

DRAFT LOTTERY TO BE HELD MONDAY

Thirteen Million Men Affected by Drawing to Decide Order in Respective Classes.

NUMBERS WILL BE MAILED

Proceeding to Be Held Publicly in Senate Office Building; Time Necessary for It Estimated at Twenty-six Hours.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—Drawing of the master numbers which will determine the order in their respective classes of the 13,000,000 men who registered for military service September 12, will begin at noon Monday and continue without interruption until 17,000 numbers have been taken from the bowl. Officials estimate that it will require 26 hours to complete the work. The drawing will be held publicly in the senate office building.

Because of the classification system, this drawing—the third since the National War Reliance act—will have the significance that attached to the first lottery last year, when order numbers were assigned 3,000,000 men.

Only Fit Men May Be Called. Unless the War Department changes a plan of calling registrants and inductees the deferred classifications, the numbers to be drawn will affect only those men of the new draft ages who are physically fit for military service and are not given deferred classification.

This number has been estimated at 600,000, but all these will not be affected immediately, since the department has determined to call first men between 19 and 27. Between 27 and 45 will be next called, but there has been indication when that will be held for the youths of 19 students' Army training corps now organizing at 600 universities and colleges will be in line for Army service.

In announcing the date of the drawing today, General Crowder said that the first 100 numbers would be telegraphed over the country. The others will be mailed to the district draft boards as the drawing proceeds and will be made public by the boards as rapidly as they are received.

Influenza Epidemic Factor. Some of the new registrants between 19 and 27 will be called for entrainment next month, although temporary suspension of the first October call, made necessary by the epidemics of influenza in many army camps, may delay the induction.

When between those ages also will be assigned to the Navy and Marine Corps, the quota for the Navy being 15,000 monthly and that of the Marine Corps 600 monthly.

CONSULT BRINGS WALKOUT

FIFTY WORKERS AT SILVER FALLS MILL QUIT.

Removal of Foreman Accused of Using Indecent Language Toward Women Demanded.

SILVERTON, Or., Sept. 27.—(Special.)—Trouble at the Silver Falls Timber Company's mill arising from indecent language alleged to have been used by W. A. Hoagland, foreman of the planer department, toward Miss Edna Jones and other women employees of the mill, caused a walkout of about 50 men and women employees, who refused to go back until Hoagland is removed. When Miss Jones resented the insult, it is said, she was discharged by Hoagland. This morning she was employed by A. H. Green, foreman of another department and in the afternoon the manager of the mill ordered Green to discharge the girl. This brought the walkout.

Thirty-two members of the Lumbermen's and Loggers' Loyal Legion have petitioned Colonel Bruce P. Disque, of Portland, to investigate the matter and demand Hoagland's removal. Mayor Adams also made a personal appeal to Colonel Disque in behalf of the wronged girls.

Colonels of Silverton are very much worked up over the matter and the authorities probably will take some action if Hoagland is retained by the company.

CITY IS TOLD TO BUILD

VICE-CHAIRMAN POWERS MAKES REPORT TO MAYOR BAKER.

Special Attorney for Emergency Fleet Corporation Says Portland Contracts Are Involved.

Definite information relative to the building material priority that is to be extended Portland during the coming industrial housing campaign, was secured by Vice-Chairman Ira F. Powers, who made a visit to Seattle, and who has returned and presented his report to the committee of which Mayor Baker is chairman.

"While in Seattle," says Mr. Powers in his report, "I had the good fortune to meet Mr. M. Appel, special attorney for the Emergency Fleet Corporation, and the personal representative of Mr. Taylor, director of passenger transportation and housing of the Emergency Fleet Corporation. In two conferences with him I was able to obtain the exact status of the material priority proposition, which is the essence of the housing problem at this time.

"He has recommended, and expects approval within a few days, of the following:

"That priorities be issued for the necessary materials for 1000 houses at a time. That of the total 1000 houses, 75 per cent shall cost not over $2500 each; 15 per cent not over $2000 each, and the remaining 10 per cent not over $1500 each. Priority for material shall be furnished for the necessary apartment houses on a basis substantially equivalent to the foregoing, and that when the first lot of 1000 houses is about to be exhausted, priority should be issued for an additional 1000 on the same terms and conditions.

"In addition each home builder, before priorities are issued to him, will be required to execute a legal option, effective for 10 days after the completion of the house, giving shipyard and other war workers the first opportunity to lease or purchase the house.

This option, however, will not be required where the builder intends to occupy the house himself, for the reason that such occupancy of the newly constructed house will release another house or apartment.

"I learned further during the conference with Mr. Appel that the Government has no intention of financially aiding Portland in building homes, and that Portland's ability to obtain additional contracts from the government for ships depends entirely upon the city's ability to provide additional suitable homes for the shipyard workers.

Mr. Appel is expected to arrive in Portland today or Monday for a conference with the executive committee of the housing commission, and determination upon the program for erecting cottages probably will follow that conference.

KAISER GOES TO HOGS

END OF FIFTY-MILE KICK IS FITTINGLY INGLORIOUS.

LUMBER NEED IS VAST

DEVASTATED EUROPE WILL CALL FOR 7,000,000,000 FEET.

Efforts to Be Made to Get Purchasing Departments of Allied Governments to Buy While Prices Are Low.

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 27.—(Special.)—Europe will be rebuilt after the war in large part with lumber from the West Coast territory, said Dwight H. Davis, representative at Washington of the West Coast Lumbermen's Association in an address before the association today.

A survey has already been taken of devastated Europe, he said, with the result that an estimate of a need for 7,000,000,000 feet has been prepared. Efforts are to be made at once to get the purchasing departments of all the allied governments into speedy co-operation to the end that lumber may be bought at present low prices and stored for delivery on notice.

President Burnside, E. D. Kingsley, Portland; A. C. Dixon, Eugene; Walter R. Nettleton, Seattle; and A. L. Paine, Hoquiam, were appointed a committee to confer in Washington October 11, with the War Industries Board regarding new price lists. C. D. Moore, Government agent, reports it costs the mills more to produce lumber now than they are getting for it.

Permanent terms of sale were adopted providing for 2 per cent discount within 15 days after invoice or settlement by 60-day trade acceptance.

OBJECTION IS OVERRULED

Trial of Soldier Who Formerly Lived in City Must Proceed.

TACOMA, Wash., Sept. 27.—(Special.)—Attorneys lost their first battle in the fight to save George Pidd, Camp Lewis soldier, who is alleged to have struck down Lawrence Berquist last December with a gas pipe and afterward robbed him, when Judge E. M. Card, of the Superior Court, overruled his objection that Pidd was being tried twice on the same charge.

The state is charging him with assault in the first degree. Judge Card ruled that an acquittal or conviction by a court-martial does not bar a state action.

Pidd formerly lived in Portland and was stationed at Vancouver Barracks before being sent to Camp Lewis. His wife was a Portland girl and they were arrested there.

Relatives and Friends Say Au Revoir to Boys Going to Other Camps.

CAMP LEWIS, Tacoma, Wash., Sept. 27.—For three days the streets in which are the barracks of the 166th depot brigade have been filled with relatives and friends of the many men who are being sent to other camps.

When trains left for Fort Stevens, Or., carrying 1664 men who will join the Coast Artillery command there, long lines of civilians, principally women, saw the trains depart. Other troops also have been sent to other camps in the movement, which is the largest in weeks.

Many of the women looked upon the transfer in the same light as though the soldiers had been ordered to France and many came long distances to say their good-byes.

The Prudential Insurance Company's subscription of $15,000.00 was announced today by Superintendent J. P. Dey on behalf of himself and associates in this city. It is part of a total subscription of $30,000,000, made to the loan by the Prudential, which is one of the largest subscriptions turned in in the United States. Dey announced that the entire force of 18,000 Prudential agents and representatives throughout the country have been urged by President Forrest F. Dryden to get behind the loan to the utmost.
