

Red Cross Christmas Parcel Station Moved to Liberty Temple—Open Daily 9 to 6—Nov. 30 Last Day to Send Gifts Overseas

Red Cross Shop
Sale of Plants

and shrubs will be held tomorrow and Saturday, Fifth and Stark.

Mme. Coates' Class "B"

for advanced students reopens today at 2:30 P. M.—Seventh Floor.

"Crashing Thru to Berlin"

or "Why the Allies Won," is now being shown at the Star. See this great war picture.

The Countess of Kingston War Exhibit continues from 9 to 6 today—Sixth Floor. No admission is charged for viewing the exhibit—we have arranged for our patrons to see it at our expense. Lady Kingston, who is in personal charge, devotes the money derived from the showing of the war trophies and pictures in this and other leading stores to the Shamrock Fund in aid of Irish Soldiers and Sailors of all religions. The exhibit comprises over 100 official photographs taken on the various battlefronts, at sea and in the air, many interesting battle trophies and historical souvenirs.

Christmas Welworths

Make Their Bow
Two New Models Just Received on Sale at $2

Welworth blouses are the standard by which all other $2 blouses are judged. They are "well worth" $2—and more. In view of the heavily increased costs of everything that goes into the making of Welworth blouses it is wonderful that we can still sell them for $2—how much longer we may be able to do so we cannot say.
Two new models on sale today. Buy for personal use and for gifts. Sold here only in Portland.
