First Important Intervention Move in Siberia Accomplished Fact.

BOLSHEVIKI MAKE PROTEST

Russian Foreign Minister Serves Formal Notice Demanding That English Forces Be Re-embarked Without Delay.

LONDON, July 15.—All the Murman Coast, an extreme northern district of Russia on the Arctic Ocean, has been occupied by American and British troops.

A Central News dispatch from Moscow, which conveys this intelligence, another Moscow dispatch of the same agency relayed at Amsterdam, says that the Russian Foreign Minister has addressed a note to Great Britain, demanding that the British detachments now on the Murman coast be re-embarked without delay.

After capturing Kem, a railroad station on the White Sea Coast, the American and British forces advanced toward Torok, the Russian Bolshevik authorities having withdrawn to Nirok.

Appeal Issued to Natives. The commanders of the entente allied forces have issued an appeal to the population on the Murman coast requesting help against Germany and Finland.

It is declared that the Murman coast is Russian territory under the protection of the entente powers.

LONDON, July 15.—(British Wireless Service.)—At the request of the Russians, considerable allied forces, where there are several harbors connected by rail with Petrograd. More forces are being sent and the local population is cooperating with the troops.

Meanwhile the Germans are making a desperate attempt to secure control of the Murman coast. They need the harbors for submarine bases.

Touton Forces Scattered. The total German force in Russia is 32 German and 15 Austrian divisions, composed mainly of old and inferior men. This force is spread from Petrograd to the Black Sea.

In Finland, the Germans have more than a division, mainly in the south and not easily within reach of the Murman railway.

PEKIN, July 15.—(By the Associated Press.)—The British, French and Japanese Ministers to China have strongly protested to General Horvath, the anti-Bolshevik military commander, who has formed a temporary war cabinet for Siberia, asking him to withdraw his dictatorship proclamation on the ground that it is unjust and unwise.

Czech Success Menaced. The proclamation, the Ministers say, is calculated to cause a situation which may impede the movement of the Czech-Slovak forces into Siberia. General Horvath is requested to reply to the protest.

Declaration has been made by the British and American troops that they will re-establish order and clear the Far East of the Bolsheviks without foreign intervention. These groups are endeavoring to establish a "free zone" in the Caspian and Grodekova have joined in the uprising against the Bolsheviks.

LONDON, July 15.—Czech-Slovak troops have captured the city of Kazan, 450 miles east of Moscow, and the Telegraph dispatch from Copenhagen says it is reported from Moscow.

This city was taken after the Bolsheviks had put up violent resistance.

AMSTERDAM, July 15.—By the capture of Kazan the Czech-Slovak have become masters of the Lower Volga, says a dispatch from Moscow to the Berliner Tageblatt.

The Czech-Slovak, the dispatch adds, are also utilizing War Minister Trotsky's mobilization in the Ural Mountains on the Volga River, and are entirely restored by a counter-attack by Austrians and New Zealanders.

"Four hundred prisoners were taken, including 260 Germans. By nightfall 510 prisoners had been counted."

Light Sought on Use of "Untold Millions"; Former Employee of Hearst on Grill.

VIERECK ALSO SUMMONED

Deputy Attorney-General Becker After Information From ex-Editor of Fatherland—Result of Conference Kept Secret.

NEW YORK, July 15.—William Bayard Hale, salaried head of the German information service in this country in 1915, and George Sylvester Viereck, editor of Fatherland until the United States entered the war, were questioned today by Deputy Attorney-General Becker in his investigation of German propaganda in America.

Hale was closeted with the Attorney General an hour and half tonight and Viereck for more than four hours.

Mr. Becker declined to comment on the interview, except to say that he had questioned both men regarding their knowledge of German expenditures to influence American sentiment before this country declared war.

Untold Millions to Be Traced. He said the interviews were part of a Federal inquiry intended to reveal the source of the "untold millions" spent here with the hope of keeping the United States out of war.

He declined to say whether the conferees had any direct connection with the prosecution of the case of Rumlly, alleged to have bought the Evening Mail in 1915 for the German government.

Dr. Hale came to New York from New Hampshire in response to a request from Mr. Becker. He declared that he had responded "voluntarily" to the attorney's call and that he is "a patriot."

Hale Critic of U. S. Policy. By criticizing what he termed the United States "betraying the British ally," Dr. Hale came into prominence in the first year of the war. In 1915 he wrote articles criticizing British interference with American shipping.

As correspondent for the New York American in Berlin in 1916 Hale charged that news of Germany to this country was distorted by the British censor.

Later he went to the German front and interviewed the Kaiser. Afterward he wrote to President Wilson, calling upon him to use his influence to end the war.

German Papers Gratified. When Ambassador Gerard was recalled from Germany after the American diplomatic break with that country most of the American newspaper correspondents left Berlin with him. Dr. Hale remained behind and published an American account of the German papers' "gratification" that a few correspondents from the United States had been left to remain.

When the State Department made public late in 1917 cable messages between the German government and Von Bernstorff regarding propaganda, Dr. Hale's name was found in some of the messages.
