

DRAFT TO SPEED UP

Senate Will Take Up Man-Power Bill Monday.

SUMMER RECESS SET ASIDE

Some Opposition Expected to Fixing of 18 as Minimum Age; Prohibition Likely to Have Early Hearing.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—In order to expedite the passage of the Administration's man-power bill extending the draft ages from 18 to 45 years for unanimous consent agreement by which the Senate was to transact no business until August 24 in to be set aside and the bill taken up next Monday.

An understanding was reached today by Senate leaders, who notified absentees to return Thursday, a quorum being required to pass the man-power bill before the agreement can be vacated.

The bill is still before the Senate military committee, but Senator Chamberlain plans to have the committee act on it tomorrow and report it favorably Thursday.

In the House no action has been taken, Chairman Dyer, of the House military committee, having announced that his committee would not take up the measure until the House reconvenes next Monday.

Senate leaders anticipate some opposition to fixing 18 as the minimum draft age. By an overwhelming vote the military committee today went on record as opposed to substituting 21 for 18 years minimum age in rejecting an amendment proposed by Senator Kirby, of Arkansas.

He announced the fight for the 21 minimum would be renewed in the Senate.

Prohibition leaders were elated over the movement to recall the Senate. Under the agreement the emergency agricultural appropriation bill, to which the amendment providing for National prohibition during the war attached, was made.

Supporters of the prohibition amendment believe the man-power bill can be disposed of in a few days and will not interfere when the time comes to vote on the prohibition question.
