GENERAL SERRET IS FIRST

Entire Steward's Force Aboard Standifer Boat Kineo Recruited from Among Colored Race.

Success attending the work of the Sea Service Bureau of the United States Shipping Board in manning the newly constructed American vessels, all of which are being sent away with no delays experienced on the score of crews, has resulted in the Portland office being requested to supply men for the French vessels being turned out by the Foundation Company. Lieutenant Jones, of the Sea Service Bureau, said yesterday the first French carrier to which the office would uncarrier to which the ciffice would the dertake to give a full complement of men was the General Serret, which was launched September 4, and goes on her official trial trip this morning. The Nancy, Aviateur de Terlines, Belfort and General Gallieni are being fitted and hulls for the Luneville, Gen-Maunoury and Soissons remain on

SAN FRANCISCO. Oct. 18.—(Special.)—
Grical Inspector C. L. Morgan, of the United States Shipping Board, refused to place five ordinary seamen graduates from the training ship firs on the Gulf Mail power schooner Asteria today on account of the unsanitary condition of the accommodations provided for the crew. The men were returned to the tecciving ship Ocean Wave and Morgan made a report to Captain John Leals, chief of the local sea service bureau. In his report Morgan said that the Asteria was a "pest" ship and the evidence of it consisted in a plentiful supply of vermin that thrived in the small forecastle. Morgan said that the would not give a ship of this character the right to ship a human being of any race or milonality and that no sailors would be supplied by the Government unless the craft was cleaned thereughly and properly equipped for clean American sailors.
