EUGENE, Or., Sept. 30.—(Special.)— Charles Pinkham, formerly of Marcola, Lane County, who had been serving with the Canadian army, is reported missing in action, according to word received by his aunt, Mrs. Wick Huff, of Eugene. Pinkham had been on the western front three years.

The past few days have brought the first casualties of the war to Pomeroy, Wash, boys, according to E. W. Collier, former superintendent of Pomeroy schools, now attending Reed College as a member of the Students' Army Training Corps.

Kenneth Briggs, who enlisted in the Navy, died of influenza in Washington, and today Lieutenant Frank Fitzger-ald is reported missing. The latter has four brothers in the service. Pom-ercy has 250 young men in Uncle Sam's

Mr. Collier's wife is also attending Reed College, taking the reconstruc-tion aides' course.

Armine Young, son of E. M. Young, of Independence, Or., who was reported missing in action July 22, is in a base hospital receiving treatment for a wound in the right arm, according to a letter received by the father September 28. The young man was a member of Company L. an Independence organization. His letter was written September 6, and was received last week, setting at rest the fears that had been entertained by relatives. Young says he succeeded in getting his share of Boches before they put him out of Boches before they put him out of business.
