THRIFT STAMPS AND WAR SAVINGS STAMPS

Miss Mildred Hurd Dies of Pneumonia—Miss Mildred Hurd died at her home, 400 East Forty-eighth street North, Monday, of pneumonia. Miss Hurd was born in Minnesota, July 17, 1876, coming to Portland with her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Hurd, in 1904. She graduated from the Washington High School, and finished a two-year training course in teaching. For the past five years she had been a teacher at the Mount Taber School. As soon as the quarantine was lifted, residents of Mount Taber will hold memorial exercises in the Mount Taber School in honor of Miss Hurd. The pupils, teachers and residents of Mount Taber will also place a memorial tablet in her honor in the Rose City Cemetery.

Home Wanted for Girls—A temporary home is being sought for the two daughters of Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Cullen, Kathleen Mary, age 7, and Myrtle Anne Dorothy, age 5, who are uncared for while their mother lies in the hospital with pneumonia and while their father is at his business during the day. The little girls have recently recovered from attacks of heavy colds and need careful care for a few days. At present they are alone all day at their apartments in the Hoyt Hotel and the father is anxious to place them where they will receive good care for a short time to relieve the mother of worry.

Federal Commission Delayed—Due to arrive in Portland yesterday, members of a Government committee to investigate sites for a reconstruction hospital have not yet arrived in Spokane, according to word received by Mayor Baker Monday afternoon. A telegram from Washington several days ago announced that the commission, headed by Lieutenant-General Northington, was to arrive in Portland November 1, four days after they were supposed to be in Spokane. Recent change in personnel of the party and the influenza epidemic are blamed for the delay.

Edward E. Seaholm Dies—Edward E. Seaholm, formerly of this city, died at Champlain, Ill., October 29, 1918, from pneumonia following an attack of Spanish influenza. He is survived by his father, C. L. Seaholm, of Casa Grande, Ariz.; two brothers, Edward W., of this city, and Alexander, of Hot Springs, Alaska; five sisters, Mrs. P. F. Bonde, of Montevideo, Minn.; Mrs. R. M. Reed and Mrs. Anna Andrews, of Los Angeles; Mrs. Evelyn Nottingham, of this city, and Mrs. Harry Reed, of Casa Grande, Ariz.

Colored Registrant First—Ernest Lewis Franklin, colored, living at 455 Everett street, is the first man in Oregon to be called for induction from the September 12 registration, draft officials stated. The registrant from previous enrollment who should have filled this one-man call has been sent to replace a rejected inductee. This made it necessary to register Mr. Franklin, who will be sent to Camp Lewis about November 19. He is registered in division No. 7.

New Cases of Pneumonia—Every day brings out the announcement of new cases of this dread disease, but often a goodly number could have been averted. When a cold first takes hold of one is the time to ward off the influenza attack. Purula Influenza Treatment will prevent complications setting in, will allay the fever and will be generally effective in relieving a cold or keeping it in its usual mild form. At all druggists, priced 50c.—Adv.

Pastor to Visit Homes—The three-minute domestic service conducted the past Sunday by Rev. Edward Constant, pastor of the Highland Congregational Church, was found so timely and acceptable a form of ministrations that he announced he will again visit on Sunday such homes as are free from influenza, and hold a similar short service.

Me. Lola Baldwin Here—Mrs. Lola G. Baldwin, Pacific Coast representative of the law enforcement branch of the United States War Department, arrived in Portland Thursday night from Washington, D. C. She expects to leave for the East during the coming week. Mrs. Baldwin reports that stringent precautions are being taken in Washington against Spanish influenza.

Physician to Enter Service—Dr. L. O. Roberts, 1395 North Union avenue, is making preparations to leave for Camp Lewis next week. When he will assume his duties as First Lieutenant in the Medical Corps. He was commissioned last week. Dr. Roberts has been practicing in Portland about six years, maintaining offices at 142 1/2 Killingsworth avenue.

The Milk Cure for "RHEUMATISM"—The term rheumatism usually covers diseases which are more or less obscure. The milk cure overcomes the toxic elements being carried in the blood and restores the efficiency of organs causing the disturbance. The Moore Sanitarium, East 47. Office 908 Selling building, Main 6101.—Adv.

Two Raspberries Now Bearing—A. J. Zimmerman is exhibiting a crop of raspberries, the first bearing of new canes set out this spring on his place at Jennings Lodge. The canes are bearing heavy clusters of fruit, a remarkably sweet considering the heavy rains and cold weather of the past few weeks.

Liberty Loan Committee Established—The Portland Liberty loan committee has established permanent city headquarters in room 220 Northwestern bank building. The telephone number is Main 7280. All matters connected with local liberty loans are handled by this office.

BOARD NO. 7 MEN CALLED—All class 1 men of local board No. 7, with two exceptions, who were on its lists prior to the last registration are embraced in the quota to be sent to Camp Lewis between November 11 and 14. The following men will be inducted: Donald D. Starr, Postoffice box 14, Montavilla; Donald Foreman, 1904 Halsey street; Albert L. Clayton, 385 East Fifty-fifth street North; Elvert D. White, 1470 East Clinton; Talbot M. Edwards, 691 East Eightieth street; Ford M. Converse, 359 East Forty-seventh street North, Portland; or Roseburg, Or.; Barney A. Beckman, 1155 East Main street; Ernest G. Fernquist, 790 Kerby street, Portland. Alternates called are: Harry Wolf, 392 Knott street; John F. Eads, 98 East Seventy-fifth street North; Florello D. DeVent, 150 East Eightieth street North.

INFANTRY OPEN TO RECRUITS—Oregon registrants who wish to apply for places in the Infantry Officers' Training School at Camp Fremont, Cal., starting about December 1, may make application to Lieutenant E. B. Hanna, commanding officer of the Students' Army Training Corps at the North Pacific College, East Sixth and Oregon streets. Lieutenant Hanna announced yesterday that he has received the necessary supplies and is empowered to take the applications of eligibles who appear at the college after 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Hereafter Major Ross, of the Benson Polytechnic training detachment, has handled all the training camp applications from Portland. Now the applicant may visit the most convenient school.

PORTLAND PEOPLE LOSE RELATIVE—Relatives of Portland have received word of the death of Don Mulvane, wealthy young business man of Topeka, Kan., who passed away in that city October 23. Death was caused by pneumonia following an attack of influenza. Mr. Mulvane was well known in Portland, having frequently visited this city during his vacation periods. His last visit to Portland was in July and August of this year. He was the son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Fleischman and the brother-in-law of Mrs. Guy Porters, of this city. During his recent visit he had announced his intention of making his future residence here.

GRANGE OFFICERS TO MEET—An informal meeting of Eastern Star Grange, to be attended by not to exceed eight officers of the organization, will be held at the hall, East Eightieth and Division street, at 10:30 this morning. J. J. Johnson, master of the grange, announced yesterday. The hour on public meetings will limit the number to attend, he said. The next regular meeting of the grange will be held Saturday, December 7, when officers will be elected.

CLEYS TO BE TRIED TODAY—The trial of Gustav Cleys, 1020 Interstate avenue, who was arrested Thursday night on a charge of stabbing Floyd Landrum, 112 Knott street, while young Landrum and a party of other boys were carrying off Mr. Cleys' fence, has been set for today. Landrum is in Good Samaritan Hospital, where his condition is reported as satisfactory. He has a wound in his shoulder and left arm.

FORESTER HERE FROM ALASKA—R. Frank Heintzelman, deputy supervisor of National forests in Alaska, reported at the office of the district forester yesterday. Mr. Heintzelman has supervision of forest rangers there is unique in that the rangers are located on islands and instead of horses the rangers use gas boats for transportation.

EDGAR B. PIPER INJURED

Editor of The Oregonian Bruised When Car Is Wrecked in France. A special cable to the New York Globe and Chicago Daily News from France gives particulars of an automobile accident in which Edgar B. Piper, of The Oregonian, was slightly injured.

Mr. Piper last Saturday was riding in company with Edward H. O'Hara, of the Syracuse Herald, when their car was struck by a heavy lorry. The automobile was wrecked against a tree. Mr. Piper's forehead was cut and his body bruised. Mr. O'Hara's hip was injured. The injuries were given immediate attention and the two men were returned to Paris where Mr. Piper was resting comfortably in a hospital on the date of the dispatch October 28.

Mr. Piper is one of a party of American editors who are visiting in England as guests of the British Ministry of Information. No word of his accident has come direct to The Oregonian from him and it is therefore assumed that his injuries were of the minor character represented. His son, Edgar B. Piper, Jr., is with him in Paris.

ECHO MAIL CARRIER HELD

WILFORD E. McPAUL ARRESTED ON SEVERAL CHARGES. Destruction of Mail, Embezzlement and Detention of Mail Alleged by Inspector.

Wilford E. McPaul, carrier on rural route No. 1, out of Echo, Or., from April 15, last, to October 17, is in jail here and bound over to the grand jury on charges of destroying mail matter, detention of mail matter, embezzlement of funds given him for the purchase of money orders, and the embezzlement and forging of checks. McPaul's arrest was caused by H. F. Peacock, Postoffice Inspector for the Spokane district. His affidavit of confession is in the hands of the United States District Attorney's office here. His case will be presented to the grand jury today by Barnett H. Goldstein, Assistant United States District Attorney. Conviction on all the charges against him, under the statutes, could result in final sentences of about 70 years.

CHILD IS DENIED FATHER

Mother Love Triumphs in Circuit Court Litigation. Mother love deserves to triumph when a woman's misstep is made through ignorance, declared a Presiding Judge Tucker yesterday when he refused to grant the petition of A. Taug to take the custody of Taug's five-year-old son from his divorced wife, Mrs. Betty Taug-Roll.

Mrs. Roll was divorced from Taug some months ago and within two months of her divorce she married Sam Roll. Her divorced husband then caused her arrest on a statutory charge because of her illegal marriage, in failing to wait the required six months before remarrying. He also petitioned for the custody of the minor son. The court, however, upheld the mother.

Sugar-Saving Recipes: SPICED CRANBERRY JELLY. 1 Quart cranberries, 2 1/2 cups boiling water, 2 cups Karo, Sorghum Syrup or Honey, 1-3 cup cold water. Pick over and wash berries. Add boiling water and first boil until cranberries are soft. Rub through a sieve and add remaining ingredients, except salt. Again bring to the boiling point and let simmer 15 minutes. Add salt, turn into a mold and chill. CRANBERRY CONSERVE. 1 Quart cranberries, 1/2 pound seeded raisins, 2 1/2 cups cold water, 1/2 pound English walnuts, 2-3 cup boiling water, 1 Orange, 1 1/2 pounds Karo, Sorghum Syrup, or Honey. Pick over and wash cranberries. Put in strainer, add cold water, bring to boiling point and boil until skins break. Force through strainer, add boiling water, seeded raisins, nut meats broken in small pieces, orange (peeled, thinly sliced, then cut in small pieces, removing seeds), add Karo, Sorghum or Honey. Again bring to boiling point, let simmer 20 minutes. CRANBERRY JAM. Sufficient for one pound of jam: Pick over cranberries by rejecting injured ones, and to every pound of fruit allow 2 pounds of Honey or Karo. Boil gently and skim carefully. The preserve must be kept in carefully covered jars. Time 20 minutes after it comes to the boiling point.
