UNENOWN AUTO INJURES PEDESTRIAN -J. W. Howatson, 361 East Sixth street, was struck and knocked unconscious by an automobile at Fourteenth and Alder streets late Saturday night. According to two witnesses, the driver of the machine continued up the street at a fast rate of speed without stopping to investigate the accident. Mr. Howatson regained his senses in time to see that the car was a large one and to get a distant view of the license number, which he told the notice was number, which he told the police was Or. 2898. On investigation the police found that that number belonged to the lightest and smallest car on the market, and therefore could not be

PROGRAMME AT HIPPODROME PRO-VIDES PLEASING NOVELTIES.

Photoplay With Famous Kitty Gordon in Leading Role Rounds Out Entertainment at Playhouse.

Louise La Mont, picturesquely Parisienne, and Harry La Mont, who smacks of Paris, Kentucky, rather than Paris, France, are of paramount interest on the Hippodrome new bill. Louise chatters in French to Harry and that sweater-clad lowbrow tries to rans-late it, to the huge delight of everyhedy. One of Louise's prettiest num-bers is a dance, for which she wears a gorgeous colorful gown, in which is commingled all the rainbow tones and a few more. The La Monts are billed as two "Beach Nuts." because part of the act takes place at a beach resort.

Jeanette Dupree, who clowns cheerily, and Eleanor Wilson, who is a prima-donna type with a big soprano voice, offer a cut-up act, filled with songs and chatter and philosophical remarks. It is all of a comedy nature and pleasing.

Sharp and Gibson are a pair of funsters. One is a recruiting officer and the other in blackface is an ebony aspirant for the aviation corps. Their nedy is of a war-day flavor and is at times very funny, and at other times, not so funny.

Arnold B. Murnelle has a clever turn. He dances on roller skates all sorts of intricate steps, keeping perfect time, and as an added bit jumps in and out of barrels and turns somersaults, never losing step.

atherine Calvert in "Romance of the Underworld" Is Feature of Film Plays Offered Movie Fans.

Especial interest and personal sentiment is attached to one of the pictures being exhibited in the Universal Weekly series on the new bill at the Strand. This is a "close up" and other views of Dr. Stephen S. Wise and his son at work in the shipyards at Stamford, Conn.

Inasmuch as Dr. Wise is so well known in Portland and his patriotic attitude toward labor is so pronounced as evidenced by his going to work in the yards as a laborer, since he is too old to go into actual service, the picture assumes intimate personal interost.

The Foundation Shipyards' quartet is an added attraction on the bill. Four stalwart young men, clad in workaday clothes sing in excellent harmony a deightful selection of songs. Another musical act that finds great favor with the audience is the Musical favor with the audience is the musical Bentleys, a man and a girl, who play on the xylophone a rare collection of airs, blended together to make a regular cheer-up act. The man adds a bit of comedy which amuses the spectators when the dignified girl endeavors to squelch him with reproving glances.
