

DRAFT CONTINGENT TO ACT AS CLERKS

Limited Service Selectives to Be Inducted for Service With Boards.

OTHER DUTY WILL FOLLOW

Assignment Announced as Coming in January Furnishes Ground for Speculation; Jobs Held by Women Secure.

Limited service selectives fitted for the work, 76 in number, are to be inducted into the Army on or about September 14 and assigned to clerical tasks in the various draft boards of Oregon.

In a general way the order promulgating this induction of men contemplates that one of them shall be assigned to each district board, medical advisory board and local board. Many of the smaller local boards are not asking for and will not have these extra soldier clerks. It is provided that the extra men may be apportioned to the more important boards on direction of Captain J. E. Cullison, state draft executive.

Other Duties Will Follow. "On and after January 1, 1919, the enlisted personnel herein authorized will be assigned to other military duty," says the order from the office of the Provost Marshal-General.

This statement furnishes ground for speculation. The prevailing belief is that these men are to be trained in clerical work connected with the draft so they may be taken to Washington the first of the year, there replacing enlisted men who will be sent overseas duty. One guess is that they will be sent into the Spruce Production Division headquarters in Portland for the same purpose.

It devolves upon Captain Cullison to select the men for induction under this call. The local boards recently furnished his office with lists of their limited and special service men fitted for clerical work. Inductions will be ordered from those lists. The men will be entrained for Vancouver, Wash., and will carry letters from Captain Cullison assigning them to the town and board for which they are to work.

Young Women Reassured. Captain Cullison, as military officer at state draft headquarters, is to become commanding officer of these limited service soldiers. Only to a limited extent will they be amenable to military discipline. They will draw regular pay, with allowance for quarters and subsistence of something more than $5 a month.

Most of the clerks and chief clerks of draft boards in this state are young women. They looked askance at the new proposal at first, under the impression that they were to be replaced in their present jobs. Now that it is definitely promised that the soldier clerks are to be assigned to other duty excitement over the order has subsided.

U. S. NOW FULLY IN WAR

Advance on Western Front Humanity's Largest Hope.

Dr. Joshua Stansfield, pastor of the First Methodist Church, delivered an interesting sermon last night on the subject, "The American Advance," during a discussion of which he said: "America—the freest, richest, ablest, highest idealized and best prepared nation on earth—America is now fully in the war."

"We have initiated and adopted the American and democratic principle of the selective draft, whereby the fittest and ablest of the entire Nation is available for humanity's service and cause—not conscripted by an autocratic and imperial power, but selected by a free and representative Government and people; the potential Army of 10,000,000 now, and within a few days millions more. By the full consecration of its manhood, its money and all its industrial and material resources to a high end and for a worthy cause.

"With high ideal and purpose and programme, America is now laying aside every weight and sin that easily beset her. In her advance the past week she has thrown off the manufacture of all intoxicating liquors—and she has done so for the entire Nation is now her decision.

ILLUSIONIST TOPS BILL

MYSTERIOUS ACT HEADLINED AT HIPPODROME.

Clever Comedy Marks Dupree-Seymour Act and Dale Wilson Wins Audience with New Song.

Walter Baker, mysterious illusionist, heads the new bill which opened at the Hippodrome yesterday, being assisted by the clever comedy appearing in his series of illusions. Mr. Baker carries a carload of equipment which he uses in his skillful performance and throws in a number of entertaining light-of-hand card tricks which completely mystify his audience.

Katie Dupree and O. G. Seymour appear in Chinese comedy character, Seymour, in the role of "boy" having a line of slow humor introducing clever new comedy and Miss Dupree giving some pretty exhibition dancing to music played on Chinese instruments.

Dale Wilson, billed as a "bunch of personality," sang, pattered and completely won her audience by a new song, "The 20th Century Maiden's Prayer." Her line of talk is breezy and entertaining.

Rector, Weber and Talbert, harmony trio, in "soup and fish" clothes, sang a series of popular song numbers.

Pauline Stark, charming little movie star, appears as "Betty" in Magnus Ingletton's thrilling story of the underworld, "Alias Mary Brown."

No Criminal Cases in Crook.

PRINEVILLE, Or., Sept. 8.—(Special)—Circuit Court will open tomorrow morning with prospects of the shortest term in the history of Crook County. For the first time no criminal cases are on the docket, which is attributed to prohibition.

MOVING PICTURE NEWS

CLARA KIMBALL YOUNG AND MILTON SILLS IN "THE SAVAGE WOMAN" AT MAJESTIC THEATRE.

scenic and News Pictorial round out a splendid programme. Liberty. Dorothy Phillips has been sacrificed on the altar of sex drama. At least it would seem so, for her recent pictures, including "The Risky Road," "Soul for Sale," etc., have been hectic affairs. So with "The Mortgaged Wife," the latest Liberty Theatre offering. The only difference is that this new Jewel production is even "sexier" than the others.

There's stuff enough for a couple of pictures in "The Mortgaged Wife," with a ship wreck at sea, a long-lost brother come to life, the bank president who "falls" for the pretty girl, the brother who goes wrong, the vampire, the cabaret, German spies, stock exchange battles, etc., to prove that the author was not stung.

The picture strives for the sensational in plot, development and title. The title doesn't misrepresent, for the picture is a pro and con discussion of the sex question.

"His Friend's Wife," a title promising something in the vein of the Dorothy Phillips picture, is not a sex drama, but another of those Mack Sennett fun fests.

Sunset. There's action enough for the most blasé film fan on the new Sunset Theatre programme, which is a two-star, double-bill offering, with Monroe Salisbury in "The Guilt of Silence" and William Russell in "Up Romance Road."

"The Guilt of Silence" is one of the most magnificent snow pictures ever made. Billiards and huge snowdrifts which defy man, with his snowshoes and wallowing dog-trains, furnish the background for a story of high-powered melodramatic action. Salisbury is "Silent" Smith, a chap who is accused of crimes galore and unable to defend himself because he cannot speak—and presumably cannot write. But in the end he recovers his speech and confounds his enemies, at the same time winning a bride, a role played by Ruth Clifford.

"Up Romance Road" is another picture full of action, with Russell in the role of a young society chap who stages an elopement to break the monotony of existence; has his girl stolen from him by German spies and recovers her and foils an effort to wreck some of Uncle Sam's shipping. Charlotte Burton is Bill's leading woman.

DRAFT SIGNS TEEM

Myriads of Placards Proclaim Registration Message.

ADVERTISERS GIVE SPACE

Multitude of Reminders to Be Placed Before Readers; Pointers to Men Affected Given Out by Captain Cullison.

No provision that would aid in making the registration of draft-age males on Thursday a triumphant expression of the American people against Hunism is being overlooked in Portland. Immense signs announcing the event have magically found place in the past 48 hours on the busier downtown corners, contributions of the sign painters.

The Government will put out myriads of placards and no end of instructions for those who must register, it is said. Much of this material has been late in arriving. Advertisers have promised to throw reminders in profusion before their clients.

At the Municipal Auditorium tomorrow evening the chief registrars and assistants will assemble to receive detailed instructions from draft leaders and members of the central registration committee of the city. It is held extremely important that all who are to serve in registration booths Thursday attend this meeting, where many troublesome points that are certain to crop up will be elucidated.

From the office of Captain John E. Cullison, selective service executive of Oregon, this summary of pointers was issued yesterday: WHO MUST REGISTER—All male persons (citizens or aliens) between the ages of 18 and 45 years, both inclusive, who have not already registered under the former laws, until the age of 30 years, both inclusive; the only exceptions being officers and enlisted men of the regular Army, Navy and Marine Corps and the National Guard while in Federal service, officers and men of the drafted forces, officers in Officers' Reserve Corps and enlisted men in Officers' Reserve Corps while in service.

WHERE—At office of Local Draft Board having jurisdiction where person to be registered permanently resides, or other place designated by that local board. In Portland, registration must be made at the designated place in the home precinct of the registrant.

HOW—Go in person on September 12 to your registration place. If you expect to be absent from home on September 12, go at once to the office of the local board where you happen to be. Explain the circumstances and have your registration card filled out and certified. Then mail it at once to the local board having jurisdiction where you permanently reside. Enclose a self-addressed envelope with your registration card, for the return of your registration certificate. Failure to get this certificate may cause you serious inconvenience. You must mail your registration card in time to reach your home local board on September 12.

NOTE—Persons absent from their homes who happen to be in Portland should go at once to Room 145 of the Court House to register. It is not possible to register there. IN CASE OF ILLNESS—If you are sick on September 12, you must have a present your self in person for registration, send some competent friend. The clerk may deputize him to prepare your card.

INFORMATION—If you are in doubt as to what to do or where to register, consult your local board. If in Portland, go to room 145 of the Court House and inquire there. PENALTY FOR NOT REGISTERING—Failure to register is a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment for one year, without option of paying a fine. It may result in loss of valuable rights and privileges and immediate induction into military service.

MRS. KING STARTS PAINTING HOUSE

Does Own Work Since Tanlac Has Built Her Up So Wonderfully. "Tanlac has done me more good than any medicine I ever took in all my life, and it is just building me up fine every day," said Mrs. Hortense King, of 267 Halleck street, the other day. "My health began to fail about two years ago," she continued, "with nervousness and loss of appetite. Worry about the fate of my little son, whom I left with my mother in Belgium just before the war broke out, helped to pull me down, for I have never heard a word from either from that date to this. My system was so badly run down that I could hardly keep going. Last May I was operated on and have been back to the hospital twice since then. I had such an awful misery in my back that I could hardly get out of my chair and my nerves were in such a wretched condition that the noise made by the children playing almost drove me distracted. I rested so poorly at night that many a time I would go back to bed soon after getting up in the morning, for I felt too weak and miserable to stay up. My tongue was really started painting my house, doing the work myself, and I believe I am going to make a good job of it, too. My nerves don't worry me now and I sleep like a baby all night. I am going to keep on with Tanlac as long as it continues to do me as much good as it is doing now."

Tanlac is sold in Portland by the Owl Drug Co.—Adv.

Thousands of women no longer restrain themselves to the thought that sickness and distress are natural. They know better, for Mother's Friend they have found a wonderful penetrating remedy to relieve many dreaded experiences.

Nervousness, bearing-down and stretching pains are among the disheartening and distressing experiences women everywhere say they entirely escape during the period of expectancy by the use of Mother's Friend. Here is a remedy that softens the myriad of broad, flat abdominal muscles just beneath the skin, enables them to expand without the usual strain upon the ligaments and nerves and assists nature to make it possible for women to get through maternity without many of the dreaded symptoms so familiar to all.

By regular use throughout the period the muscles expand easily when baby is born, and pain and danger at the crisis is completely less.

Mother's Friend is for external use only, is absolutely and entirely safe and has been used by thousands of women awaiting the greatest time in a woman's life for over half a century.

Write Bradford Regulator Co., Mfg. Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for their "Mother's Friend" so valuable to expectant mothers, and in the meantime obtain a bottle of Mother's Friend from the nearest drug store. Begin its use at once according to directions with every bottle, and thus fortify yourself against pain and discomfort.
