

ALLIES WILL FIGHT TO FREE RUSSIA

Complete Agreement Reached on Programme for Armed Intervention.

GERMANS TO BE EXPELLED

Japan Will Furnish Most of Military Forces Employed—All Troops to Be Withdrawn at Conclusion of War.

BY ARTHUR BEARS HENNING.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 25.—(Special.)—Complete agreement has been reached by the United States with Japan and the entente allies upon a plan of intervention in Russia to assist the Russian people and to expel the Germans.

President Wilson has received the reply from the Japanese government accepting the American proposals. The agreement includes the following provisions:

Japan will furnish the major portion of the military forces.

The United States and the entente allies also will be represented by military forces.

The United States undertakes to furnish economic assistance to Russia on a vast scale.

The troops of Japan and all allied nations will be withdrawn from Russia, including Siberia, on the conclusion of the war.

The agreement follows three months of negotiations among the allies, but principally between Washington and Tokio.

Bolshevik Threats Ignored.

Mr. Wilson conferred on the matter with Acting Secretary of State Polk today.

Neither the United States nor the allies will be deterred from the step they are about to take by the threats of Bolsheviki against the anti-German alliance.

Lenin's pronouncement that the landing of allied forces on the Murman coast constitutes an act of war and that the Russian government will not accordingly cause no surprise in Washington.

There have been rumors for several days that the Bolsheviki were about to make such a declaration, which officials here believe was inspired by the Germans.

The original protest of the Bolsheviki on the landing of allied troops at Kola and the occupation of the peninsula reached the State Department several weeks ago, but no attention was paid to it because the United States had not recognized the Bolsheviki government.

Enmity to be Disavowed.

So far as Bolsheviki enmity to the allies is concerned the President is confident that the answer to be given Russia will disarm suspicion and cause a revulsion of sentiment throughout the republic against these elements dominated by Germany.

It was learned on high authority that while the situation created by the activities of the Bolsheviki and soldiers scattered across Siberia and into European Russia as far as Samara modified the position of the allied nations, the allied expedition will be primarily in the interests of Russia and the relief to the Czech-Slovak troops will be merely an incident.

SAILORS TO BE RELIEVED

Living Conditions of 300 Interned in Germany Reported Bad.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—Immediate relief for more than 300 American seamen interned in Germany was promised today by the Shipping Board after receiving authenticated reports that their living conditions are bad and that they are suffering from lack of funds.

The State Department funds for the relief of interned Americans show a deficit, so the Shipping Board plans to continue the allowances formerly made to the seamen.

British officers receive 100 marks a month and the Americans will be as well supplied, probably through the Red Cross which also is sending regularly packages of food, clothing and tobacco.

ALLIED GUNS ELECTRIFY

erves and concentrated artillery to prevent movement at this point or at its counterpart, near Bolissons, where the western jaw had already been driven ahead in a week's fighting and now faces German reserves assembled from the whole battle line.

Should the Franco-British forces be able to enlarge their advance materially, the great trap might be finally sprung by final overwhelming blows on both sides. In that event, allied victories pictured in tonight's rumors might well be realized.

Escape Northward Possible.

To the cool judgment of artillery officers, however, the situation does not warrant on the basis of any information available at a late hour tonight the assumption that the time had come when the jaws of Foch's great vise might be crushed together. Knowing what they do of the strength of the Germans massed to hold back the menacing flank attacks, they believed it entirely possible for the enemy to escape northward.

The situation cannot be clearly gauged until further information is received as to the Franco-British operations west of Rheims. If the attack is pressed successfully, it seems possible that the enemy can stabilize his lines south of the Aisne.

SCENES OF FORGET-ME-NOT DAY, WHEN ALL PORTLAND DONNED THE FAVORS OF BELGIUM'S BABES.

CITY IS RESPONSIVE

"Forget-Me-Not Day" One-Not to Be Forgotten.

26,000 ARE SOLD BY NOON

Estimates of Total Derived by Sales Range From $10,000 to $15,000;

Crusaders Happy at Great Interest Shown.

Portland caught the full spirit of "Forget-Me-Not day," when the wee strays of blossoms, each tied with the tri-color of Belgium, made their appearance on the downtown streets yesterday for the benefit of the Belgian babies. Never a tag day in the history of the city met with such instant response, and within a few hours the majority of pedestrians were ticketed for the cause of kindness.

Estimates of the sum raised by the "forget-me-not" sales range from $10,000 to $15,000, but owing to the rush with which the sales went forward yesterday, the committee in charge did not attempt to cast-up the cash total last night, contenting themselves with placing the big sacks of small change safely behind bolt and bar.

26,000 Flowers Sold by Noon.

At noon the sales forces reported back from their stations on the streets, with every one of 26,000 floral favors disposed of. The fund raised for the fund over $7000, it is estimated, and was the amount of favors provided in anticipation of the full day's sales.

Workers at the assembly room of the Portland Hotel, where headquarters were established, turned at once to the task of constructing new favors of forget-me-nots and Belgian colors, which exhausted the local supply of material. Twenty thousand additional favors were made and turned over to the sales forces, and the last night practically all of these had been sold.

The fair crusaders who took such heavy toll of Portland's pocketbook were happy as a thousand incidents of interest and encouragement—each of which demonstrates how thoroughly city's Belgians are enlisted for the babies.

Iron Workers Sincere.

At the Smith & Watson Iron Works many of the men were without the necessary small change when Mrs. D. C. Gale approached them with forget-me-nots. They were sincere in their protestations that they would buy when the paychecks were cashed. But the worker was not to be put off. She found some capitalist who admitted having $5 in change and escorted him around the foundry, pressing loans upon the others for the purchase.

From his perch on the fourth story of a new building a workman tossed a silver dollar to another young woman, jokingly requesting his change. Nothing daunted, she clambered up the swaying ladders and complied with the request.

In the rally at Liberty Temple at noon, the workers and many citizens were addressed by Colonel John Leader, late of the Royal Irish Rifles, who spoke of the importance of the cause they were championing and who congratulated the workers with forget-me-nots. The crowd cheered lustily when the Multnomah Guard Band, directed by Lieutenant W. A. McDougall, played several patriotic selections. Led by its drum major, Sergeant Freiberg, the big military musical organization marched to the temple and did its bit for Belgium, as it is pledged to do for all patriotic causes.

Ninth District Exceeds Quota.

The Ninth District organization, which won its spurs in the recent war stamp drive, under the direction of Ferdinand E. Reed, turned 150 workers into yesterday's campaign and sold $1823.56 worth of favors.

Six thousand favors was the number apportioned to these workers, and at 25 cents apiece the receipts would have been $1500. Soliciting through the factory districts, largely from workmen and mechanics, the crusaders created a heavy excess subscription.

FRAUD BY CHECKS CHARGED

Woman Wanted in Eugene Alleged to Have Gone to Marshfield.

EUGENE, Or., July 25.—(Special.)—Mrs. Ethel Scott, alleged to have swindled Eugene merchants of about $100 through worthless check operations last week, visited Marshfield after leaving this city and forged a check for $50, according to disclosures today.

Mrs. Scott, who stated that she came from Corvallis, was employed three weeks in the office of Attorney L. M. Travis, working as a substitute while regular stenographers were given vacations. The check cashed at Marshfield was payable to L. M. Travis. It is alleged that Mrs. Scott, before leaving Eugene, took the check from the mail in Travis' office. When it was cashed at Marshfield it had been changed to read "Louise M. Travisum."

Mrs. Scott, after cashing checks in Eugene, wrote letters to the merchant in each case, stating that she had found that her funds were tangled and asking that the check be held.

EARL WITHYCOMBE HOME

Governor's Son on Furlough After Six Months in Hospital.

SALEM, Or., July 25.—(Special.)—After a siege of six months in a hospital at Washington, D. C., Earl Withycombe, son of Governor Withycombe, arrived in Salem tonight on a furlough from military duty until he is sufficiently recovered to leave for France. He was accompanied home by his sister, Miss Mabel, who for five months was at the bedside of her brother.

Earl Withycombe was first attacked with measles, with later developments of pleurisy and pneumonia. He subsequently underwent operations and for weeks his life was despaired of. He now appears to be well on the road to recovery and is anxious for the time to come when he can leave for the front.

NEW PACIFIC CABLE URGED

Direct Line From U. S. to Australia Held Necessary.

NEW YORK, July 25.—Establishment of direct cable connections between the United States and Australia was urged by a special committee of the council of foreign relations, an organization of prominent business and professional men, at a luncheon given today for a group of Australian editors visiting in the city on their way to the western front.

The committee was authorized to take up with the Government the proposal for a new trans-Pacific cable, "in furtherance of closer international and commercial relations" between the two countries.

ALIEN ENEMIES BARRED

Soldiers Cannot Make For Beneficiaries of Insurance.

CAMP LEWIS, Wash., July 25.—An order received today by the camp war risk insurance bureau states that as a matter of National policy the War Department will not permit soldiers to designate as their beneficiaries alien enemies.

Officers on duty in the department have telegraphed for a ruling as to whether or not the order forbids soldiers of German or Austrian extraction, whose parents live in this country, but who have failed to take out naturalization papers, from naming them as beneficiaries.

DRAFT HAS LENGTHY ARMS

Honolulu Merchant Ordered to Join Colors in Portland.

HONOLULU, T. H., July 18.—(Special.)—George Ahlborn, of the local firm of Wall & Dougherty, has received his draft summons from Portland, Ore., where he registered last Summer while traveling. Ahlborn was on his honeymoon last June when the draft came. He is going to Portland to report "I guess there isn't any other town that I liked to be drafted from better than from Portland," he remarked. Mrs. Ahlborn will accompany him North.

HONORS ARE RECOMMENDED

General Gouraud Asks Recognition of 60 Volunteers.

PARIS, July 25.—General Gouraud has asked that the Cross of the Legion of Honor be given to 60 volunteers who held advanced posts along the line east of Rheims until the Germans were upon them at the beginning of the offensive, according to the Liberté.

Hot weather means danger for your baby!

WHEN, in the stifling, still summer days, the thermometer crawls up to the nineties and your baby lies listless in his little hot bed, or tosses restlessly about, then is the time, above all others, for you to be careful with his feeding.

When you cannot nurse your baby any longer he must have milk in some form. Give him the food that for half a century has proved always safe, winter and summer: Nestlé's Food.

You mothers—who are reading this—you know that raw cow's milk is too hard for your baby to digest.

BUT there is much that is good in milk—much that your baby needs. So in Nestlé's Food we take the pure milk of healthy cows and make the curds easier to digest, adding just the right amount of sugar and cereal. It comes to you a dry powder in air-tight cans. It can't sour or spoil.

All you do is add a little cold water and boil. It is simple for you, and right for your baby.

So, in these hot summer days, when summer diarrhea takes thousands of babies each year from their mother's arms, keep your baby safe on Nestlé's Food.

Send this coupon or a postcard for a package of 12 feedings, so that you can keep your baby safe in the hot weather. We will send you also the big, free 96-page book by baby specialists telling you how to take care of your baby—and answering a thousand puzzling questions. For your baby's sake—do it today.

FAIR SPY TESTIFIES

Deputy Ceccaldi Accused in Malvy Case.

MADAME LE BRUN ON STAND

Woman Tells of Unnamed French Official Who "Belonged" to Germany—Dramatic Story of Experiences Narrated.

PARIS, July 25.—The trial of Louis J. Malvy, former Minister of the Interior, woke into new life today when an elegantly dressed woman took the stand. A large hat concealed her face and her name was given as Madame Le Brun.

She testified that she had made 13 trips to Germany, where she had been entrusted with missions to France, although she was really in the service of the French General Headquarters.

"A German Lieutenant," the witness said, "told me 'we have in the French government a person who has belonged to us for many years.' I asked the name of this person and the German replied, 'he is too highly placed, I fear too much trouble for you and him.'"

The witness said that on returning to France she had two female spies watched and arrested. One of them told her, she said, that she had a permit to travel from Pascal Ceccaldi, Radical Socialist Deputy, who had said to her "Keep silent. Make yourself forgotten." "I knew," added the witness,

"of the relations between M. Ceccaldi and M. Caillaux. I asked permission to return to Germany to elucidate this affair, but my chief, Colonel Zopf, refused, saying that I would only get shot. I insisted upon going, but Colonel Zopf persisted in his refusal to permit it."

The witness was sure that it was Deputy Ceccaldi mentioned by the female spy.

Public Prosecutor Merrillon closed the incident by saying that it was another Ceccaldi and not the Deputy.
