Association Heads Will Meet at Seattle Friday.

Representatives of All Clubs Will Be Present and Many Problems of Importance to the Game Will Be Considered.

SEATTLE, Wash, Oct. 2.—(Special.)
—Ice hockey, the fascinating sport which has furnished several thousand Northwest fans weekly with entertainment for several Winters, will be on the sport calendar again this year. This is the tip that comes down from Vancouver, where the powers that be in the Facific Coast Hockey Association reside

A meeting has been called for Seattle Friday, announced President Friday, announced President Frank Patrick, at which the directors will arrive at some understanding as to how the league will shape up. The conference means that the owners are planning to operate again this year.

Friday's seasion will be preliminary to the annual meeting, which will be held next month at Vancouver, Representatives of all the clubs will attend. Several problems confront the officials. The question of players is the most serious, as many of last year men are now in the big game. However, there are a good many hockey players left, the entire Vancouver team being practically intact.

The organization of the league also will be discussed at the seasion. Last season the league finished the schedules with Seattle, Portland and Vancouver in the race, which is probably the way, it will line up this year. With tens of thousands of shipbulders in the three cities and all three towns enjoying unusual prosperity, it is almost certain that the moguis will decide to start the season with these three cities represented.

Frank Patrick is not rushing things, but will wait until the meeting be-free waking any ang any approach and the server of the first time in the history of athletics on the Pacific Coast three girls who practical Coast three girls who present as delegates at the annual meeting, of the Pacific Coast three girls who present as delegates at the annual meeting of the Pacific Coast three girls who present as delegates at the annual meeting of the Pacific Coast three girls who present as delegates at the annual meeting of the Pacific Association of the Amateur Athlete Association of the Amateur Athlete

LINCOLN AND JAMES JOHN TO CLASH HERE FRIDAY.

"Railsplitters" Have Been Practicing Hard Under Coach Sanders Are in Speedy Condition.

With real football weather in sight nothing will be lacking for the opening game of the Interacholastic League tomorrow afternoon on Multnomah Field, with Lincoln tackling James John in the initial contest of the season.

Although James John has not been a member of the interacholastic League for several seasons, a rivalry has sprung up between that institution and Lincoln that borders on the famous old Washington-Lincoln clashes. Last year a great commotion arose over Lincoln that borders on the famous old Washington-Lincoln elastes. Last year a great commotion arose over the James John-Lincoln game, when the former team was awarded the context by a 7-0 score.

A Lincoln man raced for a touchdown after grabbing a kick, but was not allowed the score by Referee Stubling. Lincoln has never been able to get over that loss, and is out to make up for it tomorrow afternoon. Only three veterans will be in the James John lineup, according to a survey completed by the Police and flick with Mayor Baker. In addition, there are 30 vacant store buildings that could be transformed buildings that could be transfor bell, while eight or nine last year's players are back in the harness at Lincoln. The "Rallsplitters" have been DR. STEINER LEAGUE HEAD practicing hard under Coach George Sanders and are said to be an excel-

Sanders and are said to be an excellent combination of speed and weight. A dent was put in the prospects last week, when Fullback Twining and Right Tackle Dodge left school, Twining to go to the University of Oregonand Dodge to the University of Washington. Dodge was turned down at the University of Washington, so is back in his position again. Hanson will play fullback in Twining's place. He was captain of last year's track team and is a football man of experience, having played with Lincoln for several years.

Hanson also weighs more than Twin nig, and should fill the latter's shoes to a "T." Monroe, Seitzer or Robinson will likely start the game at the haives for Lincoin. Morris Rogoway will play quarterback again this year.

Columbia's chances have been shot to pieces again. Bob Tucker and Shipley have quit school and several others may follow soon. Those now working out under Coach Luck have not given up hope for a championship aggregation. Bert Jacobberger is captain and plays quarterback,

The Fortland interscholastic football followers will see a regular "whiz" in action at quarterback for the first time this season when Jefferson plays Commerce on October S. He is Norman "Frenchy" Youmans. Youmans has been ineligible at Jefferson until this year, and is out to make up for lost time. Youmans weighs about 125 pounds, but is one of the best players ever developed here. While at Lincoln several years ago he was groomed for the quarterback position by Stanley Borleske, but broke his leg in practice and did not get to play.

McCarthy has been matched with Rilly Wright, thereby proving that latter is game to tackle anything once. The bout will take place at Tacoma next week. Wright is a shifty, clever boy, who should be able to keep away from Mctarthy's piledriver right, but he is biting off a large chunk in picking the Californian.

ing the Californian.

Lee Houck is going to take another fling at the Los Angeles game. Houck is popular down South, having broken into the moving plotures in Los Angeles, and he has signed to box Louis Rees at Vernon this coming Friday. Houck left right after Tuesday's show with Kruvosky and Levingon. After seeing Farmer take his little trimming Tuesday the fans
