4000 PEOPLE SEE FAIR

FRATERNAL AND SCHOOL DAY IS DECIDED SUCCESS.

Thousands of Children and Lodgemen View Grandest Exhibits Ever Assembled in Multnomah.

GRESHAM, Or., Sept. 20.—(Special.)—Fully 4000 people went through the gates at the Multnomah County Fair grounds today, which was Fraternal and School day. Many school children were enabled to take advantage of "time off" from studies to enjoy the fine exhibits and races which were held in the afternoon.

Many lodges were in attendance en masse, several auto parties coming out from Portland. The day was ideal and one of the best the fair association has had in the past two or three years on Fraternal day.

Tomorrow is Patriotic day and arrangements have been made to have several important addresses made during the day and in the evening.

Music this year is an especial feature, several bands giving their services to the fair.

SANE CHRISTMAS IS URGED

Useful Gifts and Early Buying and Mailing Commended.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Sept. 20.—In further reference to the conference Senator Chamberlain held some time ago with the War Industries Board concerning the interests of Portland merchants and the Christmas trade, the board today submitted to the Senator its programme for conserving resources, labor and material.

It is urged that merchants sell chiefly useful gifts; that people be encouraged to buy only useful gifts; that they buy early, carry the goods home and mail early everything that is to go by post.

Joseph Pulitzer Enlists.

CHICAGO, Sept. 20.—Joseph Pulitzer, editor of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch and director of the New York World Corporation, has enrolled in the aviation training school at Great Lakes naval training station. Mr. Pulitzer is 33 years old, is married and has two children.
