BAND CONCERT POSTPONED .- For the second time it has become necessary to postpone a band concert scheduled at Keniliworth Park. The concert scheduled for Sunday, August 18, has been deferred until Saturday, August 24, in order that the residents of this district and of all Portland, may attend the massed band concert to be held at Laurelhurst Park next Sunday afternoon. The Laurelhurst concert will mark the opening of the Grand Army of the Republic encampment in Portland. The municipal band will play in second time it has become necessary to or the Republic encampment in Port-land. The municipal band will play in an open-air concert in front of Liberty Temple on Wednesday night, August 21, for the benefit of visiting members of the Grand Army of the Republic, ac-cording to an announcement made yesterday by Park Superintendent Keyser.

NEW BANK ORGANIZED.-Offices and basement in the Elks building, Broad-way and Stark street, have been leased for a period of five years by W. B. Haines, who has announced the prospective establishment of a new banking institution to be known as the American Savings Bank. Mr. Haines says that several prominent Portland men are identified with the enterprise, the capitalization of which will be $100,000, entitling it to membership in the Federal reserve system. Mr. Haines was one of the organizers of the Forest Grove National Bank, in

SALE.—Much interest has been aroused and discussion, pro and con, indulged in by proparty owners and real estate. in by property owners and real estate dealers over the half-page announcement in The Sunday Oregonian of a sale by auction of the quarter block on the southwest corner of Grand and Hawthorne avenues, being an income producing property having a transfe and intersection corner with more cars stopping there daily than at Fifth and Washington or at Third and Morrison streets. Some question the advisability of sales by auction, others contending that it is the most speedy and fair way of effecting a sale, giving as it does all intending or hesitating buyers the time and place at which to decide on a purchase. ## BUGLE RESULTS IN PLAINT

A. Shaw Asks City Council to Suppress Military Activities.

Is a "bugle call" an unnecessary

This question must be determined by the City Council. A communication addressed to the council by A. Shaw, $12 Marshall street, complains of bugle calls that regulate the af-fairs of Hill Military Academy, located across the street from the Shaw home. According to this letter, the bugle calls begin at 6 A. M. and continue every two hours until 8 P. M. Mr. Shaw says he took up residence at this location to remove his family from the noise of streetcars, but finds that the military activities annoy his family far greater than would the noise made by moving streetcars.
