ACCUSED'S 'RIGHTS' URGED

Court Crookedness Charge Said to Involve Important Persons, Including ex-Supreme Justice.

CASES "MADE TO ORDER"

Alleged crookedness in office was charged, without reference to cases now pending. The bomb cases, in which Mooney, his wife, Rena Mooney, and Warren K. Billings, now serving life imprisonment, were indicted for ten murders, were described as "made to order."

DEFENDANTS "RIGHTS" URGED

More than 40 columns of newspaper space were filled by the report. Many columns of stenographic reports of alleged conversations obtained by dictaphones were set out. Telephone conversations were recorded. Details of alleged meetings between an official and certain notorious characters were given.

TESTIMONY HELD TAINTED

Evidence adduced at the bomb trials was analyzed and the alleged taint on the testimony set out. Four of these bomb cases have been tried. In the first, Billings was sentenced to life imprisonment. In the second Mooney was sentenced to be hanged. In the third and fourth Weinburg and Mrs. Mooney were acquitted.

CORRUPTION IS CHARGED

Summarizing the published findings today, the report said "practically the whole case against Mooney, Billings and Mrs. Mooney was made to order." The conclusion, the report states, was reached through direct evidence that seemed sufficient and also by the alleged facts adduced in the investigation tending to show corruption.

Need of Money and Rest Assigned as Cause.

RESIGNATION IS ACCEPTED

Treasurership to Be Kept Until Successor Named, Rail Directorship to Jan. 1.

PRESIDENT LAUDS SERVICE

No Announcement of Who Will Replace Official Made, but Speculation Is Rife.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—William Gibbs McAdoo, Secretary of the Treasury, director-general of railroads and often discussed as one of the Presidential possibilities of 1920, has resigned his office to return to private business.

President Wilson has accepted his resignation. Mr. McAdoo will give up the Treasury portfolio as soon as a successor has been selected. He wished to lay down his work as director-general of railroads by January 1, but will remain if the President has not chosen a successor.

Upon the Secretary of the Treasury, whoever he may be, will devolve the task of financing the Nation through the transition period of war to peace, which probably will include at least two more liberty loans and possibly a further revision of the system of war tax.

Need of Cash Expressed.

Letters between President Wilson and Mr. McAdoo, made public today with the announcement of the resignation, give Mr. McAdoo's reasons for leaving the Cabinet solely as a necessity for replenishing his personal fortune and express the President's deep regret at losing his son-in-law from his official family.

Cost of Living One Cause.

"I have been conscious for some time of the necessity for this step, but of course I could not consider it while the country was at war. For almost six years I have worked incessantly under the pressure of great responsibilities. Their exactions have rained heavily on my strength. The inadequate compensation allowed by law to Cabinet officers (as you know receive no compensation as director-general of railroads) and the very burdensome cost of living in Washington have so depleted my personal resources that I am obliged to reckon with the facts of the situation.

Private Affairs Neglected.

"I do not wish to convey the impression that there is any actual impairment of my health, because such is not the fact. As a result of long overwork I need a reasonable period of genuine rest to replenish my energy. Not more than this, I must, for the sake of my family, get back to private life, to retrieve my personal fortune.

Private Affairs Neglected.

"I cannot secure the required rest or the opportunity to look after my long-neglected private affairs unless I am relieved of my present responsibilities.

Private Affairs Neglected.

"I am anxious to have my retirement effected with the least possible inconvenience to yourself and to the public service, but it would, I think, be wise to accept my resignation now as secretary of the Treasury, to become qualified upon the appointment and qualification of my successor, so that I may have the opportunity and advantage of participating promptly in the formulation of policies that should govern the future work of the Treasury. I would suggest that my resignation as director-general of railroads become effective January 1, 1919, or upon the appointment of my successor.

Service Is Pleasing.

"I hope you will understand, my dear Mr. President, that I will permit nothing but the most imperative demands to force my withdrawal from
