

OREGON SEES TOUGH FIGHT WITH AGGIES

Lifting of Ban Will Clinch Game for Saturday.

STRACHAN IS ON SHELF

Huntington Faces Struggle With at Least Three Regulars Unable to Participate in Battle.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Nov. 13.—(Special.)—In an effort to get the university regimental eleven in shape to meet the Oregon Agricultural College eleven in Corvallis next Saturday, Coach "Shy" Huntington is putting his men through long hours of hard practice.

In speaking of the Oregon chances for a win in the fray, "Bill" Hayward said: "We realize that we have a hard game ahead and it will be one hot fight. The Aggies may beat us, but they can't lick us. The Oregon team will be in the fight from the first whistle to the last, and we will give them the best we have."

Huntington had little to say about the game and nothing on the chances against the team Hargis has lined up. "Shy" is facing the struggle with at least three men who were injured in the Camp Lewis game or the Foundation contest. Pat O'Rourke, the lightning "gob," who made such a creditable showing against the soldiers, was knocked cold in the Camp Lewis game and has not yet recovered.

"Scotty" Strachan on Shelf.

"Scotty" Strachan, who was out of the Camp Lewis game, having been hurt in the Foundation contest, is still unable to do any real work. While he is out every night he is unable to do any scrimmage work and it hardly looks as though he would start the game Saturday. Joe Trowbridge is another of the Oregon regulars who is not any too spry on the field and probably will be slowed up for the Aggie game.

From present indications it appears that the backfield will be made up of the following men: F. Jacobberger, quarter; V. Jacobberger, left half; Branden, right half, and Blake, fullback. "This would give 'Shy' three or four good backfield subs in Tuerck, Chapman, Watson and Durso.

On the line, Howard and Wilson probably will be on the ends. Whether O'Rourke or Strachan will start at left tackle is a question that is bothering the Oregon fans. They are both good, but neither one is in condition to stand a game as hard as the Oregon Agricultural College contest promises to be.

Trowbridge will be sent in at right tackle and if he is in condition he should play a great game this week end.

Callison Slow in Practice.

Mautz and Harding are the probable choice for the two guard positions. Mautz has been complaining of a lame shoulder and has not been mixing in during scrimmages. Callison will probably be back in his old berth at center. Callison has not shown a great amount of fight during practice this week and will have to get going by Saturday.

The one thing that both "Bill" Hayward and "Shy" are trying to drive out of the teams is the spirit of cockiness they have shown during the last two weeks. The gang seem to think that they have the Oregon Agricultural College scalp tied to their belt, while "Bill" and "Shy" can see a long, tough fight ahead before the Aggies are beaten, if they are beaten at all.

Band to Accompany Team.

The loss of Hauser at end will be greatly felt in the game Saturday. His speed and experience made him a grand partner for Dow Wilson and if he were still in school "Shy" would feel better about the coming game. Howard, who is now playing the left end for the lemon-yellow, is a good end man, having played several seasons on the Jefferson High School team of Portland, but he has not had the college experience that Hauser had and is not quite as fast.

The Oregon students are awaiting the action of the local board of health before making any definite plans of going to Corvallis this week-end. The State Board of Health has ruled that the trip may be made by the students if the local ban is lifted by the students of the game. From present indications it is quite probable that this will be done. A special train, it is expected, will be chartered and the University Band, of 45 instruments, under the direction of Professor Albert Perfect, will accompany the team.

WINTER POLO PLANS PROGRESS

Cessation of Hostilities Abroad Spurs Club Head to Action.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Nov. 13.—With the cessation of hostilities in Europe, plans for the annual winter polo play at Coronado have been begun by Colin G. Ross, secretary of the Country Club.

The plans call for the beginning of play on New Year's day, following which there will be weekly tournaments up to the first week in March, when the tournament for the principal trophies will be held.

"LEFTY" SWARTZ MAKING GOOD

Portland Twirler Wins 15 Out of 17 Games Played.

"Lefty" Swartz, well-known Portland twirler, is pitching great ball in the Army, and won his twelfth straight game the other day at Angel Island, California. Swartz has been pitching all season for the Fort McDowell team, and has been going better than ever before in his career.

Since being stationed at Fort McDowell, "Lefty" has taken part in 17 games and has won 15 of them. He has also been hitting the ball.

Following is the summary of his last victory over the Schaw-Batcher Iron Works team of San Francisco:

Schaw-Batcher Iron Works ..... R. H. E. I.
Fort McDowell ..... 1 2 1
Batteries, for Iron Works, Colbrook and Zander; Fort McDowell, Swartz and Hargis.

WESTERN GOLFERS TO RESUME

Plans for Champ Tournaments Will Be Decided in January.

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—Renewal of the Western golf championships dropped during the period of the war may be ordered resumed by the Western Golf Association at its meeting in January. This is the expectation of the president, Charles F. Thompson, who said today that even if the National and western championships were not held next season most of the sectional and state tournaments probably would be scheduled.

MULTNOMAH TEAM ON EDGE

WINGED M WARRIORS OUT FOR STRENUOUS PRACTICE.

Coach Dewey Fast Whipping Eleven Into Shape for Camp Lewis Struggle on Saturday.

Two full squads of "Winged M" gridiron hunters, the largest turnout of the season, greeted Coach Ad Dewey on Multnomah Field last night and went through a strenuous two-hour session of intensive football practice, getting in the pink of condition for their game against Camp Lewis here Saturday.

Talk about confidence in a football coach, the Multnomah club eleven is bubbling over with quantities of that dangerous stuff. The thing that has been worrying Manager Bertz, of the Multnomah Club team, all season, has been the fact that he has had only one complete backfield with any kind of class.

But Bertz' worries now are over, and with two complete backfields, both made up of first-rate players, everything is as fine as silk. Al Horton, Norman Stemler, Al Cook and Walter Lutge are the latest additions to the Multnomah team, and are putting a lot of jazz in the workouts.

Horton started for the late Foundation eleven and is a hard hitting back. Stemler is another crack halfback and a regular speed demon. Cook played a stellar game for Foundation and also was for several seasons the mainstay of the South Portland team, which won the independent championship of the state. Lutge is a former St. Mary's College star. He fits in at quarterback or any backfield position.

The backfield slated to start against Camp Lewis on Multnomah Field Saturday night has not been decided on yet, but will be picked tonight.

News already is commencing to drift down from Camp Lewis about losses and injuries, but the Multnomah players are not paying much attention to the "rumors," and are working all the harder. Bill Himpel, the big guard of the "Winged M" eleven, who has been laid up with the influenza, turned out again Tuesday night and found himself to be as strong as ever despite his sick spell.

The seat sale will open today at Rich's and Spaulding's, and from the preliminary interest displayed in the game a record crowd should be in attendance.

The club team has more than one reason for wanting to trim the Camp Lewis machine. First, they want to make up for their 7-to-0 defeat at the hands of the soldiers several weeks ago; but the big reason is that Manager Bertz is angling for a big game for next month in California, and if the club wants to land a trip of that order they want to be in the best of shape.

The date Camp Lewis has that reputation, Multnomah has already defeated the crack University of Oregon team, and the big triumph is the 7-to-0 defeat at the hands of the 13th Division squad.

TURKEY SHOOT WILL LURE

PROCEEDS OF MAIN EVENT TO HELP BOYS OVERSEAS.

Biggest Gobbler in Oregon Will Go to Winner of Special United War Work Fund Event.

The boys "over there" will not be forgotten at the Portland Gun Club Sunday, when Everding Park will be the scene of the first big Turkey shoot of the year.

A. K. Downs, president of the Portland Gun Club, has arranged a special event of 25 targets, the net proceeds of which will go to the united war work fund. The biggest turkey gobbler that can be found in Oregon will go up as a prize to the winner of the special united war work fund event. The entrance fee for the special event will be $1.

In case of ties in the big event, as well as ties in all other events, they will not only be shot off on the hip and miss plan but each shooter will be compelled to step back a yard on each bird. Last year many of the flying clays were winged by the expert trapshooters as far as 20 yards back of the regular firing walk.

Beginners in the trapshooting game or those who have never shot at the tar hawks will be welcomed to participate. The new marksmen will be put in squads by themselves and will not have to shoot for the turkey against the experienced trapshooters.

The sport will commence about 10 o'clock Sunday morning and continue well through the day. A lunch will be served on the grounds and the club will be open. Several special stunts are being arranged and Downs says that even Lou Lamentmore Kennedy and Robert Arica Cronin will have a chance to get a turkey or his name is mud.

Roger Holcomb Is Called.

Roger Holcomb, former University of Oregon medical student and son of Dr. and Mrs. Curtis Holcomb, has been called from Bremerton for overseas duty. Mr. Holcomb is a member of Multnomah Club and was catcher on the club baseball team the past season.

Highway Bids Turned Down.

BOISE, Ida., Nov. 13.—(Special.)—The State Highway Commission today turned down all bids submitted for construction of the White Bird-Grangeville highway and issued notice that bids will again be received November 21. Construction of this highway involves the expenditure of a quarter of a million dollars, Federal, state and county money. The bids were rejected because they were too high.

BARRACKS TEAM OUT FOR ADDED LAURELS

Stoppage of Spruce Production Stimulates Activities.

PORTLAND GAME IN SIGHT

Third Squadron and Military Police Probably Will Clash on Multnomah Field Next Week.

VANCOUVER BARRACKS, Wash., Nov. 13.—(Special.)—Stoppage of spruce production, announced today, will in no way interfere with the present football schedule nor athletic activities. In fact, according to members of the athletic council, the order will probably result in more sports at this camp.

Arrangements have been completed giving members of the Post eleven more time in which to practice. Their duties will be lighter in the future and, Captain Robinson, manager of the team, expects more efficient results from the team. Heretofore members of the eleven have been required to perform their military duties in addition to practice work on the gridiron.

If the fix has been raised in Portland Saturday or Sunday the Third Squadron and 12th Squadron (Military Police) will clash on Multnomah Field some day next week. This game, which has aroused a great deal of interest among the soldiers, was to have been played on the Post field Saturday afternoon. Officials of the team appealed to the athletic council for permission to play the game in Portland, and this plan was ratified today.

The Third Squadron eleven is leading the Inter-Squadron League, having had no defeats this season. The closest this team has come to defeat was a scoreless tie game played with the Sixth Squadron early in the season. Every man on the eleven is said to be in the pink of condition, and members of the squadron look for victory.

The Military Police organization is looked upon as one of the fastest teams in the league. The only flaw in their record thus far this season is one defeat. They lost this game by a field goal. This team, under the guidance of Lieutenant Roberts, former member of the University of Washington gridiron team, has rolled up 120 points this season to 7 points secured by all their opponents.

Because the scheduled game Sunday has a direct bearing on the championship of the league it is expected that thousands of soldiers stationed at this camp will travel to Portland to root for their favorite team.

The Post eleven is fast getting into shape for its game with the Camp Lewis team Sunday, notwithstanding that three of its members are unable to turn out on the field because of injuries. Realizing that the Lewis team will put up a hard game, Coach Marley is working the boys overtime.

Captain Robinson, manager of the Post team, announced today that arrangements had been completed for a contest between his team and the Bremerton Navy-yard eleven, to be played on Sunday, November 24. The game is to be played on the Post field.

STANDIFER SIGNS CLASH

CAMP LEWIS BRIGADE ELEVEN PLAYS HERE SUNDAY.

Shipbuilders Have World of Material and Fans Are Looking Ahead to Hard-Fought Game.

The Standifer shipbuilders' football team will clash with the 16th Depot Brigade eleven, of Camp Lewis, on the Vaughn-street grounds here Sunday. The game was clinched yesterday by Tom Standifer and Manager Turner, of the Standifer team, and all arrangements have been completed for the contest. The game will start at 2:30 o'clock.

The 16th Depot Brigade is considered on a par with the best teams in the Northwest. It has improved the University of Oregon team to a 20 to 3 score last Saturday at Camp Lewis and has taken on added interest in this week. The Standifer team, although not organized until a few weeks ago, surprised the football fans throughout this neck of the woods by holding Vancouver Barracks to a 7-to-0 score two weeks ago and coming back again last Saturday and holding the Oregon Aggies, 14 to 0.

There is a world of material at the Standifer plant, and with plenty of practice, will be ranked among the top-notchers.

The Vancouver Barracks eleven will tangle with the Camp Lewis team at Camp Lewis Sunday. It will play the same team that Multnomah Club will play Saturday, but as nearly 100 men are out for the team at Camp Lewis, Captain Cook is not worried about the two games in a row.

BLUE RIBBON CLASH LOOMS
