RATE INCREASE PROTESTED

City Council Opposes Proposed Lift in Express Charges.

At the suggestion of City Commissioner Kellaher, the Council at an adjourned meeting yesterday adopted resolutions addressed to the Public Service Commissioner of Oregon protesting against the proposed increase in rates by the American Railway Express Company.

The American Railway Express Company was created by the merging of four express companies, and a hearing was recently held before the Public Service Commissioner, on a request for higher rates.

The resolutions oppose any advance in rates at this time "in view of the evident ability of the merged company to render express service at less ex-pense than was formerly the case when four express companies operated inde-

Robert T. Cornell Indicted on Polygamy Charge.

PAPERS SERVED IN COURT

Moment During Hearing of His to Annul Marriage to Jessie Auterson

Robert T. Cornell, alleged polygamist and child deserter, received the surprise of his life yesterday in the court room of Presiding Judge Tucker, when, instead of procuring an annulment of his alleged spurious marriage to Jessie Auterson, he was pinced under arrest by Deputy Sheriff Christofferson under two secret indictments returned recently by the Multnomah County grand moment during his divorce hearing. He had just left the witness-stand where he had given testimony in an effort to prove his latest marital venture a fraud, when the Deputy Sheriff served him with two warrants of arrest, one of which charged polygamy and the of which charged polygamy and the other non-support. Judge Tucker with-held decision in the divorce proceedings pending action by the District At-torney's office on the two criminal indictments.

According to facts brought to the attention of the grand jury by Deputy District Attorney Pierce, Cornell was legally married to Fannie Cornell in May, 1912. Two children, a boy and a girl, were born of the union.

A few years later, it is alleged,
Cornell desented his wife and children while they were living at Seattle. On April 7, 1917, he was married to Jessie
Auterson at Vancouver, Wash. Recently he filed suit for an annulment of his second marriage on the ground that his most recent wife was not legally able to enter into a marriage contract because she had not been diorced from a former husband for a period of six months.
