YRIC MUSICAL STOCK Opens Tomorrow.

Dillon and Franks-all the popular favorites, including the Rosebud Chorus "SETTING THE PACE"

For nearly a century the public has laughed and wept with Rip Van Winkle. He is undoubtedly one of the most adorable and lovable characters in literature. Every schoolboy is familiar with the story of Rip's sleep of 20 years.

Rip Van Winkle, Jr., is a chip off the old block, but instead of sleeping 20 years, as did his namesake, he slumbers for 100 years. What he finds when he awakes is shockingly amusing to Rip, Jr. The Armstrong Folly Company will play "Rip Van Winkle, Jr," one of the most pleasant of musical comedies, at Oaks Park for a week commencing with the matinee tomorrow.

Tonight, "Fascinating Flo," which has played to capacity houses all week, closes. You should see this delightful comedy before it is too late.

JOHN F. CORDRAY, Mgr.
