

MARY LEADS WEST IN UP-STATE COUNT

Governor Probably Will Win by 15,000 Majority.

OLSON LEADS FOR JUSTICE

Latest Returns Indicate That Senator Will Carry Oregon by More Than 19,000 Votes.

A good lead in Multnomah, while Bennett was leading in the outside counties. Although the count in Coos county has not been completed, Judge Coke claims that his present lead of 1650 in that county will be increased to 2000.

Complete unofficial returns from Clackamas, Hood River, Josephine, Linn, Marion and Sherman counties, and incomplete returns from the other counties, exclusive of Multnomah and not including the completed count of Coos, show the following totals for Supreme Judge: Bennett 4294, Campbell 4182, Coke 6247, Olson 6273.

Olson Leads in Multnomah. The Multnomah county vote for these candidates was: Bennett 3140, Campbell 1410, Coke 2766, Olson 5493. The total vote on this office so far as counted follows: Bennett 9734, Campbell 6195, Coke 10,213, Olson 11,772. This gives Olson a lead of 1559 over Coke and a margin of 2028 over Bennett, who is now running third.

At best this contest promises to prove the keenness of the voters of the 36 counties may be required to determine the winner. Only fragmentary reports have been received from several counties, others having failed to report the vote for Supreme Judge.

In his home county, Clackamas, Campbell received 5740, while Olson against a total of 620 distributed among his three rivals. Bennett is especially strong in Eastern Oregon. The incomplete count in Wasco county, where he lives, gives him 281, against 89 for the other three candidates. He also carried Marion by a plurality of 195 over Coke, who ran second.

Sinnott Is Re-elected. The Republican nominees, on the face of incomplete returns, have easily won the only two other important offices for which the Democrats contested. In the Second Congressional District the incumbent, N. J. Sinnott, has been re-elected over Graham by almost a two-to-one vote. The count now stands: Sinnott 11,983, Graham 6571.

For State Treasurer, O. P. Hoff, Republican, outside of Multnomah county, now has a majority of 15,308 over Mason, his Democratic opponent. This includes the complete unofficial returns from six and the incomplete count of 29 counties. Mr. Hoff had a lead over Mason of 18,715 in this county, which increases his present lead in the state to 34,921.

LEGISLATIVE RACE IS CLOSE

Governor Withycombe and Senator McNary Carry Umatilla.

PENDELTON, Or., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—Governor Withycombe and Senator McNary polled little less than their estimated majority in Umatilla county, according to the returns so far. The Republicans were successful in eight of the contests in this county, though one of the legislative seats is still in doubt.

Both parties are claiming it. Dodd, Republican, is 46 votes behind Hodgen, with four precincts to report. It is hardly probable that he can make up this deficiency. An official count may be needed to decide the result of this contest, as well as that of State Senator in the 10th district, Here Colonel R. Eberhardt, of La Grande, Republican, leads Norbourne Berkeley, of Pendleton, Democrat, by one vote in this county.

It is reported that the Republican candidate, however, has a safe majority in his own county. All other offices went to the Republican candidates. All of the measures appear to have been defeated in this county with the exception of the National Prohibition League, a majority of nearly 1000 in its favor.

HEPPNER, Or., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—At the municipal election yesterday a city ticket, which was nominated by the women, was overwhelmingly elected. The women kept their scheme quiet up to a few days before the election, when they suddenly announced their ticket and platform by poster. The platform declares for a bigger and better Heppner, advocates good roads, clearing of the canal of Willow Creek to make the town safe in flood time, calls for a city park, comfort station, a new hotel and a public swimming tank.
