

SPEAKERS URGE AID FOR PEOPLE ABROAD

Armenian and Syrian Relief Campaign to Open in Oregon November 23.

DR. BARTON THRILLS CROWD

Oregon, It Is Claimed, Leads United States in Per Capita Contributions for Relief of War Sufferers Overseas.

On November 23 Oregon will launch its second campaign for Armenian and Syrian relief. The drive will continue until the end of the month.

Such was the decision reached yesterday by the state committee for Armenian and Syrian relief, when Portland entertained two distinguished Easterners, Dr. James L. Barton, of Boston, chairman of the American committee, and Charles V. Vickery, of New York, secretary of the committee.

In addition, Dr. Barton is president of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, and Mr. Vickery is one of the founders of the Laymen's Missionary Movement. He was for eight years a resident of Turkey and has traveled extensively since that time through Asia Minor.

The men were entertained at breakfast at the Portland Hotel by the Oregon branch of the relief committee, and both gave interesting talks. Several out-of-town residents came to greet the visitors, and Mrs. Julius Louison, Colonel in the last Armenian drive in France, who made a special trip up from Seaside to confer with them.

Relief Workers Hear Message. Wells Gilbert, chairman of the Portland committee, presided. There were present 35 team captains and leaders, including Mrs. Julius Louison and John Dougal, colonels, and some out-of-town guests; Frank C. Jackson, of Seattle, northwest secretary; M. McDonald, Oregon, chairman of Washington County, and Dr. Roy A. Prudden, chairman of Clackamas County.

Oregon, it was asserted, leads all other states in per capita contributions for Armenian relief. A resolution concerning the coming campaign, which was adopted unanimously at the breakfast, follows:

"Whereas, it has been the privilege of the people of Oregon to save from the most pitiful of deaths no fewer than 2500 orphans of the Armenian and Syrian refugees;

"And whereas, we have just been shown that only by continued aid can these children be kept alive until the close of the war; therefore, be it

"Resolved, That this assembly of Oregon workers pledge the American committee for Armenian and Syrian relief our best efforts during the winter of 1918-19 to continue and increase Oregon's aid for those who will starve if our help is withdrawn, and be it

"Resolved, That we suggest to the Oregon executive committee a simultaneous state campaign in February or at whatever date may be approved by the State Council of Defense."

Dr. Barton delivered a most detailed speech later in the morning at the First Presbyterian Church on the subject of "Culture and Crime in Turkey."

Dr. Barton praised highly the work of the missionaries in Turkey and Persia and told remarkable stories of their heroism.

"It would not be surprising to see Turkey and Bulgaria entirely separated from the central powers within the next few months," he prophesied. "The barrier for Christianity in those countries has been broken down, and the muslim is beginning to see the light of Christianity. The war has opened the door to the Mohammedan world."

Dr. Barton also spoke at the First Congregational Church at 5 P. M., and Mr. Vickery spoke at the First Methodist Church in the morning and at night addressed a mass meeting at Vancouver.

At the afternoon session of the state committee, held in the Hotel Portland, plans were laid for the campaign, and speakers reviewed the work done in other cities. Dr. Barton and Mr. Vickery told of progress in the relief fund work both in the East and in the West.

PASCO TO HELP SOLDIERS

Men Subject to Military Duty Will Receive Preparatory Training.

PASCO, Wash., Aug. 4.—(Special.)—Following out the suggestion of Provost Marshal-General Crowder that a committee of citizens be appointed to give instruction and encouragement to the men who are likely to be called into the military service, a meeting was held here today to formulate plans and to select a committee for this work.

Several men in Pasco have had military training and will be asked to assist.

The idea is to give the men instruction in military work, duties and responsibilities of a soldier, and camp work, and to impress upon them America's part in the great war.

ARTISTS CALLED TO WAR

Actor, Cartoonist and Pianist Are in Group Arriving at Camp Lewis.

TACOMA, Wash., Aug. 4.—(Special.)—The American Army gets all sorts and conditions of men. In the last group who arrived here are Private Ralph Cloninger, who was leading man in stock at a Salt Lake theater. Another is Private W. M. Worthen, of Chicago, who was summoned by a Salt Lake City board.

Worthen has been a regular contributor to Life, Judge and the Cartoon Magazine with his funny drawings. Private S. Fogelberg, of Boston, has been a concert pianist for several seasons, and during the last year led an orchestra.

BENEFIT AT OAKS TO NET BIG SUM

Red Cross Chapter Aided by Thousands of Dollars' Worth of Donations.

30,000 PERSONS EXPECTED

Every Cent Expended by Crowd in Any Way to Go Directly to Local Organization for War Work Purposes.

Thousands of dollars' worth of donations of material and labor have made possible the gigantic Red Cross benefit at the Oaks Amusement Park tomorrow, which will be an all-day feature.

As a result of the day's activities, which it is expected will be participated in by 30,000 people, many thousands of dollars are expected to be added to the treasury of the Portland chapter, American Red Cross. Every cent expended at the Oaks in any way or form will go directly to the Red Cross.

Admission to the Oaks and to all concessions will be 10 cents. Meals will be served from 2 o'clock on at 50 cents and 25 cents, this department with that of soft drinks, ice cream and popcorn, being under direct management of General F. C. Crissell, of the Portland Caterers' Association.

Julius L. Meier, chairman of the Oaks Red Cross day committee, passed the entire day yesterday in conference with the different committee chairmen.

The Carpenters' Union donated sufficient men to erect the big cafeteria at the Oaks, which, it is announced, will be a marvel of efficiency and will be capable of feeding and serving a crowd of 30,000 people under most efficient devices from all the leading caterers have been employed.

As an instance of the complete military organization achieved in the pantry division alone there will be 150 men and women under the direction of Mrs. E. C. Michener, with the rank of general, while Mrs. Phil Gouverts, general, will have 240 people under her in the serving division. Other divisions are similarly equipped. All workers will work in systematic shifts. Volunteers will be received gladly and they should report tomorrow at 1 o'clock at the headquarters tent erected in The Oaks grounds.

Music will be a continuous feature of the day, all the while, each concert band participating. One will play classical music, another ragtime, and it is announced that all tastes will be cared for, and not one moment will pass that it cannot but have a universal appeal.

The first German prisoners taken by American troops in France, more than a score of them, with two officers who reluctantly faced the camera, are shown in the picture.

The Columbia is screening the picture with appropriate decorations and striking effects.

Sunset. Harold Bell Wright wrote a story for many millions of readers in "The Eyes of the World." In photoplay form this tale of the struggle between good and evil with a modern-story background promises to entertain even more millions than the book reached. The Sunset Theater is offering it as the feature of its latest programme, although the Fatty Arbuckle comedy, "Moonshine," is a "feature" in itself.

The mountains and valleys of California offer unusual opportunity for scenic beauty, and "The Eyes of the World" is excellent proof of this. In this atmosphere revolves a number of characters who interpret a drama in which love, hate and many other passions are rampant.

There's a fight in "The Eyes of the World" that is reminiscent of the terrific scrap between Bill Farnum and Tom Santsch, in "The Spoilers." However, the top of a mountain, instead of a room in an Alaskan shack, is the scene of the war of the struggle, taking the actors to the edge of a cliff time and time again, and finally one of the men is seen hurtling to his death far below.

A great part of the movie is devoted to the man battle, just as love and its companion passions dominate the book.

"Moonshine" is a very funny burlesque on the modern variety-theater service-man type of melodrama drama, with Arbuckle, St. John, Keaton and Alice Lake the principals.

Development Means Much. Translated into business results, this campaign is expected to bring more than 100 million men to Oregon in the forests, mills and wood-working factories, thus sustaining about half a million persons. Nine million tons of freight will be offered the transcontinental railroad. A fleet of 300 ships will assist in getting these lumber products to the Atlantic Coast. Owning and operating these ships, which will bring back the merchant marine, is one of the features of the programme of Portland business leaders.

DROUGHT REDUCES CROPS. Shortage in Lewis County, Wash., May Be Greater.

CHEHALIS, Wash., Aug. 4.—(Special.)—Lewis County farmers this season have been harvesting the shortest crops of hay, grain and other farm products in the history of this section of the state. Some fields of fall-sown grain gave fairly good yields, but the drought that prevailed during the growing season has had a serious effect on Spring-sown crops and the result is now shown in the yields that are being taken off.

A great part of the oats has been cut for hay. Corn in some portions is making a fair showing, but the outlook is not very promising. Rains within the next week or two would help out the yield of corn, potatoes and root crops of various kinds, but unless rain comes the drought will make itself severely felt on late crops.

FOURTH LOAN NEAR

Payments on Previous Issue Pleases Bankers.

FEW ARE HELD DELINQUENT

Portland People Declared to Be in Excellent Financial Shape for the Next Campaign, Which Opens in October.

Portland residents are in excellent financial shape for the fourth liberty loan, as indicated by payments on smaller-sized bonds of the third loan. According to Portland bankers, less than 20 per cent of the amount of the bonds is yet to be paid in, notwithstanding that the last 40 per cent payment is not due until August 15.

Few of those who subscribed to the last bonds are delinquent in payments. Estimates of the delinquents vary from 5 per cent to practically none at all. The war savings pledges may interfere to some extent with subscriptions to the fourth loan, according to E. H. Senech, cashier of the Northwestern National Bank.

"Many individuals who made large pledges to buy war savings stamps may experience difficulty in setting aside funds for the fourth loan," said Mr. Senech, "but by spreading out their payments they may be able to equal subscriptions to the last loan."

"Practically no delinquents have been reported at our bank and only about 20 per cent of the payments remain to be made. I expect to see the entire amount in well before August 15, which will give people more than a month to save up for the start of the loan campaign."

Delinquents still have a chance to redeem their initial payments of 5 per cent. Bankers are making an effort to reach delinquents so that they may not lose the first payments. Back interest must be paid by those late in paying up.

About 5 per cent of the subscribers at the Ladd & Tilton Bank were reported as delinquent by the vice-president, Edward Cookingham, also state chairman for the third loan.

Under the partial payment system on the last loan, 5 per cent was paid at time of subscription, 20 per cent in May, 25 per cent last month and the final 40 per cent August 15. The fourth liberty loan campaign will open September 28 to last three weeks.

VOTERS FAIL TO REGISTER

Many Thousands in Tacoma Show Lack of Interest in Ballot.

TACOMA, Wash., Aug. 4.—(Special.)—Means of getting Tacoma's new citizens to register for the Fall elections are perplexing public officials. Although the poll books close August 31, but 50 men and women have been appearing daily for registration. At least 15,000 names of old voters who failed to cast their ballots at the last Spring election have been scratched from the books, and these, with the newcomers, make many thousands who yet remain to get in.

Election officials believe at least 10,000 new voters have come to the city during the last year.

HOME GUARD IS RAISED

Election of Officers of Hood River Company to Be Held Today.

HOOD RIVER, Or., Aug. 4.—Organization of the Hood River County Home Guard is assured, says E. G. Cruikshank, member of a committee appointed by the County Council of Defense to take charge of the work.

"With but a single exception," says Mr. Cruikshank, "the men solicited for membership have responded, and we now have 65 applicants, who will meet Monday for election of officers."

Representatives of the Home Guard will meet next Wednesday with the County Court, who will be asked to make an appropriation for maintenance and equipment.

APPLE SALES ARE DELAYED

Hood River Reports Agencies Waiting Until Big Convention Ends.

HOOD RIVER, Or., Aug. 4.—Inquiries on the Hood River apple crop for 1918 are beginning to arrive, but agencies for the most part are awaiting until after the International Apple Convention at Philadelphia.

One of the strongest and most convincing evidences of the popularity of Tanlac throughout America is the large number of letters that are being received daily from well-known men and women telling of the remarkable results they have derived from its use.

"Before I began taking Tanlac he weighed only one hundred and forty-eight pounds, but that he now weighs one hundred and sixty-six—making a gain of eighteen pounds—and that he feels like a new man. Following is his letter in full:

"To whom it may concern: I, the undersigned, can truthfully say that the wonderful medicine known as Tanlac has done more for me in thirty days of time than any other medicine I have ever taken before in all my life. I have been suffering with my stomach, liver and kidney troubles for twenty years. I have taken six bottles of Tanlac and today I feel like a new man.

"Before I started using Tanlac it didn't make any difference what I would eat or drink, it distressed me so much that I wished the next breath would be my last. Also when I started taking this wonderful medicine, I only weighed one hundred and forty-eight pounds. Today I weigh one hundred and sixty-six pounds—have gained eighteen pounds already—and am still gaining. Also before taking Tanlac I couldn't sleep either night or day, but now I average about nine hours' steady sleep and I have an appetite like a horse. I am now 44 years of age and I can't praise Tanlac too much for what it has done for me."

SCHOOL GIRL TELLS OTHERS

How They Can Find Relief From Periodic Sufferings.

Nashua, N. H.—"I am nineteen years old and every month for two years I had such pains that I would often faint and have to leave school. I had such pain I did not know what to do with myself and I tried so many remedies that were of no use. I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the newspapers and decided to try it. I found relief from pain and feel so much better than I use to. When I hear of any girl suffering as I did I tell them how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helped me."—DELIA MARTIN, 29 Bowers St., Nashua, N. H.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, therefore is a perfectly safe remedy to give your daughter, who suffers from such painful periods as did Miss Martin.

The reason so many girls write Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, Mass., for advice, is because from their 40 years experience they have a store of knowledge which is invariably helpful.
