KEEN CONTESTS TO FEATURE TOURNEY

Entry List for State Tennis Meet Already Includes Two-Score Names.

PLAY WLIL BEGIN MONDAY

Brandt Wickersham, Olin Lewis and Miss Fording Only 1917 Winners Likely to Compete This Season.

The Oregon state championship tennls tournament, which will open next Monday, will have an entry list fully as large as any of the past. There are 45 names on the long list at present and, as the entries will not closuntil this evening, 20 or 25 additional names will undoubtedly be added to the long string.

Brandt Wickersham, who, with Catlin Wolfard as his partner, won the men's doubles championship last year, will be in Portland at the opening of the tournament. It looks as if Mr. Wickersham, Olin Lewis and Miss Stella Fording are the only winners of last year who will be on hand Mon-day to defend their titles. Mrs. W. I. Northus is in Chicago and Catlin Wol-Northup is in Chicago and Catlin Wolfard is also away from the city.

Glancing down the lists we find a host of names of well-known local players. Although war has hit most of the sports hard, there are no be-

CAMP LEWIS, Wash., July 17 .- (Spe cial.)-After watching his players cavort about the diamond in practice for a week Manager William Truckee of the newly organized Camp Military Folice Baseball team, announces that he is now ready to arrange for games with fast semi-professional teams in the neighboring cities.

Several former professional ball play-ers are now on the Military Police team and it is predicted that the agting in the first, fifth and eighth innings gave Los Angeles a lead which Vernon falled to overcome, and the Angels won the first of the series of nine games to decide the championship of the Pacific Coast League season the initial sack on a Western league ship of the Pacific Coast League season for 1918.

BUILDERS MAY NOT PLAY ADDED GAME

Standifer Company's Plan to Work Saturday Afternoons Is Hitch in Programme.

DECISION NOT MADE YET

Rule Barring Players From Leagues Rating Higher Than Class B May Be Rescinded to Strengthen Teams.

The prospect of an added ball game each week in the Columbia-Willamette Shipbuilders' League, to be played on Saturday afternoons, received a setback yesterday, when President Fred N. Bay, of the shipbuilders' circuit, got a long-distance call from Vancouver, Wash. to the effect that there was a possibility of the Standifer Construction Corporation chopping off the Saturday half-holiday, which, if it should, would slightly upset the dope.

The Standifer team, managed by Eddie Peterson, is one of the fastest in the league, and is a great drawing card all over the circuit. Standifer is tied with Comfoot for second position, and is going strong. If they were unable to play Saturdays the plan would have to be done away with altogether, or arrangements made for a twilight arrangements made for a twilight game. It has not yet been decided at the Standifer plant as to whether the shipbuilders will do away with the Saturday half-holiday for the Summer, and plans of Prexy Bay and the man-

Bars May Be Let Down.

Another important question is being thoroughly gone over by the officials and directors of the Columbia-Williamette League and that is as to whether they will let the bara down to players they will let the bars down to players who have been or are playing in leagues of over class B rating. A rule was passed over a month ago at a meeting that after July 7 players from leagues of over class B rating would be barred from the shipbuilders' teams. Since July 7 a number of Coast Leaguers have signified their willingness to come to Portland and join some of the teams, but they have had to be turned down by the managers because of the ruling. The reason for passing the rule was to prevent some of the more powerful teams adding star players to their roster the last part of the pennant drive and snowing the weaker teams under. If arpart of the pennant drive and snowing the weaker teams under. If arrangements could be made to have the weaker teams in the league strengthened as well as the leaders the rule might be rescinded and the bars let down to "big league" players. At present there are soveral well-known halltossers who are ready to jump to Portland at the beck of the managers and their presence would speed up the play of the teams.
