

One lad who left yesterday is a little 9-year-old lame boy, who has never been in the country before. While he is unable to use his limbs he said he was looking ahead to a good time.

Several of the boys have visited the farm during previous summers, but for a number of the lads this is their first trip.
