Monday, cutting short the Senate vacation recess period by a week.

The bill is framed to enable the Nation to increase its war programme in accordance with an understanding reached with the allies.

About 13,000,000 men would be registered under the new law, and Provost Marshal-General Crowder estimates 2,398,000 of them would be available at once.

During consideration of the bill in committee Secretary Baker, General March and General Crowder appeared to explain the imperative necessity for extending the draft ages and to urge
