PLAY IS SET FOR JULY 9

Metropolitan Woman's Champion Touring Country at Own Expense in Interests of War Work. Fleager Today's Opponent.

BY JAMES J. RICHARDSON. Mrs. William A. Gavin, regarded as the foremost woman golfer of the British Isles and Metropolitan woman's champion, will play an exhibition match at the Waverley Country Club Tuesday, July 9, the entire proceeds going to the Drake Section Sanitaire, an ambulance unit operated under the French military laws.

Mrs. Gavin's opponent has not yet been selected, but the directors of the Waverley Country Club will meet today with Mrs. Gavin's private secretary, Mr. Parker, who left Seattle last night to make final arrangements for the famous woman golfer's appearance in this city.

Graham Glass, of the Waverley Country Club, has been trying to get in touch with Mrs. Gavin or her representative for the past few days in order that every detail might be done to assist in the worthy cause which Mrs. Gavin is so gloriously exploiting, but was unable to locate her.

Seattle Match to Be Played Today. The writer talked with Mrs. Gavin over long-distance phone at Seattle last night, where Mrs. Gavin is preparing to meet her opponent at an exhibition match today at the Seattle Country Club. Mrs. Gavin said that she was scheduled to play in Portland July 9, but that she had been advised by the association scheduling her to appear here on the above date she had heard nothing whatever from any of the local clubs. It is believed that the Waverley Country Club would be pleased to stage an exhibition match between her and one of the Waverley golfers she knows.

At the present writing it appears that Forrest Watson, the Waverley Country Club's young golfer, will be selected as Mrs. Gavin's opponent. While this arrangement is only tentative the matter will be definitely decided today when the directors and Mr. Parker have a conference. Watson won the 1916 Peotich championship at Seattle and also the qualifying rounds in the 1916 Pacific Northwest tournament, and was second in the open event. He is 20 years of age.

Mrs. Gavin is typical of the woman golfer of today. She is not doing her "bit" for the allies and is traveling around the country paying all her own expenses. Either an admission fee will be charged for those attending the exhibition or a collection will be taken up. Not since Harry Vardon and Ted Ray visited this city has there been a golfer of Mrs. Gavin's caliber scheduled to visit this city. Her mission is of an entirely different nature from that of the two British professionals.

Two Travers Beaten Handily. Mrs. Gavin's former amateur champion, he was beaten by a comfortable margin. Since that time Mrs. Gavin has been meeting the most prominent amateur and professional golfers all over the country. The average handicap her opponents of the opposite sex give her is nine strokes. In the first round, she has won a big majority of her matches.

Mrs. Gavin is said to be a very interesting woman. She is famous in England as an all-around sportswoman. She was one of the first women to be interested in flying and piloted her own machine as early as 1911. Her versatility as a sportswoman is shown in her well-earned reputation as a big game shot. She is scheduled to play Rainey's lion hounds in East Africa, with the renowned hunter, Shelly.

It is in golf that Mrs. Gavin shows her skill to the best advantage. She is recognized by the local press as probably the greatest stylist, and has been christened the female Vardon. She is said to be a living refutation of the popular belief that flying is necessary to the attainment of distance in driving a ball, and while her physical attributes are distinctly feminine, delicate wrists and delicate hands, she yet 200 yards is the average length of her drive.

Miss Ethel Langdon Drake, after a number of years in the United States, was named, will be a Portland visitor next Tuesday, in company with Lieutenant Virginia K. Chandler. A number of social events will be planned for the entertainment of Mrs. Gavin, Miss Drake and Lieutenant Chandler during their stay in this city.

COAST TITLE AT STAKE

BRONSON AND INGLE LOCK HORNS TONIGHT AT ABERDEEN.

RECORD CROWD WILL SEE PORTLAND BOY TRY COMEBACK STUNT—DAREY TO TANGLE WITH MICK KING AT EVERETT.

Muff Bronson, Portland's lightweight idol, will battle George Ingle, lightweight champion of the Pacific Coast, for 10 rounds tonight at Aberdeen, Wash. The entire crowd expected to take place some time during the latter part of this month.

Although the Oregon tournament this year will start rather late, it has nothing on the Washington State championship tournament, which will start on Monday, July 29, or the Pacific Northwest championship, which will be played in Tacoma the week of August 3. The city championship tournament, which was awarded to the Multnomah Club when it was learned that Laurelhurst would not hold the state championship this year, is causing a considerable amount of interest among the local tennis players, especially the younger set, who believe that they will have a good chance this summer of capturing some of the events, for the first time in this case he will not be able to defend his title this summer.

While war has taken some of the crack men players of Oregon, there are enough left to stir up some brisk competition. From the successes of the Multnomah and Irvington handicap tournaments there is no doubt but that the local state tournament will make a great hit.

It is very doubtful if Mrs. W. I. Northup will be back this year to defend her title. Miss Fording, who, with Mrs. Northup as her partner, won last year's women's doubles title, will undoubtedly participate this year, but who will be her partner is still a puzzle to the fans.

Calling Wolfard, last year's men's singles champion, has not been heard of, but rumor has it that he is now in the finals. In that case he will not be able to defend his title this summer.

Wickersham Out of It. It is almost certain that Brandt Wickersham will not be back, as he is at present employed in San Francisco. Wickersham was the 1915 men's singles champion and last Spring, with Catlin Wolfard, held the men's doubles title.

It looks very much as if there will be at least two or three new faces seen in the finals this year and the younger set will have a fine opportunity of springing a surprise.

BUCKAROOS AHEAD WHEN GAME IS CALLED IN SEVENTH.

Darkness, According to Umpire Rankin, Is Too Stygian to Warrant Play, but Fans Think Otherwise.

Portland added another win to its long list of victories yesterday when the Buckaroos romped away with the game with Vancouver, score 5 to 4. All doubt that Umpire Rankin enjoys good eyesight was dispelled when, at the conclusion of the first half of the seventh inning, he stepped on the home plate and announced to the handful of spectators that the game was called on account of darkness. Hostilities could have been resumed for at least another hour. The fans present put up an awful howl and they had it coming.

But, getting back to the fracas, the Buckaroos held a 3-0 lead in the sixth and took an early start in the scoring and at the end of the fifth frame had the contest well in hand with the score 4 to 0. In the sixth inning the home team weakened in the sixth inning long enough to let Vancouver chase across three runs. French's triple and McCredie's single in the seventh called another tally to Vancouver's score.

Arthur Bourg has always been known as a southpaw first baseman, but until yesterday, when Pearl Casey trotted him out as a portside twirler and, while it was Arthur's first attempt at pitching, he did fairly well. The Buckaroos showed him no mercy, cracking out nine safe hits.

Today's double-header starts promptly at 1 o'clock. Score: Vancouver... 5 4 Portland... 4 0

COAST LEAGUE FETERS

SPORT FANS FEAR SEASON MAY BE BROUGHT TO END.

Twilight Ball Fails to Prove Life-Saver and Most of Clubs Appear to Be Losing Money.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 3.—(Special.)—There is a whiff of talk in San Francisco as to whether the Coast League will last out the season. Both the owners of the San Francisco club and Cal Ewing, of the Oaks, aver they will go through with the schedule, but there is a feeling that they are losing coin. It will occasion no surprise some time after the Fourth of July if they decide to call it all for the year.

By the middle of the month the Coasters will have gone half way through their season and, even though they are much better than the make-shifters, they will not be surprised to see a change within a few weeks at the outside.

Twilight baseball has been partially abandoned completely as the owners would care. It looks now as if the early attendance at the night-time games was due to curiosity more than anything else.

Baseball writers shake their heads when asked as to the chances for the league to go on through the season. They indicate they will not be surprised to see a change within a few weeks at the outside.

STEEL MAKES GOOD GAIN

Minor Specialties Prominent in Upward Movement—Demand for Rails Is Small—Trading in Bond Market Irregular.

NEW YORK, July 3.—The approaching holiday exerted the customary effect on the stock market today, dealings diminishing steadily after the first hour. Aside from the contracted operations, the movement was noteworthy for the unwonted prominence of low-priced mining shares and specialties of an indefinite description.

Coppers led the spirited opening at gains of 1 to 2 points, some of these being later extended. The advance of the metal group was primarily due to the very substantial advance in prices granted by the War Board. Advances of that division made only moderate headway until the final hour, when a sudden inquiry forced steel to the day's maximum at a net gain of 1 1/2 points.

Shipping, oil, motors and tobacco registered extreme advances of 1 to 2 points, but these were irregularly impaired later in the day. The steel market was again exceedingly active, with a few of the big steel companies' shares remaining unquoted throughout the session.

Call money stiffened appreciably, holding at 10 per cent, and time funds were scarce, though quotations unchanged. Trading in bonds was irregular and without marked feature, except for a slight ease. Liberties eased from their early high price of 102 1/2 to 102, while United States bonds, old issues, were unchanged on call.
