lative affairs, changes in power of the committee chairmanships and a Republican House confronting President Wilson, which, in a measure, parallels that confronting President Taft in the midst of his administration.

The situation is also analogous to that faced by President Cleveland at the beginning of his first term.

Big Possibilities Cited.

Since, by the system of committee control, which prevails in the House, all legislation and virtually unlimited power for investigation of Governmental affairs lie within the initiative and control of the majority, the possibilities are obvious; they will be increased if final returns for the Senate assure the Republicans control there.

First comes the question of the speakership, a place which many statesmen and politicians have declared is second only to the Presidency in importance.

Longworth Talked Of.

Representative Mann, of Illinois, the Republican leader, would be the logical candidate of the majority, but that is complicated by several factors, one of which is his continued ill health.

There are also factional differences to be considered. Representative Gillette, of Massachusetts, actually Mr. Mann's senior in point of service, has been acting Republican leader and is to be reckoned with in calculations for the speakership.

There also has been talk of Representative Longworth, of Ohio, Colonel Roosevelt's son-in-law, as a candidate on whom the Republicans could unite.

Next in importance is the leadership of the Democrats when they become the minority party after March 3, next.

As chairman of the ways and means committee Representative Kitchin, of North Carolina, is Democratic floor leader. He is expected to be supplanted in both places by Representative Joseph W. Fordney, of Michigan, one of the old Republican wheelhorses upon whom will fall a very important part in carrying out with the Treasury Department the Government's financial program for the remainder of the war.

Clark's Future in Doubt. Speaker Clark was minority leader before the Democrats came into control.

Extra Session Unlikely. The Republicans, of course, do not come into their position of advantage until the meeting of the new Congress, which will be the first Monday in December, 1919, unless President Wilson should call it in extraordinary session.

TO REMOVE DANDRUFF

Get a small bottle of Danderine at any drugstore for a few cents, pour a little into your hand and rub well into the scalp with the finger tips. By morning most, if not all, of this awful scurf will have disappeared. Two or three applications will destroy every bit of dandruff; stop scalp itching and falling hair.—Adv.

Look, Mother! Is Tongue Coated, Breath Feverish and Stomach Sour? "California Syrup of Figs" Can't Harm Tender Stomach, Liver, Bowels.

Look at the tongue, mother! Is coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restlessness, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat, or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation, poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleaning" is oftentimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness. Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."—Adv.
