CONVENTION CHEERS MENTION OF OREGON

Admen of World Learn How the Aircraft Situation Was Saved by Northwest.

CHARLES F. BERG SPEAKER

Rear-Admiral Fullam to Entertain Portland Delegation at Reception Aboard United States Warship.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 10 .- (Special) rtland played a prominent part in seedings of the world ad men's con-proceedings of the world ad men's convention today.

Charles F. Berg, president of the Pacific Coast Advertising Men's Association, stirred the big gathering up to an intensely high patriotic pitch with his dramatic story of "How Oregon Spruce Saved the Aircraft Situation." Mr. Berg's presentation of the subject was one of the most virile documents written into the permanent records of this great war convention. When he finished the vast audience jumped to their feet and shouted, "What's the matter with Oregon?"
