"The Heart of a Girl"

Featuring Barbara Castleton

COMING SUNDAY: MAY YOHE Formerly Lady Francis Hope.

What do you know about widows? Probably nothing. You may think you do, but you don't. No one does. Widows are among the mysteries. The nearest approach to positive knowledge regarding them is the belief that there are only two kinds-grass widows and widows in weeds. But that is wrong, also, for there are many other kinds.

At the Oaks Amusement Park next Sunday will be introduced one of the many types of widows. For purposes which a visit to the Oaks will disclose she will be called "The Red Widow." For a week thereafter she will make her appearance twice daily in the auditorium-afternoons at 3 o'clock and evenings

Come out and look "The Red Widow" over, and your knowledge concerning widows in general will be materially increased.

Tomorrow, Saturday, will be the last performance of "The Girl and the Game." You had better come out and hear Ed Armstrong sing, "7, 17 and 70," one of the most appealing vocal features heard here in many moons. It is also worth while to see 10 pretty chorus girls build a full-rigged ship for the allies while they tell what is going to be done to the Kaiser.

Watch these Chats for a surprise announcement soon. Visiting the Oaks Amusement Park is like getting a Summer vacation for 6 cents carfare. Transfers from any part of city. JOHN F. CORDRAY, Mgr.
