The appearance of Leah Cohen in song repertoire at the Hippodrome next week will be of interest to Portlanders who are following the career of the gifted young vocalist. Miss Cohen possesses a marvelous voice of unusual range and her programme for the Hippodrome auditions is one that will display her versatility in vocalizing. Ardit's Melba waitz is one number. Emma Nevada's beloved version of "Listen to the Mocking Bird" is another, and for the third selection in the group Miss Cohen will sing a new and harmonizing composition by a local musician, Henry Van Dyke. It is entitled "Just For You I'll Be True," and the words, pertinent and timely of the great war days, were written by Mr. Van Dyke's sister, Miss May Van Dyke. The week after Miss Cohen's appearance at the Hippodrome she will go to Seaside, and following an annual contest she has observed for several seasons, she will stage a huge benefit concert. BABIES NET $11,000

Sale of Forget-Me-Nots Success Throughout Oregon. ALL PORTLAND IS LIBERAL Miss Jennie Christofferson Leads in Individual Records With Sales Amounting to $195—One Team Raises $1000. Although all reports from throughout the state have not yet been received, it was announced at headquarters yesterday that more than $11,000 was realized from the sale of forget-me-nots, held Thursday for the benefit of the French and Belgian babies. Never before in the history of the city have the results from a tag day sale been more satisfactory. Mrs. W. B. Ayer, president of the Oregon committee for the relief of France and Belgium, and President J. L. Drouillard, of the Franco-Belge Society, are delighted with the liberal response. One team brought in $3000 and several others turned in more than $1000. The highest individual score was made by Mrs. Jennie Christofferson, wife of Chief Criminal Deputy Christofferson at Sheriff Harburt's office. Her sale of forget-me-nots amounted to $195. She was born and reared at Calais, the great seaport of France, and took an exceptionally intimate interest in the sale. Even before the business houses had opened their doors Thursday morning, Mrs. Christofferson was afoot on her errand of mercy, and the city's clocks had tolled the hour of 11 that night before she quit. Her patriotism for the allied cause is intense. This, she demonstrated by her tireless efforts Wednesday. The courthouse was the first building she entered, and after she had canvassed the structure from the basement to the top floor, she came upstairs minus a "forget-me-not" was an oddity. War Success Brings Joy. But that was not all. Upon her return home at midnight Wednesday, she adjusted the "Marseillaise" record in the phonograph and lifted her voice in song in celebration of the glorious war news from the western front of France. Mrs. Christofferson has a brother

A total of $170 was secured for the Belgian relief fund from the sale of buttons here. Girls in Belgian costume handled the sales. The committee in charge of the work in Albany consisted of Miss Flora Mason, chairman; Mrs. Percy A. Young, Mrs. J. H. Ralston, Mrs. E. D. Cusick, Mrs. W. A. Woodward, Mrs. J. L. Wood and Mrs. Willard L. Marks.
