

WELL-TO-DO FAIL IN BUYING BONDS

Slackers and Shirkers Brought to Book by Liberty Loan Officials.

THREE OFFENDERS NAMED

Plans Outlined for Intensive Campaign Among Wealthy Citizens Who Do Not Recognize Obligations to Their Country.

Twenty-fourth street, and C. Welk, of 4121 Forty-second street, Southern Wearied by constant rebuffs on the part of citizens who have declined to buy bonds, or who have not subscribed in amounts considered fitting to their resources, Chairman Olmstead and General Talbot called into session yesterday morning all members of the field forces as well as the Portland committee. Decision was reached at that time to give to the public the names of alleged shirkers and slackers.

With the unanimous sanction of the city executive committee and the staff of colonels, the department of justice was issued concerning citizens who are held to be derelict in their duty to the fourth loan:

"At a meeting of the executive staff and the colonels held at the Portland Hotel this morning, it was deemed that the time had come to begin publication of the names of slackers and shirkers.

Government Contracts Held.
"Our definition of a slacker is a person or firm who can buy bonds and does not. A shirker is a person or firm who buys a grossly inadequate amount, obviously much less than he or she should buy."

"We therefore, begin with the following list:

"John Clark, of the John Clark Saddler Company, 164 Front street, a shirker. He has subscribed $500. To the best knowledge of the committee, he is worth in excess of $200,000 and has government contracts to the extent of about a quarter of a million dollars.

"William Isemee, 43 North First street, a slacker, who refuses to buy any bonds and has been reported to the Department of Justice under the provisions of the espionage act. This man was extremely troublesome in the third liberty loan campaign, and was brought before the police department and the Department of Justice at that time on similar charges."

"C. Welk, 4121 Forty-second street, Southeast, a slacker, does not believe in buying bonds. His case is now in the hands of the Department of Justice." Portland Liberty Loan Committee, GUY W. TALBOT, General.
EMERY OLMESTEAD, Chairman."

New Campaign Outlined.
Portland's campaign today will open with a decisive attack upon incomes and bank accounts that seem to warrant larger subscriptions than those already recorded. At yesterday's meeting unanimous agreement was reached in the plan of campaign which will be carried out by the city forces and which was embodied in the following resolutions:

"Whereas, from the canvass made to date by the liberty loan organization for subscriptions to the fourth liberty loan, it conclusively appears that there is a very substantial number of men in professional and business vocations in good circumstances and who enjoy substantial incomes, but who have not subscribed in proportion to their resources, but are permitting the more prominent capitalists and laboring men to assume the burden at hand, now, therefore, be it

Business Men Will Be Rated.

"Resolved, That each business and profession be classified and that a committee be appointed in each class in each class, that with each rating will be listed the amount subscribed by the man rated; that, thereupon, said rated member be notified of his rating and appear and show cause why he should not subscribe to the amount of his rating; that, if no good cause be shown, that his name, rating and amount subscribed be published in the daily press; and, to the end that no injustice may be done, be it further

"Resolved, That investigation be made of available Government and private records that the liberty loan committee may ascertain the incomes and resources of the persons so rated as aforesaid."

Wealthy Contractor Shirker.

"It is apparent, declare Liberty Temple officials, that many solicitors are failing to secure proportionate subscriptions from citizens well able to make the investment, and are being set aside with subscriptions for a single bond where dozens might well be purchased.

Illustrative of this is the authentic story of a wealthy contractor who bought a $50 bond. When his pledge card was checked at Liberty Temple evidence was produced to show that he was amply able to subscribe a far larger amount and that his business activity was thriving. A special solicitor visited him and met his rebuffs with absolute refusal to leave until the matter had been thrashed out. The controversy closed with a liberty loan subscription for $5000.

Portland forces will take the field again this morning with instructions to close the campaign at the earliest possible moment by the exertion of every ounce of energy and persuasion at their command. It is considered probable that the city's quota, with loyal response on the part of those so located, will be fulfilled tomorrow, though Wednesday night is predicted by some as the close of the campaign.
Outer-state figures remain as they

Hart Wants to Fight.
Bill Hart is too old for first-line fighting, but he is anxious to take a whack at the Hun. Therefore, following the example of Theodore Roosevelt and others, he has written to the War Department asking permission to form a regiment of Rough Riders.
Nearly all of the Rough Riders in the world are at Los Angeles at the present time, working for various film enterprises. Bill's ambition is not likely to be realized. No, Uncle Sam well-comes able-bodied scrappers, rough riders or otherwise, but he frowns on the volunteer regiment stuff.

What Pictures Cost.
The statistician of the World Studio at Fort Lee has spent some interesting time in working out the figures of just what a production costs and his work forms the basis of a conservation propaganda which should have a far-reaching influence.
"The nominal time for the filming of a story," he says, "is based on a four weeks' schedule. This arranges for delays growing out of weather conditions."
"Each picture averages 300 scenes.
With a working day of eight hours this means the daily quota of 12 1/2 scenes on a 24-day basis. The average cost of a picture is $25,000. This makes the cost of each scene, including titles and subtitles, $22. A day's work represents $1040.62. This includes all overhead of the studio. Each minute represents an expense of $2.17."

Screen Gossip.
"Under Four Flags," the third United States official war picture to be issued by the division of films of the Committee on Public Information, will make its first public showing early in November.
Mary MacLaren is the first motion picture actress at the West Coast studios to display a gold star in her service flag, meaning that a dear one has lost his life in the service. The clever Universal star is mourning the death of her cousin, Edward Reamer Agnew, who died with the American expeditionary forces in France.

INTERIOR IS LOVAL

EASTERN AND SOUTHERN OREGON COUNTIES DO THEIR PART.
Marvelous Spirit of Patriotism Among People East of Cascades Declares Judge John H. Stevenson.

Arriving at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon and having covered 1301 miles when the machine stopped in front of the Liberty Temple, the Yellow Demon party's first announcement was that state committees which may be selected to handle future liberty loans need never worry about interior and Southern Oregon counties doing their part.
"There is a marvelous spirit of patriotism east of the Cascades," said Judge John H. Stevenson, "and although present demands are heavy, I have no hesitation in stating my belief that the people out in the wheat belt, the sheep camps and on the cattle ranges are ready to put up their last cent to back their boys in France to win."
"Wherever the Yellow Demon was booked to appear, there the people gathered from the towns and the farms, and it was literally impossible to meet all the demands for meetings that came to us as we passed through the country."
At Fort Rock for instance, he held a street meeting with 75 persons present. Somewhere they secured an organ and dragged it to the steps in front of the abandoned I. W. W. hall. With wind blowing a gale and sand pouring into the instrument through every crack, those people sang patriotic songs and cheered the speakers.
"In that vicinity there is an absolute failure of crops and farmers do not know how they will get through the winter. The liberty loan committee did not really expect any subscriptions from those people, but did determine to ask for $1000. The subscriptions totaled $1400 when our party left, and there were other contributions. I am sure that in a number of what we found everywhere."

SHAREI TORAH RAISES $21,000 Jewish Residents of City Respond to Patriotic Appeals.

More than $21,000 in pledges to the fourth liberty loan have been made by members of the congregation of the Sharei Torah Congregation, First and Hall streets, the patriotic rally held Saturday night having resulted in a substantial increase to the total. Many members of the congregation doubled their pledges, while others tripled, and some quadrupled their subscriptions.
President A. Rosenfeld opened the rally, assisted by Vice-President Samuel. A committee consisting of M.
Barde, Frank Glick and J. Vidgoff was in charge of the campaign among Jewish people, who made liberal response to the call for funds. J. W. Barde acted as chairman of the evening and introduced D. Sells Cohen, Henry Mc-Cormick and Ben Sells, all of whom made strong appeals for liberal support of the Jewish people for the fourth liberty loan.
The rally did not close until after midnight, and subscriptions continued to come in yesterday.

Polk's Quota Nearly Subscribed.
DALLAS, Or., Sept. 29.—(Special.)— Polk County's quota of the fourth liberty loan will be well over the top when the final returns are in, according to a report issued by County Judge E. C. Kirkpatrick, county chairman of the campaign. About a late hour Saturday night about 75 per cent of the entire amount of $248,890 had been subscribed, with several large districts yet to hear from. Four of the districts in the southwestern part of the county were oversubscribed the first few days of the drive, they being Wilson, Montgomery, Pelee and Allie.
In Dallas the committee at work have been more than successful and every party splitting has sought ready of the bonds. Dallas' share of the quota is $114,460.

First Day's Work Big One.

KLAMATH FALLS, Or., 29.—(Special.)—One hundred and seventy-seven thousand dollars from Klamath Falls and one outside district of Malin is reported as the work of the first day's campaign by Chairman Arthur Wilson, who estimates that in the neighborhood of $250,000 has thus far been subscribed.
The county's quota is $485,000.

LITTLE MAIDS AT SCHOOL ADOPT WAR-TIME RIBBONS.

Boy Brothers, Not to Be Outdone in Patriotism, Are Decked With Conservation Needles.

Someone ought to send word right away to the war industries board that conservation has touched even the curls and pigtails of thousands of little maid-ens who attend the Portland public schools.
For the latest vogue in hair ribbons —and not to have one is to invite the tilted noses of one's playmates—is the wrapping paper bow. A la wa-rime! Nobody knows just where it started, but all in a week there bloomed in city schoolyards hundreds and hundreds of ribbons fashioned from colored wrapping paper, erstwhile utilized for the grocery and merchandise deliveries.
Countless fathoms of real silk ribbons were referred to the bureau drawer for reuse, and the Hun is harried back to Berlin.
The small daughters of Portland are very earnest about it, and many a perplexed and smiling mother has wondered "where in the world" the children ever gleaned their applicable ideas regarding a personal patriotic sacrifice.
The colored wrapping papers are shaped in neat bows and held in place with hairpins. Not to be outdone in the loyal demonstration certain of the small boy brothers have fashioned neckties of the same material, and pin them on.
The five largest counties in Ireland area: Cork, 1,841,521 acres; Galway, 1,562,362; Mayo, 1,315,130; Donegal, 1,190,368, and Kerry, 1,119,358 acres.

WASHINGTON CITIES ARE ALIVE

Larger Towns Generally Report Heavy Subscriptions to Loan.
OLYMPIA, Wash., Sept. 29.—(Bonds.) The state of Washington, through the State Board of Finance, will subscribe to $1,000,000 worth of fourth liberty loan bonds.
Elmer Dover, chairman of the liberty loan committee at Tacoma, says the campaign opened with an avalanche of small subscriptions. Every indication is for a large amount and many subscribers.
Subscriptions totalling many thousands of dollars already have been reported at Spokane.
Three Yakima valley cities—Maches, $18,000; Mabton, $35,000; Zillah, $37,000 —reported full quota raised. Yakima

OLD AGE STARTS WITH YOUR KIDNEYS

Science says that old age begins with weakened kidneys and digestive organs.
The being true, it is easy to believe that by keeping the kidneys and digestive organs cleansed and in proper working order old age can be deferred and life prolonged far beyond that enjoyed by the average person.
For over 200 years GOLD MEDAL Hairlem Oil has been relieving the weaknesses and disability due to advancing years. It is a standard old-time home remedy and needs no introduction. GOLD MEDAL Hairlem Oil is enclosed in odorless, tasteless capsules, containing about 6 drops each.
Take them as you would a pill, with a small swallow of water. The oil stimulates the kidney action and enables the organs to throw off the poisons which cause premature old age.
New life strength increases as you continue the treatment. When completely restored continue taking a capsule or two each day. GOLD MEDAL Hairlem Oil Capsules will keep you in health and vigor and prevent a return of the disease.
Do not wait until old age or disease have settled down for good. Go to
refunded if they do not help you. Three cures about the same. But remember, the original imported GOLD MEDAL brand, in sealed packages.—Adv.
