REASONS TO HEAR OSWALD WEST.— Portland's Problem After the war will be the subject of an address before the Portland Realty Board at its luncheon in the Benson Hotel at 12:15 o'clock today by Oswald West, ex-Governor of Oregon. Mr. West has just returned from a trip abroad, during which he studied shipping and harbor conditions in the various port cities of England, Scotland, Wales and France.

Man Power
and Clothes

It takes man-power to make clothes—it takes nearly as much man-power to make a cheap suit that will wear for a few months as it does to make a good suit. When you buy

Kuppenheimer
Clothes

you not only get quality garments that will deliver long service, correct style and all-around better values, but you are conserving man-power. Buy the best clothes you can afford today—it's the course of real economy and service to the Nation. Quality in clothes begins at

CHANCE FOR VOLUNTEERS HERE.— There is an opportunity for seven Class 1 draft registrants in the Multnomah County district to volunteer for service with the "fighting mechanics" at Benson Polytechnic School, if they will make immediate application to the Multnomah County local board, room 225 Courthouse. So far 16 of a quota of 29 have volunteered for this special service and the board is anxious to secure the others through volunteering instead of through induction.

TWO COUNTRIES INCREASE LOAN SUB-SCRIPTIONS.—The Multnomah County have increased their Liberty Loan subscriptions $75,000 and $15,000 respectively, according to the last reports received at the State Department. The state total now stands at $17,738,450.
Marion, Umatilla and Jackson counties have failed to subscribe their full allotment, but the over-subscriptions of the other counties make up Oregon's share so that it is among the states who have pledged more than required.

Y. V. MARTIN IS PLAINTIFF.—Y. V.
Martin, former manager of the Grand Company, is plaintiff in a suit started yesterday before a jury in Circuit Judge Stapleton's court. The plaintiff demands recovery of $700 from his former employers, alleging this sum is due in back salary and commissions.
He alleges he was first employed at a monthly salary of $150 and 10 per cent of the profits. Later, he says, his salary was increased to $250 a month and shortly after this advance was given he was discharged from his employment. The case should reach the jury by this afternoon.

JENNEY DRIVER APPEALS.—J. M. Carick, a Vancouver jitney driver, who was fined $25 for violation of the Portland ordinance requiring such carriers to have a license and furnish $1000 bonds, has given notice of appeal to the higher court. Carick was one of six Vancouver drivers arrested for having no license and will contest the issue. The case grew out of the treatment accorded Portland auto drivers going to Vancouver on business, the Portland ordinance being passed in retaliation.

WOMAN SUES FOR $5000.—Mrs. Alice E. Davis is plaintiff in a $5000 damage suit filed in the Circuit Court yesterday against the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company for injuries alleged to have been sustained when she fell from a Twenty-third-street car on December 15, 1917. She says she suffered a permanent shock to her nervous system.

WAGNITZ ESTATE $15,000.—An estate valued at $15,000 was left by the late Maria Wagnitz, according to the estimate named in the petition filed yesterday in the County Court asking that the will be probated. The property is left to the children and grandchildren of the deceased.
