

REPORT OF ARMISTICE SIGNING IS ABSOLUTELY FALSE.

WAR STILL IN PROGRESS

Associated Press Not Involved in Slightest Degree, but Faithfully Sets Forth Actual Facts.

(Continued From First Page.)

hour and a half after the German commands had been expected, the troops still were fighting their way forward.

This dispatch said clearly that the American Army was consolidating its positions and preparing for a further advance.

When it was 6:30 o'clock tonight in London the Foreign Office pronounced unfounded the rumors that the armistice had been signed, and at that hour no word had been received in the British capital that the German delegation had crossed the French lines.

It should be borne in mind that it was then four hours and a half after the hostilities had ceased for the cessation of the hostilities was more than seven hours after the hour reported as the signing of the armistice.

London in Close Touch. Government telegraph lines connect London and the British headquarters not far from the place fixed for the meeting of the German commissioners with Marshal Foch, and London, therefore, is certain to receive prompt reports when a truce is arranged.

Tonight as the clocks in France were turning toward midnight there still was no word that the German commissioners had appeared at Marshal Foch's headquarters and much less affixed their signatures to an armistice.

The hoax recalled to the public mind others which had fooled the country if not the world. One was the alleged discovery of human beings on the moon and the other was Dr. Cook's claim of discovery of the North Pole.

A news hoax, however, more closely paralleling today's was the one perpetrated on the country at the death of Pope Pius X.

It was announced by the United Press some hours before it occurred, but as the dispatch did not specify the hour and minute a great achievement in giving the news to the world was claimed.

Complete Data Available. In the present instance, however, there will be abundant official evidence to guide the public. The armistice, being a historic event, will be heard the hour and minute at which the signatures are set upon it and the hours at which hostilities are to end likewise will be recorded and announced to the world.

No one, of course, can say with certainty when the armistice will be signed or when the fighting will stop. Official proof, however, and the hours rolling steadily onward are ample evidence that it was not signed at 11 o'clock this morning, and that the fighting did not stop at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Moreover, it never has been expected that the terms of armistice on the western front might be accepted at one brief meeting. Many questions are now involved in the armistice, and when armistices were granted to Austria, Bulgaria and Turkey.

One of the principal points concerns the disposition of the German fleet, so vital to England.

Fleet Problem Solved. Now that the fleet is in the hands of the revolutionaries, it is probable that the German fleet will be broken up at once be enabled to give the assurances the allies will demand.

It should be recalled within this point that Great Britain's fleet is not one of her Admirals present with Marshal Foch at the meeting with the commissioners.

So far as is known tonight the erroneous report was published in only two cities in Europe—in London and in Brest, France. The London newspaper later withdrew its edition and printed a retraction. The publication in Brest was by a newspaper which received the report from the United Press.

A question being asked tonight by many is why the naval censors passed the dispatch for publication if it was not true. The answer is that censors do not pass upon the truth or falsity of dispatches; they are only concerned with whether they contain information likely to be of value to an enemy, or damaging to the entente military forces.

Sophisticated New York became delirious with joy today over the false report that Germany had agreed to armistice terms, which meant unconditional surrender.

Tragic Side Seen. The celebration seemed a combination of Fourth of July, election night, New Year's eve, Thanksgiving day and Christmas.

The excitement which seized the city's millions at the word "Peace" was pitiful and ear-splitting, but as realization grew that it was premature, its tragic side came forward.

Not all the celebrators had joined in the hilarious flag-waving, nor following impromptu parades. Thousands of fathers, mothers, wives and sisters went into every church with open doors to offer prayers of gratitude, because they thought fighting had ceased.

While thousands went to pray other thousands gave vent to their joy in more convivial surroundings. The professional entertainers were busy.

At the same time, however, the Associated Press, which did not carry the false report, and expressed disappointment when they found their celebrations had been premature.

DES MOINES, Ia., Nov. 7.—Iowa burst into a delirium of joy today when the false report of an armistice was spread broadcast over the state on other than the Associated Press wires. Business houses closed in many cities and cheering thousands paraded.

Curious towns telephoned for information. Partners of the Associated Press, which did not carry the false report, and expressed disappointment when they found their celebrations had been premature.

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 7.—Today's unconfirmed report that Germany had signed armistice terms resulted in peace demonstrations here and in other cities in Nebraska.

The Associated Press did not carry over its wires the story that the armistice was signed. Many persons called the office of the Associated Press to confirm the report, to learn that the armistice had not been signed.

OMAHA, Nov. 7.—Whistles blew constantly for an hour, the Union Pacific shops, several large stores closed and thousands of persons thronged the streets when an unofficial report was published that an armistice with Germany had been signed.

Official Report Ignored. Even when the report had been denied the marchers would not stop. A jubilee is scheduled for the courthouse tonight.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 7.—False reports that came over brokers' wires and through news agencies other than the Associated Press that the German had signed armistice terms thrilled Kentucky today and resulted in demonstrations that bordered on the hysterical. News from other important Kentucky points indicated similar conditions.

Australia has extensive forests, but owing to lack of sufficient railways and shipping facilities, a comparatively small amount of the timber has thus far been cut.

FAKE PEACE REPORT STIRS ENTIRE CITY

statements to the effect that "it was well to "go easy" or to "wait a bit."

Police and Mayor Helpless to Control Street Crowds.

As the celebration grew in volume, and an occasional soldier joined in the demonstration, local military authorities signified the lack of official confirmation by issuing an order prohibiting officers and men from taking part.

Wherever the chance met parades held forms, in streets and on corners, there was a similarity of comment that must have made Bill Hohenbuehler's ears tingle, whether he be housed himself in far Berlin or in the baronial castle of the Lake of Zug.

"We want peace," one would say, "but I'd like to see the boys go through to Berlin, leaving their trail for every German to know at sight."

"Treat 'em Rough" is Cry. "The Kaiser ought to pay at the end of a rope," would supplement another. "We ought to take every U-boat out in the sea and sink it!" declared this one.

"And I don't want to see peace if Germany's claws aren't trimmed to a finish," declared Mayor Baker. "We have no choice but to let the demonstration take its course."

It is in general than criminal that a report such as this should be permitted to get out for publication. It has aroused the sentiments of Portland to a degree that hurts in the intensity of untimely rejoicing.

A dozen times this morning men and women have grabbed me by the hand, their eyes shining. "Oh, my boy is coming home!" was the exclamation of mothers who called on me for confirmation of the report. It's a hard job to tell these folks that they must wait a while for actual peace, even though it be but a few hours or a few days.

Influenza Ban Disregarded. "We have called upon the people of Portland to join with the authorities for the benefit of the public health, and to aid in banishing the influenza peril. If they disregard the rules of the game, if they don't want to play it accordingly, the situation is unfortunate. They will be lucky if they if this ill-timed demonstration does not unfavorably upon the influenza situation."

Police and Mayor Helpless. "It would be an error and a shame to call the police to put down patriots," declared Mayor Baker. "We have no choice but to let the demonstration take its course."

Peace Rumors Spread Rapidly. "Peace has been declared! Germany has surrendered!" "The canard ran from lip to lip with the speed of wildfire, while hundreds of whistles and bells tooted and clanged the message to distant parts of the city. Through the streets, that have been comparatively deserted since the influenza epidemic struck the city, suddenly flowed streams of citizens, eagerly passing the gossip of impending victory and rumored peace.

In a trice the city was transformed. Workmen to the number of several thousands, from the public works and other industrial plants, heard the tidings and called it a day. Casting aside their tools, they flocked forth in an impromptu parade that stretched for blocks, with flags waving, bands playing and banners proclaiming victory. They bore the Kaiser in effigy, swinging from his gibbet.

Bluecoats Are Outwitted. At police headquarters the puzzled bluecoats sized up the situation as beyond precedent and control. Chief of Police Johnson and Captain Moore dispatched motorcycle patrolmen, with instructions to stem the hilarious advance of the parading shipyard workers.

The chaps who have been building America's bridge pranced past the patrolmen with never an ear for the plea to "stay off this parade and carry the downtown district almost by storm. Influenza restrictions were literally scraps of paper when big news seemed signed with Germany. The Stock Exchange closed and the City Council, which was in session, adjourned its meeting until receipt of Associated Press dispatches from Washington of Secretary Lansing's denial, after which the session was resumed.

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—Boston and many other New England cities held impromptu celebrations today when a false report that Germany had signed an armistice became current.

Even when it was learned that the report was not credited in official circles, the excitement was not allayed. Bells and whistles continued their clamor.

One of the largest processions was composed of workers from the Army supply base being erected in South Boston.

Industries Close Down. In manufacturing centers workers were released and joined in the demonstrations, while in many communities school children were marched from their classrooms and were ordered to wear their hats and carry flags and whistles.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 7.—There was an uproar for a short time here this afternoon after false reports that the armistice had been signed. In other cities of Connecticut there were short-lived celebrations.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 7.—All Ohio went wild today over the false report that Germany had signed the armistice. Street parades were held in many cities, factories were closed and business generally was suspended, regardless of the fact that the Associated Press at 2 o'clock denied that an armistice had been signed.

In Columbus large crowds surrounded the statehouse and were ordered by Governor Cox from the portico of that building. Parades were numerous and flags were waved everywhere.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 7.—With a steady rain falling, St. Louis downtown streets at noon today began filling with people as false news spread that the war was over. The Associated Press did not carry the report.

Parades were held and from all windows in office buildings paper streamers were floating.

SIoux FALLS, S. D., Nov. 7.—This section of the Northwest celebrated for a short while today as the result of wild and baseless rumors spread broadcast that Germany had accepted the allied terms.

Celebrations End Abruptly. Hells were rung and whistles were blown in many places, but the celebration came to an abrupt end when the people were informed that the Associated Press had not carried the story and that the rumors were false.

DES MOINES, Ia., Nov. 7.—Iowa burst into a delirium of joy today when the false report of an armistice was spread broadcast over the state on other than the Associated Press wires. Business houses closed in many cities and cheering thousands paraded.

Curious towns telephoned for information. Partners of the Associated Press, which did not carry the false report, and expressed disappointment when they found their celebrations had been premature.

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 7.—Today's unconfirmed report that Germany had signed armistice terms resulted in peace demonstrations here and in other cities in Nebraska.

The Associated Press did not carry over its wires the story that the armistice was signed. Many persons called the office of the Associated Press to confirm the report, to learn that the armistice had not been signed.

OMAHA, Nov. 7.—Whistles blew constantly for an hour, the Union Pacific shops, several large stores closed and thousands of persons thronged the streets when an unofficial report was published that an armistice with Germany had been signed.

Official Report Ignored. Even when the report had been denied the marchers would not stop. A jubilee is scheduled for the courthouse tonight.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 7.—False reports that came over brokers' wires and through news agencies other than the Associated Press that the German had signed armistice terms thrilled Kentucky today and resulted in demonstrations that bordered on the hysterical. News from other important Kentucky points indicated similar conditions.

Australia has extensive forests, but owing to lack of sufficient railways and shipping facilities, a comparatively small amount of the timber has thus far been cut.

FAKE PEACE REPORT STIRS ENTIRE CITY

Police and Mayor Helpless to Control Street Crowds.

EPIDEMIC BAN CAST ASIDE

Executive Brands Circulation of Unfounded Rumor as Criminal.

"You can't put down patriotism with the police," observed Mayor Baker yesterday afternoon to the accompaniment of scenes and tumult that are without parallel in the history of the city.

Public interest in the peace negotiations, spurred on by false reports that an armistice had been concluded on the western front, rose with a rush to its zenith early in the afternoon, brushing aside the influenza ban as though it never had been and summoning epochal crowds of wildly cheering patriots to the downtown streets.

Peace Rumors Spread Rapidly. "Peace has been declared! Germany has surrendered!" "The canard ran from lip to lip with the speed of wildfire, while hundreds of whistles and bells tooted and clanged the message to distant parts of the city. Through the streets, that have been comparatively deserted since the influenza epidemic struck the city, suddenly flowed streams of citizens, eagerly passing the gossip of impending victory and rumored peace.

In a trice the city was transformed. Workmen to the number of several thousands, from the public works and other industrial plants, heard the tidings and called it a day. Casting aside their tools, they flocked forth in an impromptu parade that stretched for blocks, with flags waving, bands playing and banners proclaiming victory. They bore the Kaiser in effigy, swinging from his gibbet.

Bluecoats Are Outwitted. At police headquarters the puzzled bluecoats sized up the situation as beyond precedent and control. Chief of Police Johnson and Captain Moore dispatched motorcycle patrolmen, with instructions to stem the hilarious advance of the parading shipyard workers.

The chaps who have been building America's bridge pranced past the patrolmen with never an ear for the plea to "stay off this parade and carry the downtown district almost by storm. Influenza restrictions were literally scraps of paper when big news seemed signed with Germany. The Stock Exchange closed and the City Council, which was in session, adjourned its meeting until receipt of Associated Press dispatches from Washington of Secretary Lansing's denial, after which the session was resumed.

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—Boston and many other New England cities held impromptu celebrations today when a false report that Germany had signed an armistice became current.

Even when it was learned that the report was not credited in official circles, the excitement was not allayed. Bells and whistles continued their clamor.

One of the largest processions was composed of workers from the Army supply base being erected in South Boston.

Industries Close Down. In manufacturing centers workers were released and joined in the demonstrations, while in many communities school children were marched from their classrooms and were ordered to wear their hats and carry flags and whistles.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 7.—There was an uproar for a short time here this afternoon after false reports that the armistice had been signed. In other cities of Connecticut there were short-lived celebrations.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 7.—All Ohio went wild today over the false report that Germany had signed the armistice. Street parades were held in many cities, factories were closed and business generally was suspended, regardless of the fact that the Associated Press at 2 o'clock denied that an armistice had been signed.

In Columbus large crowds surrounded the statehouse and were ordered by Governor Cox from the portico of that building. Parades were numerous and flags were waved everywhere.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 7.—With a steady rain falling, St. Louis downtown streets at noon today began filling with people as false news spread that the war was over. The Associated Press did not carry the report.

Parades were held and from all windows in office buildings paper streamers were floating.

SIoux FALLS, S. D., Nov. 7.—This section of the Northwest celebrated for a short while today as the result of wild and baseless rumors spread broadcast that Germany had accepted the allied terms.

Celebrations End Abruptly. Hells were rung and whistles were blown in many places, but the celebration came to an abrupt end when the people were informed that the Associated Press had not carried the story and that the rumors were false.

DES MOINES, Ia., Nov. 7.—Iowa burst into a delirium of joy today when the false report of an armistice was spread broadcast over the state on other than the Associated Press wires. Business houses closed in many cities and cheering thousands paraded.

Curious towns telephoned for information. Partners of the Associated Press, which did not carry the false report, and expressed disappointment when they found their celebrations had been premature.

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 7.—Today's unconfirmed report that Germany had signed armistice terms resulted in peace demonstrations here and in other cities in Nebraska.

The Associated Press did not carry over its wires the story that the armistice was signed. Many persons called the office of the Associated Press to confirm the report, to learn that the armistice had not been signed.

OMAHA, Nov. 7.—Whistles blew constantly for an hour, the Union Pacific shops, several large stores closed and thousands of persons thronged the streets when an unofficial report was published that an armistice with Germany had been signed.

Official Report Ignored. Even when the report had been denied the marchers would not stop. A jubilee is scheduled for the courthouse tonight.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 7.—False reports that came over brokers' wires and through news agencies other than the Associated Press that the German had signed armistice terms thrilled Kentucky today and resulted in demonstrations that bordered on the hysterical. News from other important Kentucky points indicated similar conditions.

Australia has extensive forests, but owing to lack of sufficient railways and shipping facilities, a comparatively small amount of the timber has thus far been cut.

FAKE PEACE REPORT STIRS ENTIRE CITY

statements to the effect that "it was well to "go easy" or to "wait a bit."

Police and Mayor Helpless to Control Street Crowds.

As the celebration grew in volume, and an occasional soldier joined in the demonstration, local military authorities signified the lack of official confirmation by issuing an order prohibiting officers and men from taking part.

Wherever the chance met parades held forms, in streets and on corners, there was a similarity of comment that must have made Bill Hohenbuehler's ears tingle, whether he be housed himself in far Berlin or in the baronial castle of the Lake of Zug.

"We want peace," one would say, "but I'd like to see the boys go through to Berlin, leaving their trail for every German to know at sight."

"Treat 'em Rough" is Cry. "The Kaiser ought to pay at the end of a rope," would supplement another. "We ought to take every U-boat out in the sea and sink it!" declared this one.

"And I don't want to see peace if Germany's claws aren't trimmed to a finish," declared Mayor Baker. "We have no choice but to let the demonstration take its course."

It is in general than criminal that a report such as this should be permitted to get out for publication. It has aroused the sentiments of Portland to a degree that hurts in the intensity of untimely rejoicing.

A dozen times this morning men and women have grabbed me by the hand, their eyes shining. "Oh, my boy is coming home!" was the exclamation of mothers who called on me for confirmation of the report. It's a hard job to tell these folks that they must wait a while for actual peace, even though it be but a few hours or a few days.

Influenza Ban Disregarded. "We have called upon the people of Portland to join with the authorities for the benefit of the public health, and to aid in banishing the influenza peril. If they disregard the rules of the game, if they don't want to play it accordingly, the situation is unfortunate. They will be lucky if they if this ill-timed demonstration does not unfavorably upon the influenza situation."

Police and Mayor Helpless. "It would be an error and a shame to call the police to put down patriots," declared Mayor Baker. "We have no choice but to let the demonstration take its course."

Peace Rumors Spread Rapidly. "Peace has been declared! Germany has surrendered!" "The canard ran from lip to lip with the speed of wildfire, while hundreds of whistles and bells tooted and clanged the message to distant parts of the city. Through the streets, that have been comparatively deserted since the influenza epidemic struck the city, suddenly flowed streams of citizens, eagerly passing the gossip of impending victory and rumored peace.

In a trice the city was transformed. Workmen to the number of several thousands, from the public works and other industrial plants, heard the tidings and called it a day. Casting aside their tools, they flocked forth in an impromptu parade that stretched for blocks, with flags waving, bands playing and banners proclaiming victory. They bore the Kaiser in effigy, swinging from his gibbet.

Bluecoats Are Outwitted. At police headquarters the puzzled bluecoats sized up the situation as beyond precedent and control. Chief of Police Johnson and Captain Moore dispatched motorcycle patrolmen, with instructions to stem the hilarious advance of the parading shipyard workers.

The chaps who have been building America's bridge pranced past the patrolmen with never an ear for the plea to "stay off this parade and carry the downtown district almost by storm. Influenza restrictions were literally scraps of paper when big news seemed signed with Germany. The Stock Exchange closed and the City Council, which was in session, adjourned its meeting until receipt of Associated Press dispatches from Washington of Secretary Lansing's denial, after which the session was resumed.

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—Boston and many other New England cities held impromptu celebrations today when a false report that Germany had signed an armistice became current.

Even when it was learned that the report was not credited in official circles, the excitement was not allayed. Bells and whistles continued their clamor.

One of the largest processions was composed of workers from the Army supply base being erected in South Boston.

Industries Close Down. In manufacturing centers workers were released and joined in the demonstrations, while in many communities school children were marched from their classrooms and were ordered to wear their hats and carry flags and whistles.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 7.—There was an uproar for a short time here this afternoon after false reports that the armistice had been signed. In other cities of Connecticut there were short-lived celebrations.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 7.—All Ohio went wild today over the false report that Germany had signed the armistice. Street parades were held in many cities, factories were closed and business generally was suspended, regardless of the fact that the Associated Press at 2 o'clock denied that an armistice had been signed.

In Columbus large crowds surrounded the statehouse and were ordered by Governor Cox from the portico of that building. Parades were numerous and flags were waved everywhere.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 7.—With a steady rain falling, St. Louis downtown streets at noon today began filling with people as false news spread that the war was over. The Associated Press did not carry the report.

Parades were held and from all windows in office buildings paper streamers were floating.

SIoux FALLS, S. D., Nov. 7.—This section of the Northwest celebrated for a short while today as the result of wild and baseless rumors spread broadcast that Germany had accepted the allied terms.

Celebrations End Abruptly. Hells were rung and whistles were blown in many places, but the celebration came to an abrupt end when the people were informed that the Associated Press had not carried the story and that the rumors were false.

DES MOINES, Ia., Nov. 7.—Iowa burst into a delirium of joy today when the false report of an armistice was spread broadcast over the state on other than the Associated Press wires. Business houses closed in many cities and cheering thousands paraded.

Curious towns telephoned for information. Partners of the Associated Press, which did not carry the false report, and expressed disappointment when they found their celebrations had been premature.

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 7.—Today's unconfirmed report that Germany had signed armistice terms resulted in peace demonstrations here and in other cities in Nebraska.

The Associated Press did not carry over its wires the story that the armistice was signed. Many persons called the office of the Associated Press to confirm the report, to learn that the armistice had not been signed.

OMAHA, Nov. 7.—Whistles blew constantly for an hour, the Union Pacific shops, several large stores closed and thousands of persons thronged the streets when an unofficial report was published that an armistice with Germany had been signed.

Official Report Ignored. Even when the report had been denied the marchers would not stop. A jubilee is scheduled for the courthouse tonight.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 7.—False reports that came over brokers' wires and through news agencies other than the Associated Press that the German had signed armistice terms thrilled Kentucky today and resulted in demonstrations that bordered on the hysterical. News from other important Kentucky points indicated similar conditions.

Australia has extensive forests, but owing to lack of sufficient railways and shipping facilities, a comparatively small amount of the timber has thus far been cut.

WOODARD, CLARKE & CO.
PHONES: MARSHALL 4700-A 6171
20-EXTRA-20
S. & H. Stamps Today and Saturday—Bring the Coupon

Except for the Filling of Prescriptions and Sale of Medicines, Dental and Sickroom Necessities, Our Store Will Be Closed to the Public From 3:30 P. M. to 9 A. M. Every Day This Week

Flags—All Materials—All Sizes—All Prices—Mounted and Unmounted

Sickroom Needs of Every Description
PHONE ORDERS GIVEN SPECIAL ATTENTION

Electric Warming Pads
Hotpoint .....$6.50
Sun-Ray .....$6.00
Safety .....$7.00
Universal .....$9.50
American Beauty .....$10.00
Automatic, size 18x60, $15
Automatic, size 36x60, $18

Hotpoint Hedlite Heater
For Quick Heat in Bath or Bed Room
A clean, handy, portable Electric Stove. Attaches to any lamp socket.
Price $9.00

Immersion Heaters
For Instantaneous Hot Water.
At $5.00
$6.00
$7.00

Thermos or Universal Vacuum Bottle
For Keeping Hot Drinks
$2.25 to $6.00

BRING THIS COUPON AND GET 20-EXTRA-20
"S. & H." Trading stamps on your first $1 cash purchase and double on the balance in November today and Saturday, November 8 and 9.

Keep the temperature of the sick room at the proper degree. No room should be heated above 68 degrees.
TYCOS HEALTH THERMOMETERS, showing a red mark at 68 degrees .....$2.00
If room, office or shop is not warm enough at 68, there is not the proper humidity.
HYGROMETERS give both temperature and humidity; easily read.
Wood mounted .....$5.00
Brass mounted .....$6.60
HOUSEHOLD THERMOMETERS $1.00 to $5.50

Keep the temperature of the sick room at the proper degree. No room should be heated above 68 degrees.
TYCOS HEALTH THERMOMETERS, showing a red mark at 68 degrees .....$2.00
If room, office or shop is not warm enough at 68, there is not the proper humidity.
HYGROMETERS give both temperature and humidity; easily read.
Wood mounted .....$5.00
Brass mounted .....$6.60
HOUSEHOLD THERMOMETERS $1.00 to $5.50

These Standard Preparations are Preventive Agents—not nostrums or cure-alls, but tried and tested agents of real value.

Dobell's Solution, pint.....	35¢	Rhathany Throat Gargle.....	25¢	Listerized Antiseptic Tooth Powder.....	25¢
Quart.....	60¢	Listerine.....	85¢	Germinical Soap.....	25¢
Dentox, pint.....	50¢	Glycothymoline.....	81¢	Calvert's Carbolic Soap.....	25¢
Invalid Balm.....	20¢	Pineolium.....	50¢	Educator Astringent Antiseptic.....	$1
Lister's Fluid, 4 oz.....	25¢	Cooper's Nasal Spray.....	50¢	Antiseptic Witch Hazel.....	30¢
Kreso Disinfectant, 8 oz.....	30¢	Bromo Quinine.....	25¢	Cla-Wood Antiseptic Dental Cream.....	25¢
Cooper's Fluid, pint.....	75¢	Lavisor.....	25¢	Meade & Baker's Carbolic Mouth Wash.....	25¢ to $1
Sheep Dip, 6 oz.....	25¢	Allen's One Day Cold Remedy, guaranteed.....	25¢	Vantine's Temple Incense.....	25¢
Camphorated Oil, oz.....	20¢	Pape's Cold Compound.....	20¢	Deodorizer.....	50¢ to $1
Dakin's Solution Standardized, 8 oz.....	50¢	Lister's Fluid.....	40¢	Egyptian Deodorizer.....	25¢
Gum Camphor, 1/2 oz.....	20¢	Platt's Chlorides.....	60¢	Inesnas Deodorizer.....	25¢
Formaldehyde, 8 oz.....	35¢	Alkalol.....	70¢	Sweet Odor Home-Fragrant Deodorant.....	50¢
Fumigators.....	50¢ to $1.25	Chloro Bromine.....	60¢
Gum Asafetida, oz.....	40¢	Benzol.....	23¢
Lyzol.....	50¢	Ziralol.....	65¢
		Glycocol.....	50¢

WALLA WALLA NOT HASTY
Celebration Committee Insists on Associated Press Verification.
WALLA WALLA, Wash., Nov. 7.—Walla Walla was one of the few cities of the country which did not celebrate today.
The committee in charge insisted on waiting for the Associated Press to verify the wild rumors which reached Walla Walla.

MARINE ENGINEER ENTHUSIASTIC OVER IT
"Tanlac Acted Like It Was Made Especially for Me, Says Hanbers."
"Positively, if Tanlac had been made especially for my case it couldn't have helped me more than it has since I started on it," said A. W. Hanbers, a marine engineer employed with the Pacific Marine Iron Works and living at 919 South Edison street, Portland, the other day.
"For the past three years," he continued, "I have been troubled off and on with my stomach and about every two weeks I would have terrible attacks of blinding headaches. No matter how I dieted myself or what medicine I took to keep them off, they would always come on anyhow, and I would get so dizzy I could hardly see. These spells would make me awfully nervous and I would feel as though I was being attacked of blinding headaches. No matter how I dieted myself or what medicine I took to keep them off, they would always come on anyhow, and I would get so dizzy I could hardly see. These spells would make me awfully nervous and I would feel as though I was being attacked of blinding headaches. No matter how I dieted myself or what medicine