GLOOM CHASER ON BILL

"RED WIDOW" AT OAKS REAL HOT WEATHER QUENCHER.

Capable Leads and Melodious Chorus Make Farce Top-Notch Musical Features Pleasing.

From time out of mind widows of one sort or another have been objects for wits. Ink factories have to work overtime to keep pace with the publication of jokes about the merry widow, the grass widow, the college widow and other varieties of widows. Be it said to the credit of the widows, however, that the joke has not always been on them. Frequently the lord of creation has found that his humorous dalliance with widows has become something of a boomerang and has gone forth only to return to his masculine eminence and point him out as a fit subject for puns and laughter.

who is no other than the sprightly Miss Maudie Smith, turns volumes of laughter on the reputable Dr. Cohn, portrayed by Henry Sherr, before he has wooed and won her, and satisfied himself that the household is big enough for but one boss, and that must be the irrepressible Mrs. Cohn. Nevertheless, before "The Red Widow" takes the gay doctor and they have settled down to live happily ever afterward, there have been enough ridiculous situations to make the audience laugh itself hoarse. Miss Smith is pretty, knows how to dance, knows how to act.

Will Armstrong, as a drug clerk, radiates sunshine and frolic from curtain to curtain.

Miss Flora Sims doesn't carry much of a histrionic load, yet what falls to her is done in charming manner. In her capacity as prima donna she held the crowds that packed the big auditorium with her contralto voice in two numbers.

The chorus is a riot of color and melody this week. "Bubbles," "Bargain Hunters" and "Just a Baby's Prayer at Twilight," in which they join Miss Sims in the chorus, are among the offerings.

George E. Jeffery and his orchestra played "The Marseillaise" and other French music in honor of the French holiday commemorating the fall of the Bastille. "The Red Widow" will be repeated every day this week, afternoon and evenings.

BOYS LEARN THRIFT TASK

Happy Group of Lads Return From Big Brother Farm.

Fresh from the country with a good coat of tan, a thrift stamp card in one hand and a box of berries in the other, a happy group of lads arrived at the Union Depot Saturday noon eager to tell about their experiences on the "Big Brother Farm" owned and conducted by Mr. and Mrs. Chester A. Lyon, at Lebanon, Or. The boys earned their thrift stamps by picking berries and say "they want to do all they can to get the Kaiser."

This farm was founded by Mr. and Mrs. Chester A. Lyon five years ago, and social workers are becoming much interested in the methods used by them.

White Mr. and Mrs. Lyon assume all responsibility of maintaining the farm, friends from all parts of the state contribute to their work.

The First Congregational Church of this city will pay all the transportation charges for the 15 boys that leave for the farm Monday afternoon.

WOMEN FILLING BREACH

ORCHARDISTS SEND OUT CALLS FOR MANY MORE GIRLS.

Good Times and Good Pay Rule in Districts Where Young Women Are Saving Oregon Crops.

Women are still wanted for farm work in the fruit orchards of the state. One of the camps is filled with Franklin High School girls, who are having a good time thinning apples in Hood River orchards. Miss Emily B. Johnston, supervisor of the camp, asks that 20 more girls be sent her at once. The camp is run community style and the girls have opportunity for many good times. The pay is 18 cents per hour for a ten-hour day and the cost of board for each person is only 50 cents a day. All girls who want to go to Hood River should communicate with J. W. Brewer, farm help specialist, in the Oregon building.

At Newberg, blackberry and loganberry pickers are in great demand at the girls' camp established by Mrs.

Mabel Plowman. She went to Newberg a week ago with 25 girls and yesterday she sent in a hurry-up call for 75 more. The girls' camp is in the Valley Cannery, where everything is most conveniently arranged. This work will last until August 10, it is said. Parties who want to join either of these camps may call Broadway 440.

The men are coming strong for the farm help vacations. O. Laurgard, City Engineer, offered his vacation to the cause yesterday.

Many women who are willing to take positions in the city to relieve men for a few weeks, have given their names to the enlistment officer at the Temple. Women with various kinds of special training are included in the list which Miss Rosemary Baldwin has made. Business men might do well to look it over and see if there are women on it who are qualified to take the place of some of their male employees while they are released for farm work.

The Liberty Temple will be open from 2 o'clock in the morning until 5 at night Monday and enlistment for future and present service, will be reviewed.

Marriage Mart Unaffected.

KLAMATH FALLS, Or., July 14.—

(Special)—The charge that the war and draft call has caused many young men to marry is not applicable to Klamath County, judging from an inspection of the records of County Clerk C. R. Delap. The marriage records show that from January 1 up to date, 55 licenses were issued. During the corresponding period last year 45 were issued.

Teaching Staff Employed.

CASTLE ROCK, Wash., July 14.—(Special)—The Castle Rock school board has employed the following teachers for the ensuing school year: Superintendent, F. E. Dunton, of Eastern Oregon; Miss Dorothy Wright, of Portland, domestic science; Miss Maud Severance, language and history; Miss Ida S. Fletcher, eighth grade; Miss Leda G. Culver, seventh grade; Miss Inez Underhill, fourth and sixth grades; Miss Gladys Hayton, fifth grade; Miss Nellie Holmes, second and third grades; Miss Bessie Larson, first grade and music. There are still three vacancies in the high school.

OLD AGE A CRIME!

Some people are young at 60—red cheeks, ruddy and vigorous. Others are old at 40—joints beginning to stiffen up a bit; step beginning to lag and lose its springiness; occasional touches of pain in the back, feel tired without cause, and possibly a twinge of rheumatic pain.

In most cases these are the danger signals to warn you that the kidneys are not promptly doing their work of throwing off the poisons that are always forming in the body. To neglect these natural warnings is a crime against yourself. If you have these symptoms you can find prompt relief in GOLD MEDAL Haarleem Oil Capsules. For more than 20 years this has been the recognized remedy for kidney and bladder ailments.

GOLD MEDAL Haarleem Oil Capsules are imported direct from the laboratories at Haarleem, Holland. Get them at your druggist. Do not take a substitute. In boxes three sizes. For sale and guaranteed by The Owl Drug Co.—Adv.
