WOMAN SAYS SHE WAS ANESTHETIZED
Mrs. J. W. Lynch, 784 East Twenty-sixth street, reported to the police yesterday that she had been robbed of $20 by two men and a woman who came into her house and rendered her unconscious with ether. She was discovered in a semi-conscious condition by her two children. A nurse from the Emergency Hospital reported that Mrs. Lynch's clothing was saturated with the ether and that Mrs. Lynch was in a serious condition, but probably would recover. Inspectors Coleman and Morak reported that Mr. Lynch has purchased the ether in Bend, Or., and that the $20 had been left with Mrs. Lynch to pay a grocery bill. Mr. Lynch is a shipyard employe.

TWO SUFFER FROM LOSS
Two cases of absolute loss of memory have been handled at the Emergency Hospital within the past few days. Harold Hughes, 23, who recently came to Portland from Oklahoma, was sent in yesterday. He had no recollection of how he came to Portland, or of what he had been doing since he came here. Internes say he may develop pneumonia as a result of exposure. His identity was discovered from papers in his pocket. The other case was that of Mrs. Lola Smith, 27, of 233 Pine street, who was brought to the hospital October 18. She recovered and went home.

COUSINS LAUDS PORTLAND
Portland has no equal according to A. H. Cousins, former district fiscal superintendent of the Forest Service with headquarters in this city, who is visiting here for several days. Since his promotion a year and a half ago to property, assistant his headquarters and home have been in Utah. C. M. Allen, telephone engineer of this forest district, is back in Portland after having made an inspection of the trail being constructed at Duckabush in the Ozarks. The trail is ten miles long, commencing at the forks of the Bogachiel River, and will make accessible 2,000,000 feet of untouched timber.

DRAPY EXAMINATIONS DEFERRED
Fears that the assembling of 20 registrants each night for physical examinations might help spread the influenza contagion has caused local board No. 6 to cancel all group examinations for the week. Men in this division who were summoned to appear the next night may disregard the call and no notices have been sent summoning registrants for tests Friday and Saturday nights. Individual examinations, where necessary, will be conducted during the board's usual hours.

An Appeal to the Public
As a result of war conditions and the present epidemic of influenza there has been an abnormal increase in local telephone traffic. Patrons will perform a patriotic service by refraining from using their telephones for local service, except when absolutely necessary, in order that the service of the Government war industries and other vitally important interests may not suffer.

Do You Know That pre-War Quality Woolen Goods Are on Sale at Very Nearly pre-War Prices at the Cut-Price Sale of Woolen Goods at Brownsville Woollen Mill Store?
You who read this are beyond doubt like all the rest of humanity in one respect; and that is wanting to secure one hundred cents worth of value for every dollar you spend.
This sale enables you to secure more value for your "Woolen Goods Money" than you dared hope for, for we are selling Woolen Goods of Pre-War Quality at very nearly Pre War Prices—something no other concern in this town can do.
This astounding mercantile feat was made possible by a bit of forehandedness on our part. We contracted for these goods over a year ago, when woolen goods were still being made according to former methods and sold very nearly at pre-war prices. That is why we are selling—
