

WILHELM II. AT VELOP CHATEAU

Ex-Kaiser Puts Up at Castle of Count Bentinck.

IMPERIAL POMP DISCARDED

At Dutch Frontier Some Rude Belgian Refugees Commit Lese Majesty by Shouting "Assassin."

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 12.—According to Eysden advices the German officers with former Emperor William will be interned at Arnhem. The ex-emperor will not be asked to give his parole, but it will be silently assumed that he is under a moral obligation. Some measure of freedom will be permitted him.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—William Hohenzollern, at one time conspicuous in the political and military affairs of Germany, has gone to Velp, Holland. It is reported that he has made the trip for the benefit of his health.

Mrs. Hohenzollern did not accompany her husband. An Amsterdam dispatch says she is ill at her home in Potsdam. Her eldest son, Frederick, is at her bedside.

William Hohenzollern arrived Sunday at Count Bentinck's chateau of Middachten at Velp, according to a dispatch to the Daily Express dated Sunday at Velp.

The dispatch from Velp says that an automobile containing two members of the German court arrived first and notified Count Bentinck of the approach of the ex-emperor.

The second car brought baggage, while the third, with the blindman, arrived in the evening. From it the ex-emperor and two equerries, all in civilian clothes, alighted.

Reception Committee Absent. No one in the village of Velp, which adjoins the chateau, was aware of his arrival. The ex-German ruler occupies the left wing of the chateau.

MAASTRICHT, Holland, Nov. 11.—(By The Associated Press.)—Amid exclamations from 2000 Belgian refugees the former German Emperor's special train left here at 10 o'clock this morning northward bound.

A tremendous crowd of sightseers had gathered, but the platform was strongly cordoned and Wm. Hohenzollern did not show himself.

His destination is said to be Amerongen, about 20 miles from Utrecht, where Count Bentinck has a country seat. But it is impossible to say where he will remain, for in order to avoid the curious he may have to keep to the train for a couple of days.

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 12.—The workmen and soldiers' council at Berlin announces that the ex-emperor, the ex-empress and their eldest son, Frederick William, have arrived in Holland.

The ex-German Emperor made an inglorious entry into Holland by automobile, according to reports from Eysden. At 7:30 o'clock Sunday morning 10 travel-stained automobiles driven by Prussian officers were seen coming slowly through the fog along the Vise-Waldrich high road.

Martial Pomp Discarded. The former ruler of Germany was dressed in the uniform of a General with an officer's cap and carried a sword. The erstwhile martial figure was huddled in a motor car with a stick, while his eyes stared straight ahead.

The Dutch frontier guards stopped the cortège. After some brief inquiries, the automobiles were conducted to the railway station at Eysden, Dutch railway and Dutch frontier guards cordoned about the station. Crowds of Belgian refugees swarmed around the station, crying:

"Abas gullume! Assassin!" The 71d learns the former German Emperor's flight was decided upon after receipt of the armistice terms at headquarters and the German government's communication on this subject.

Although the Emperor, despite presidential refusal, refused to sign the abdication proclamation on behalf of himself and family, he realized that the end had come.

Emperor Repeats General. On hearing the armistice terms the Emperor bitterly reproached the supreme army command, declaring that he had been misled. One General advised against the Emperor's flight as unworthy. Field Marshal von Hindenburg designated General von Falkenhayn, the former chief of staff, to accompany the Emperor, with whom was his youngest son.

BEHIND SUNDAY BETWEEN SOLDIERS AND THE NEW OFFICERS REMAINING LOYAL TO THE HOHENZOLLERN, ACCORDING TO ADVICES FROM THERE. THESE EXCHANGES OCCURRED AROUND THE CENTRAL HOTEL AND THE RAILWAY STATION IN THE FRIEDRICHSTRASSE, THE VICTORIA AND ASTORIA CAFES AND THE ROYAL LIBRARY, FROM WHICH THE OFFICERS DROVE AT THE SOLDIERS, SOME OF WHOM WERE WOUNDED.

A number of the officers were arrested Sunday between soldiers and the new officers remaining loyal to the Hohenzollern, according to advices from there. These exchanges occurred around the Central Hotel and the railway station in the Friedrichstrasse, the Victoria and Astoria cafes and the royal library, from which the officers drove at the soldiers, some of whom were wounded.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—(British wireless service.)—Prominence is given by the British newspapers to some of the utterances made by ex-emperor William while the war was in progress. In the year 1914 he said:

"Before the leaves fall from the trees we shall be back again in the dead Fatherland. Exterminate first the treacherous English and walk over General French's contemptible little army. The warlike spirit still lives in the German people. . . . that powerful spirit which attacks the enemy wherever it finds him regardless of the cost."

Blasphemous Words Used. "You, my troops, are my guarantee that I can dictate peace to my enemies. Up and at the feet of God's goodness will guide the German people through battle to victory. To the goal appointed for the German people by providence."

"I have drawn the sword, which without victory and without honor I cannot sheathe again. We stand with all the enemies of Germany, Amen."

In the year 1915 the German ruler said: "Our brave soldiers have shown themselves to be invincible in battle against nearly the whole world. The war drama now is coming to its close. To the king of the Senussi he said: "Our common enemies whom Allah will annihilate, in my name shall fly before thee. So be it."

United States Threatened. Regarding the United States the emperor declared: "I shall stand no nonsense from the Americans. My destructive sword has crushed the American in short while I will announce new victories. The war drama now is coming to its close. In just cause I am ready to force myself to be cruel."

In 1916 the Emperor said: "The world was prepared for anything, with a German fleet over the bones of the enemy. 'Fichta und bleib'! What a magnificent success on the road to complete victory has been gained with God's help."

"The world is invincible in spite of the superior numbers of our enemies and every day confirms this anew. Germany knows her strength and she relies on God's help. The foe is defending his native soil foot by foot. This is the reluctance of despair but it must be broken. He has prepared his soup and now he must sup it, I took you to see to it."

Shining Sword Invoked. "All Germany contemplates with pride her brave sons whose deeds with God's help will be a landmark on the road to final victory." In 1917 the head of the German nation said: "If the enemy does not want peace then we must bring peace by battering down his walls with iron and shining sword the doors of those who will not have peace."

Victory in the coming year will again be on our side and on that of our allies. If only we cast the burden on the Lord, he will smite the foe hip and thigh as he did Amalek, the prototype of perfidious England.

"The year 1917 with its great battles has proved that the German people has the right of creation and the right of conditional and avowed ally on whom it can absolutely rely."

"God, the Lord, has laid a heavy burden on my shoulders, but I can carry it in the consciousness of our good right, with confidence in our sharp sword and our strength."

This was followed by various utterances of growing despondency.

REPUBLIC TAKING SHAPE

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 11.—An agreement has been reached between the Socialists and Independent Socialist parties in Germany and the new regime has secured ample support from the press.

Vorwarts to Get N. Name. In addition to the Wolff Bureau, the Socialists are now represented by three newspapers. Vorwarts, the Lokai Anzeiger, formerly the Emperor's favorite newspaper and now rechristened "Red Ping," and the former semi-official organ, the German Gazette, which has taken the new title of "The International."

The revolutionary movement is spreading. Koenigsberg, Frankfurt-on-Main and Strassburg are now controlled by the soviets. It is officially reported that there are no disorders.

German troops at the Beverloo Camp in Belgium have mutined and are marching with their guns toward Holland.

CATHEDRAL BELLS RING PEACE AT VERDUN

Great Celebration Held in War-Scarred French City.

ALLIED TROOPS REJOICE

American Troops Quiet and Grim, Not Certain They Have "Licked Germany Enough."

VERDUN, Nov. 11.—(By the Associated Press.)—Verdun came into its own tonight.

While the bells of the ancient cathedral were ringing the news of peace the fortress city was illuminated and a military procession, headed by the drum corps of the 26th American Division swung along the crowded streets accompanied by a detachment of French buglers representing the famed defenders of Verdun.

The procession moved through the streets lighted by flares and vari-colored signal lights set off by infantrymen. The entire city was in a great blaze of glory and the illumination was visible for many miles over the hills the Germans going homeward in the East.

Behind the buglers marched a shouting, singing and dancing column of French, American, Senegalese and Algerian soldiers and civilian celebrants keeping time with the drumbeats and shouting "Vive la France! Vive la France! Viva L'Amérique!"

Great Fortress Sleeps in Peace. The marchers paraded until they were tired, the buglers rang the cathedral bells until they were hoarse and the flares burned themselves out.

Late tonight the American and French soldiers and the handful of faithful civilians in Verdun went to sleep in peace.

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, Nov. 11.—(By the Associated Press.)—Hostilities along the American front ended with a crash of cannon. Two minutes before 11 o'clock the fire dwindled, the last shells shrieking over No Man's Land precisely on time.

There was little celebration on the front line, where American routine was scarcely disturbed. In the areas behind the battle zone, there were celebrations on all sides.

It was in the gray light of early morning that orders for the cessation of hostilities were sent out. Each commander was called to the telephone and the general army order read to him.

American Emotion Lacking. In contrast to the sobriety of the Americans, was the emotion displayed by their French allies. Many of the French soldiers went about singing and shouting.

The Americans except in some rare instances are accepting the situation with the same grimness that has characterized their fighting.

"Well, I don't know," drawled a lieutenant from Texas, while an artillery sergeant was sending his last challenge to the Germans, "but somehow I can't understand if we have licked them enough."

The Germans were manifestly so glad over the cessation of hostilities that they did not conceal their feelings. Prisoners taken at Stenay grinned with satisfaction.

Germana Glad It Is Over. In the front line, the Americans were happy, but quiet. They made no demonstration. The Germans on the other hand were in a great hysteria of joy.
