

KAISER'S TRUNKS IN SWITZERLAND

Emperor Prepares to Yield Rights to People.

EVENTFUL PERIOD NEAR END

War Lord Affirms Decision of Parliament for Future Development of Empire.

HAPPY PEOPLE IS PLEDGED

Return of Leader to Quarters Indicates Ruler's Desire Not to Abdicate.

GENEVA, Nov. 3.—(By the Associated Press.)—Dozens of trunks bearing the royal Hohenzollern monogram have been arriving in the past week at the luxurious chateau named Bucnas on the Lake of Zug. The chateau, which is flying the German flag, is the property of Baron von Kleist, a German.

(By the Associated Press.)—AMSTERDAM, Nov. 3.—On the occasion of the constitutional amendment coming into force, says an official telegram from Berlin, Emperor William addressed to Prince Maximilian of Baden, the German imperial Chancellor, a decree indorsing the decisions of the Reichstag and avowing his firm determination to co-operate in their full development. The Emperor's decree reads:

Kaiser Surrenders Rights.

"Your grand ducal highness: I return herewith for immediate publication the bill to amend the imperial constitution and the law of March 17, 1879, relative to the representation of the imperial Chancellor, which has been laid before me for signature.

"On the occasion of this step, which is so momentous for the future history of the German people, I have a desire to give expression to my feelings. Prepared for by a series of government acts, a new order comes into force which transfers the fundamental rights of the Kaiser's person to the people.

Eventful Period Closed.

"Thus comes to a close a period which will stand in honor before the eyes of future generations. Despite all struggles between invested authority and aspiring forces it has rendered possible to our people that tremendous development which imperishably revealed itself in the wonderful achievements of this war.

"In the terrible storms of the four years of war, however, old forms have been broken up, not to leave their ruins behind, but to make a place for a new vital form.

"After the achievements of these times the German people can claim that no right which may guarantee a free and happy future shall be withheld from them.

Kaiser Offers Co-Operation.

"The proposals of the allied governments which are now adopted and extended owe their origin to this conviction. I, however, with my exalted allies, endorse these decisions of Parliament in firm determination, so far as I am concerned, to co-operate in their full development, convinced that I am hereby promoting the weal of the German people.

"The Kaiser's office is one of service to the people. May, then, the new order release all the good powers which our people need in order to support the trials which are hanging over the empire and with a firm step win a bright future from the gloom of the present.

"Berlin, October 28, 1918.
(Signed) "WILHELM R. I.
Countersigned "MAX,
Prince of Baden."

PARIS, Nov. 3.—"There can be no doubt," says the Temps, "that a great struggle is going on around the German Emperor's person between the influences which caused the war and wish to maintain the old regime and the partisans of a new regime, more or less democratic, and of a peace for the purpose of repairing Germany's strength.

"By returning to general headquarters Emperor William seemed to show clearly that his supreme desire was not to abdicate. So the Emperor's

AMERICAN ACE LANDS BEHIND GERMAN LINES.

Coolness and Courage of Lieutenant Gates Told in Report to Navy Department.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—(Special.)—Coolness and courage with which Lieutenant Artemas L. Gates, of the United States Naval Reserve force, made a forced landing in the enemy line on October 4 and fired his machine before surrendering to the Germans were set forth in a report received by the Navy Department today from Admiral Sims. The commander of the bombing group of aviators with which Lieutenant Gates was connected at the time of his capture reports that the gasoline tank and landing gear of Gates' plane were shot away, causing him to drop within the enemy's lines. Witnesses say that they saw the aviator land in a field of soft earth, turn over on his back and then crawl out.

He was taken prisoner by three German aviators who landed in the same field almost simultaneously within sight of his captors. Lieutenant Gates set fire to his machine and was seen to walk from the field, apparently unhurt, with his German captors.

BRITISH GOAL IS IN SIGHT

Asquith Sees Attainment of Principles for Which Nation Fought.

CIPAR, Scotland, Nov. 3.—(By the Associated Press.)—Speaking here yesterday, said that there was daily accumulating evidence that the great cause to which the British had pledged themselves as a nation and an empire four years ago was in measurable distance of achieving the purposes for which the British had entered the war, together with the peace of the rest of the world. After referring to the cessation of the withering and reactionary century-old rule of the Turks in Europe, Mr. Asquith said in regard to the Austrian situation:

"Artificial structures of the Turkish and Austrian empires have been held together for centuries by authority of the dominant class. Their doom is sealed and in Eastern Europe and parts of Asia new states are springing up as a result of the war, based on the enduring foundation of social relationship and national freedom."

LAVA GEYSERS ARE ACTIVE

Eruption of Kilauea Volcano Follows Severe Earthquakes.

HONOLULU, Nov. 3.—Spouting a hundred feet from new cracks in the old crater floor Saturday morning, the lava geysers of the volcano Kilauea entirely buried the old resthouse.

The eruption followed severe earthquakes throughout the island of Hawaii Friday night at 11:33 o'clock.

The Kilauea fire pit has been rising for three days, and lava is flowing continuously in several directions.

Kilauea, the largest active volcano in the world, is on the island of Hawaii. A violent eruption occurred in 1783. Lesser eruptions have occurred recently, but have been confined to the pit, which is enclosed by a circular wall from 200 to 700 feet high. In 1917 the volcano displayed unusual activity, and in February, 1918, the lava lake took a sudden rise and reached the highest level within the crater since 1894.

Big Two-Seated Aircraft Crashes Into American Lines.

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY NORTHWEST OF VERDUN, Oct. 31.—(By the Associated Press.)—A German two-seated airplane crashed into the American lines today. The pilot was killed, but the observer was uninjured. Officers and men of the big gun artillery claim that the German was downed either by being struck by a big gun projectile, or that the plane was damaged by falling into the vacuum caused by the projectile.

Just as one of the guns was fired the German struts appeared. The machine immediately crumpled and fell.

ARMISTICE SIGNED BY ITALY, AUSTRIA

Hostilities Will Cease at 3 o'Clock Today.

TERMS PUBLIC TOMORROW

News Received in Paris Gives Great Satisfaction to Supreme War Council.

LAST PROP OF GERMANS GONE

General Diaz Officially Announces Signing of Cessation of Hostilities.

PARIS, Nov. 3, 6:50 P. M.—(By the Associated Press.)—Official announcement was made here this evening that an armistice has been signed with Austria.

Hostilities will cease at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon. The conditions of the armistice will be published on Tuesday.

War Council Pleased.

Official announcement of the signing of Austrian armistice reached the premiers while they were in session in the apartment of Colonel House, President Wilson's personal representative, this afternoon, and gave the greatest satisfaction.

It was arranged that the conditions of the armistice would be made public promptly.

LONDON, Nov. 3.—An armistice with Austria was signed this afternoon by General Diaz, the Italian Commander-in-Chief, according to an official announcement made here this evening.

Last German Prop Gone.

The text of the statement reads: "A telephone message has been received from the Prime Minister in Paris saying that news has just come that Austria-Hungary, the last of Germany's props, has gone out of the war. "The armistice was signed by General Diaz this afternoon and will come into operation tomorrow at 3 o'clock. The terms will be published on Tuesday."

Progress of the War.

By the Associated Press.

Austria-Hungary is out of the war.

Deserted by her last ally, Germany fights alone a battle which means ultimate defeat or abject surrender. After days of pleading an armistice has been granted Austria-Hungary, whose badly defeated armies in the Italian theater are staggering homeward under the violence of the blow by the entente troops.

Trent, which the Italians always have claimed as their own, has been captured by them. Trieste, over which there has been such bitter fighting, now flies the Italian flag, and Belgrade, capital of Serbia, has been recaptured by the Serbians. In France and Belgium the Germans are being sorely harassed by the British, French, Americans and Belgians, and there are indications of an impending debacle.

The Argonne massif, which has proved a great obstacle to the advance of the French and Americans, at last has been cleared of the enemy and the entire line appears to be crumbling.

American airmen report that the enemy in front of the Americans are retreating northward.

Likewise south of Valenciennes Germans are retreating before British, who are in close pursuit and taking numerous prisoners. North of the Aisne in Champagne the French continue their pressure and have taken several important villages, large numbers of prisoners and great quantities of stores.

The Americans and French on the southern part of the battlefield, taken in conjunction with the operations of Field Marshal Haig and the Belgians in the north, threaten to prove the culminating blow to Germany's attempts to hold ground in France or Belgium. It is not improbable, if the advance from the south continues as rapid as it is, the greater portion of the German army will be trapped before the men can reach their border. The situation of the Germans seemingly is a critical one.

Although the Austro-Hungarians have been given an armistice, they are still being bitterly attacked by the Italians, British, French, American and Czech-Slovak troops in the mountains and on the plains and will continue under chastisement until Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock, when a cessation of hostilities will take place.

Entire regiments are surrendering to the Italians in the mountains and large numbers of the enemy are being made prisoner on the plains.

In their swift drive against the Austro-Hungarians the allied forces have up to the present taken more than 100,000 prisoners and have captured more than 2,000 guns. So rapid has been the advance that the Germans have been forced to abandon the Tagliamento River and entered Udine.

MRS. RUSSELL SAGE DIES IN NEW YORK

DEATH RESULT OF AILMENTS INCIDENT TO OLD AGE.

Wife of Financier Had Been in Ill Health for Several Years—End Comes Suddenly.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Mrs. Russell Sage, widow of Russell Sage, the financier, died suddenly this morning at her residence here. She had been in feeble health for several years. She was 99 years old.

Mrs. Sage's death resulted from ailments incident to advanced age. A nurse who visited the aged woman's room about midnight found her sinking and she died about an hour later.

Mrs. Sage, until she reached middle life, had only the meager income of a schoolteacher and then in a day she found herself mistress of one of the greatest fortunes in America. Her early days were devoted to scraping together enough money to give herself a fair education, and her last years spent in developing the science of giving money away. During the last seven years of complete stewardship of the $70,000,000 left by her husband, Russell Sage, she returned nearly $30,000,000 to the public by systematic philanthropy.

"My experience has taught me," she had said recently, "that successful people are those who take what comes to hand, and, if it be small, wait and work for something better. The root of failure lies often in the thought that you can do but one thing and must do that or nothing."

Mrs. Sage was a "woman's woman" and her charities were largely directed to the aid of women and children. She became widely known as a "Lady Bountiful" and was so besieged with requests for money that she had to retire finally to seclusion. Begging letters have been received at her Fifth-avenue home at the rate of 100 a day, some of the writers threatening suicide and others to do her bodily harm if their petitions were not heeded. So insistent were the hordes that they sometimes gathered in numbers about her doors.

She gave, and gave liberally, but was so determined that her giving should be done wisely that shortly after the husband's death she established the Russell Sage Foundation with $10,000,000 for the improvement of social and living conditions in the United States.

VICTORY SEEN IN REPUBLICAN CAMP

Oregon Voters Rally to Support of Party.

PARTISAN APPEAL RESENTED

Primary Aspirants Out for Entire Ticket.

WAR RECORD IS RECALLED

Progressives Join Republicans in Determination to Achieve Sweeping Victory at Polls.

PRIMARY OPPONENTS OF REPUBLICAN NOMINEES FOR SENATOR AND GOVERNOR STRONGLY INDORSE TICKET.

R. N. Stanfield—It is the duty of the people of Oregon to re-elect Senator McNary, Governor Withycombe and our Congressmen.

S. B. Huston—There is every reason why Republicans should vote their ticket this year.

Louis J. Simpson—Governor Withycombe, Senator McNary and our Congressmen should be re-elected. Their Americanism is unquestioned.

Ben W. Olcott—Governor Withycombe is entitled to and should receive the support of all members of the Republican party.

Gus Moser—Governor Withycombe has made a splendid War Governor and is entitled to a second term.

Dr. J. E. Anderson (now in France)—If I were in Oregon nothing would please me more than to do all in my power to elect our candidates.

Oregon Republicans—both men and women—united and determined will go to the polls tomorrow confident of achieving a sweeping victory for every nominee on the ticket.

Republicans gain their pre-election assurances of such a result from two sources: First, resentment by Republicans of the President's partisan attempt to interfere in the free expression of the voters, which will materially increase the Republican vote, and, secondly, the indorsement of United States Senator McNary and Governor Withycombe by every one of the unsuccessful aspirants for nomination to these offices in the primary election last May. A further element of strength accruing to the Republican ticket is its assured support generally by former Progressives.

Stanfield Indorses Ticket.

Both R. N. Stanfield and S. B. Huston, who opposed Senator McNary for the Republican nomination in the primary campaign, yesterday issued strong statements not only indorsing the candidacy of Senator McNary and pledging him their unqualified support, but also commending every nominee on the ticket to the support of every Republican voter of the state.

"It is the plain duty of the people of Oregon," reads Mr. Stanfield's statement, "to re-elect Senator McNary to the United States Senate and to re-elect our present Congressmen. Governor Withycombe has proved his ability to carefully guide, direct and protect as their chief executive the people of Oregon through the most trying period they have ever known, and it is likewise the plain duty of the electorate to show their appreciation by giving him the large majority vote which his actions merit."

Mr. Huston Gives Support.

"Other things being equal," said Mr. Huston, "a person would naturally vote his party ticket. The Republican ticket this year, to say the very least, is as good as the Democratic ticket. As to Senator McNary, we have the testimony of Senator Chamberlain and Mr. West that he has made good in every respect. Senator Chamberlain said so in his speech at Salem, and Mr. West said the same thing many times. Speaking before the Progressive Business Men's Club, he said: 'The only possible fault to be found with Senator McNary is the fact that he is a Republican.'"

"When he made that statement it was either true or false. If it was true then certainly Senator McNary is entitled to the vote of every Republican in the state. If it was false then the man who made it is not fit to send to the United States Senate."

Partisan Appeal Resented.

"But there is an especial reason why Republicans should vote their ticket this year. The President of the United States, who is the leader of the Democratic party, has challenged the party of Lincoln, Grant and McKinley as to its loyalty, its patriotism and its fitness to exist. He has appealed for the election of all Democrats, regardless of their lack of loyalty. He says, in effect, that you ought to elect the worst kind of a Democrat rather than the best Republican."

"The Republican who does not resent this by his vote is a poor kind of a Republican."

Governor Withycombe has also re-
