discussion and resentment over the political letter recently written by Mrs. C. C. Van Orsdall, of Portland, grand guardian of the order, appealing for the support of the Democratic candilates for Senator, Reprezentative and Thousands of the form letters pre-Thousands of the form letter pared by Mrs. Van Orsdall, mimeographed on the stationery of the Neighbors of Woodcraft, bearing the name and title of the grand guardian, have been scattered throughout Oregon to all members of the order.

Action Is Condemned.

That Mrs. Van Orsdall has no author-ity to utilize her office for political purposes, while the order is strictly non-political, and that her conduct mile for strong criticism and repudiamany local lodge members, while similar comment was common throughout the state. Lodge members and officers declar-

their belief in the right of individual preference, and are almost unanimous, regardless of political faith, in condemning the grand guardian's action, which has the semblance of official

While fear of dissension within th circles of the lodge prevented many from more than a guarded expression of this opinion, dozens of members hastened to declare that the letter could have no influence with them, and to add their opinion that non-political rganizations have no business to med-die in politics.

"It is with sorrow and consternation that we note that our great organization, Neighbors of Woodcraft, has been used as a partisan political weapon to elect Democratic candidates," said Mrs. elect Democratic candidates," said Mrs. Hessie G. Stamper, a prominent member of the order. "Carrie C. Van Orsdall, whom we honored by election as our grand guardian, has sent out a partisan communication on stationary of Neighbors of Woodcraft, giving the impression that it is official. This is bitterly resented by our loyal, patriotic members."

Lodge Gave No Authority.

"No action has been taken by our lodge authorizing Mrs. Van Orsdall to use the prestige of the order for political purposes," said Mrs. Edna M. Hartley, of Myrcia Lodge 551. "When I received Mrs. Van Orsdall's letter I could not but think that the second not but think that she is entirely in the wrong in using her official capacity as a leverage for political purposes. Our order is non-political and should remain so, at all times. My belief is in the individual right of each voter to determine his or her choice."

"A letter such as that written by Mrs. Van Orsdall doesn't make much difference with me," said Mrs. B. B. Brintsenhoff, of Oregon Circle Lodge 171, "and hundreds of others will doubtless take the same view. Our order is non political, and, when you come right down to it, it is not fair for Mrs. Van Orsdail to show even the semblance of interference in the choice of the voters their intention to vote the Democratic spy. ticket, as well as from those affiliated with the Republican party. It was frequently pointed out that several political creeds are represented in the order, and that the suggestion, through a high lodge official, to eakt aside personal belief and support Democratic candidates alone is scarcely less than a personal affront.

The latter tradif is a bitter attack.

The letter itself is a bitter attack upon the Republican party, and a sustained culogy of President Wilson, loosely classifying all save Democrats as "cheap politicians, patrioteers and profiteers." In her plus for the undivided support of the lodge, Mrs. Van Orsdall wrote:

"He (President Wilson) comes to you and to me, and all the fathers and nothers of our gallant fighting lads in France, and he asks us to give him what will be understood over in France and England and Italy and Germany and Austria as a 'vote of confidence' against the vicious political attacks of his enemies at home, by electing next

Though headed with the official title of the lodge she served, Mrs. Van Ors-dall's signature is unaccompanied by the suffix of "grand guardian." Several of her supporters pointed with high satisfaction to this omission, asserting

SALEM, Or., Nov. 4.—(Special.)—De-claring that a "baid-faced attempt is being made through innuendos of dis-loyalty to defeat Governor Withycombe, Senator McNary and Representatives McArthur, Hawley and Sinnott, five of McArthur. Hawley and Sinnott, five of the most patriotic men who ever held office in Oregon," Walter L. Tooze, chairman of the Marion County Republican Central Committee, today bared a letter being sent out broadcast to Neighbors of Woodcraft by Mrs. C. C. Van Orsdall, of Portland, grand guardian of that order for Oregon. The letter at great length excoriates ex-President Roosevelt, the Republican party, and urges the election of Democratic Senators and Representatives to Conpaign by at least 50 per cent. Senators and Representatives to Con-areas. "It is the most damnable, reprehensible and unspeakable move ever at-tempted in fraternal circles in Ore-gon," declared Mr. Tooze, who for years has been of the most prominent Wood-

The letter includes nearly four type-written pages of matter along similar

"I denounce any person who attempts to dictate to me and tell me I must vote the Democratic ticket." he de-clared. "I have lost a son on the bat-tle field, and I will rank my patriotism against any who are chicavoring to rule the country through rank parti-sanship. This letter is the most bare-

News of Armistice Creates Delirium in Austrian City.

GENEVA, Nov. 4.—(By the Associated Press.)—Vienna was delirious with joy when it was learned that an armistice has been declared. The streets were soon crowded with men, women and children crying and embracing. The general opinion is that food will follow peace. The report that Emperor Charles has abdicated aroused little interest. The Austrian press is emphasizing the fact that the armistice terms are most severe and involve great sacrifices. great sacrifices.
