MAN, AFTER FINAL REFUSAL, LED THROUGH STREETS.

Sheriff Condemns Action at Cashmere and Threatens to Have All Participants Arrested.

CASHMERE, Wash., Oct. 7,-(Spe cial.)-The solicitors of the fourth libcial.)—The solicitors of the fourth in-erty loan bonds for this district be-came very trate when laboring witha-bunch of conscolentious objectors to buy liberty bonds. These people, mem-bers of the Church of God, have been persistent in their refusals to help the Red Cross or buy bonds or war savings stamps. They were warned that if they did not come through by 6 o'clock they would have to suffer the indignity of stamps. They were warned that if they did not come through by 6 o'clock they would have to suffer the indignity of being stripper to the waist, smeaked ber of Commerce. Main 457. with yellow paint and paraded through the streets. Three of the man paid for $50 bonds, but refused to take them. About 5:30, the solicitors, business men, started for the country on a truck to bring in Anderson Drake, who has been hiding behind his religion to keep from making any donation that would help win the war. He was escorted to the Red Cross surgical dressing room and was sean unred to do something. and was again urged to do something for his country. Upon his refusal, the promised punishment was fulfilled. Drake was smeared with yellow paint and a double sign of "stacker" hung over his shoulders. He was then led through the streeets with a heavy rope
