SOLDIERS IN QUARANTINE

MEN OF LAST DRAFT WILL NOT SEE FOURTH OF JULY GAMES.

Y. M. C. A. Will Provide Special Entertainment for Shut-Ins and Calls for Fings to Decorate Hut.

Drafted men, inducted into the Army, are kept under quarantine for three weeks. The last draft is no exception and new men at Vancouver have carned to their great disappointment that they will not be allowed to participate in or even to see the Fourth July athletic programme. When the Y. M. C. A. learned of the order they hastened to make prepara-tions for some kind of entertainment for those unfortunates who happen to Mayor Baker has accepted an invitation to be the principal speaker.

The Y. M. C. A. hut, which is located in the center of the quarantined district, will serve as an auditorium. CAMPS ON 10-HOUR DAY

Grays Harbor Spruce Soldiers Will Be Paid Time and Half.

HOQUIAM, Wash., July 2 .- (Special.) Hogulam, waen, July 2.—(Special) —Instructions have been received in Hogulam for soldiers working in spruce camps in the Erays Harbor district to go on a 10-hour day at once. This will apply to all camps where soldiers are mployed and is part of the programme of speeding up spruce production.

The men will be paid at the rate of time and half for the extra two hours, it is understood. The only cases in which the order will not apply will be camps where two shifts now are being operated.
