DANCE ACT SUPERB

Real Sensation Sprung at Pantages Theater.

20 SPANISH GIRLS APPEAR

Each Feast of Color and Joy to Eye-Dancers in Costumes of Their Own Country.

BY LEONE CASS BAER.

Direct from the olive groves and sunkissed hills of picturesque Spain by way of New York's musical comedy and Winter gardens, are the Spanish dancers who decorate Pantages' new bill opening yesterday. Every occasionally this vaudeville theater springs something truly sensational which sets us all by the ears. The Lilliputians did it on one occasion and packed the theater for two weeks running. The Spanish dancers are another sensation, and Portland has never seen their like.

Twenty exquisitely heautiful daughters of Spain, with flashing eyes, rare smiles and wearing the beautiful costumes of their own country, appear in one fascinating dance after another. There are five separate and distinct scenes in the act, and each is a feast of lovely color and a joy to the eye. The first picture is of a street in Seville, with Senorita Puchol, who has a sweet voice of persuasive cadence, as a solicit and a group of Spanish BY LEONE CASS BAER.

Two beautiful girls who follow every well-laid dream of what the real daughter of Spain may be, dark as midnight as to hair and eyes, and vivid as a rose in coloring, with rapid dance movements, are Senoriths Doloretes and Mazantina, who dance the "Moorish Soul" Quick, aiert, splendid dancing it all is, or dreamy and measured with heels clicking and castanets clicking. A Spanish Senor, Julian Beniloch, is at the piane and another son of Spain, Senor Antonio de Bilbas, presents an amazing dance typical of Seville, on the table in a cafe.

The next picture is one of marvelous tapestries on a high wall, in front of which Senorita Puchol presents the "Lady of Old Madrid," looking for all the world like a type found in Goya's paintings and wearing an ancient handwoven gown. Senorita Mari-Juli interprets a graceful, rhythmic, lovely number, reflecting the Moorish and the Spanish in thems. Spanish in theme.

The third episode is a spectacular Spanish fantasy. One number, combining French waltzes with Spanish stepa, is exquisitely done by Senorita Doloretes. Another is a daring sensational dance, an orgy of color, quite as if Bakst had painted it, in which some of the dancers are in gorgeous black and white costumes and the others in vivid red. Every costume is a veritable sensation and a poem in color harmonics. The entrance to the bull ring brings us the gypsies, traveling from town to town and dancing in their gorgeous trappings the abandoned native dance.

Last is the Spanish garden, wherein is set the epectacular madly-whirling competitive dance, the folk dances. Each pair uses different steps in order to interpret the dance for us in all its infinite variety.

Those two clever Italian melody lads have returned, the De Michelle brothers, one with his harp and the other with his violin. They offer a delightful harmony number. Another pair of brothers, the Wintons, are amazing exponents of superstrength. "A Mile a Minute," one of those sensational comedy-dramas, with a thrilling finish, is offered, and a pair a thrilling finish, is offered, and a pair of folk, Hooper and Burkhart, sing ac-

Face Peeling Easy— Blonde or Brunette

"The blonde's complexion fades early, because her skin is extraordinarily thin and fine," says Mme. Lina Cavalieri. "The brunette's, as a ruie, is the reverse. The skin is thicker and has a tendency to an oily appearance."

For either the faded blonde's skin or the brunette's oily or sallow complexion, the best remedy is ordinarysmer colised wax. Used every night, this will give one an entirely new complexion within about a week's time. The wax gradually peels off the wornout surface skin with all its defects, a little each day, without affecting the delicate underskin in the least. The later will have the exquisitely beautiful glow of youth—indeed, one may readily lose ten or fifteen years from her age, so far as appearance goes, by a
