OREGON BOY AFTER KAISER BILL'S SCALP

Artillery Feels Missionary Call to Land of Huns.

ALL HEROES UNDER FIRE

Chaplain Mathews Writes Mayor Baker, Expressing Appreciation of Generosity.

Oregon boys with the 65th Artillery in France are feeling the missionary call so strongly that they are going into dark, uncivilized Hunland in an effort to abolish Prussianism, is the word sent back by Lieutenant Albert K. Mathews, chaplain of the regiment. In a letter to Mayor Baker, the former Astoria minister tells how the Oregon boys in the 65th are cutting their way through the German lines.

"I know that you, as the chief representative of the good people of Portland, will be glad to convey to your citizenry the greeting from your soldier boys serving with the 65th Artillery (CAC) somewhere on the western front," he says, "and not only to Portland people, but to people of Oregon from those boys here from all over the state.

"I do not think I am breaking any regulations when I say that this regiment is now at the front. We have been here but a very short time, but we have been here long enough to let 'Fritz' know that Oregon boys are anxious to, and capable of, shooting straight, having given the barbarians a taste of our ammunition in a very recent engagement.

One Private Wounded.

"You will be interested to know that up to the time of writing the entire regiment has suffered but one casualty, a private in Battery D, who was grazed with a piece of shrapnel, but so slight was the injury that he is doing duty again.

"I wish, Mayor Baker, you could have been with me during the past week and witnessed the bravery and heroism, as well as the tremendous and tireless physical labor expended by our boys in getting ready for their first visit to Fritz.

"The money which the people of Portland, Astoria, and in the state so generously contributed to be used at my discretion for their boys is being carefully handled and expended in such a manner as to give a certain amount of comfort not otherwise obtainable. I have on hand about 3500 francs, a great part of which will perhaps be used to make the Christmas day as much like home to the men as is possible under existing conditions on the western front, and I feel that this will be ample for the purpose."
