Cancellation of First Citizenship Papers Excuse From Military Service.

RUSH MADE TO SHIPYARDS

Men Deferred for Summer Alaskan Fishing Alter Minds on Return. Inducted Swedes and Others Apply Diplomatic Pressure.

Cancellation of first papers by Swedish, Norwegian and Swiss declarants to obtain release from military duty goes merrily on.

Class 1 men of the same nationalities.

Class I men of the same nationalities, given the special consideration of deferment last Spring for the fishing season in Alaska, are speeding into the shippards upon their return.

Inducted men of the same three nativities, and Russians as well, are applying diplomatic pressure in attempts to get released from the American Army.

A typical case is that of Amandus C. Olson, 27, unmarried, now giving his address as the Valley Hotel. He was placed in class IA last March, as a receivant, having taken out his first papers March 17, 1814. In April both he and the packing firm for which he was to work applied for passport permit granting him the privitege of deferment so be could spend the season with the fishing crews in Alaska. Afmost immediately after his return he withdrew his application for citizenship and returned the declaration of intention.
