M RS. VINCENT COOK has been appointed city chairman of the Woman's Committee for the fourth liberty loan. This means that all the women who know Mrs. Cook and all who realize the importance of the coming campaign will work with a will for its success. Society benefit affairs for various patriotic funds will by no means be forgotten, and plans by no means be forgotten, and plans for two big fetes for next week will go on space. Hundreds of women will work today at the Oaks for the Red Cross benefit at the gay recreation park. But soon there will begin the big work for the fourth loan.

Mrs. Sarah A. Evans, state chairman, has returned from Chicago, where she attended the National meeting of state chairmen of women's committees, and attended the National meeting of state chairmen of women's committees, and she presided at an officers' meeting yesterday in the Library. Several out-of-town women were present.

The names of the executive officers so far announced are: Portland chairman, Mrs. Vincent Cook; first vice-chairman, Mrs. Dallas Bache; second vice-chairman, Mrs. William L. Wood; state secretary, Mrs. Laura Cavers-Brogden; publicity chairman, Mrs. Harold Sawyer; board members, Mrs. Alice Benson Beach, Mrs. Kelly Rees, Mrs. Isaac Swett, Mrs. Kolt Wilson, Mrs. D. A. Shindler, Mrs. Withrow, Mrs. Elliott Corbett, Mrs. Frederick Eggert, Mrs. Donald Spencer, Mrs. C. B. Simmons, Mrs. E. H. McCollister; Oregon City chairman, Mrs. H. B. Cartlidge; vice-chairman for Southern Oregon, Mrs. W. W. Calkins; vice-chairman for Eastern Oregon, Mrs. G. T. Cochran.

Mrs. William L. Wood, who is widely beloved and who was city chairman during the third liberty loan, is re-ceiving the sincere sympathy of the many hundreds of loyal women who were her co-workers and all who know her in her great work as head of the Red Cross Shop and Salvage Bureau. Mrs. Wood has been asked to give her advice and help by being a board mem-ber of the next Liberty Loan Com-mittee.
