MEN RECEIVE FULL PAY

Actual Work of Disbanding Students Will Begin Upon Receipt of Additional Instructions.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene. Nov. 27 .- (Special.) -- Demobilization of the Students' Army Training Corps unit in the University of Oregon will begin December 4, and the University will return to its pre-war status.

The announcement of the immediate demobilization of the S. A. T. C. unit here was made by Colonel William H. C. Bowen, commanding officer, who read a telegram from General Harris, Adjutant-General of the United States.

ordering such action.

The telegram received by Colonel
Bowen from the Adjutant-General fol-

"Sections A and B, S. A. T. C., are hereby ordered demobilized, and men discharged in accordance with the fol-lowing procedure: Personnel officers now at Camp Sherman will return to district headquarters November 29, and will hold schools on discharge paper work at which officer your unit Demobilization and discharge Section B will begin December 2 and Section A December 4. Medical examinations will be made by medical officers assigned by the Surgeon-Gen

The men will receive their full pay up to the time of their discharge, Col-onel Bowen announced. In the mean-time, military discipline is to continue

By a coincidence the order for de mobilization came on the very day of the issuance of uniforms to the men. Of the 450 men in the Oregon unit, B company, approximately 200 strong, had almost all donned their uniforms before Colonel Bowen suspended their Issuance. The Navy section uniforms arrived several days ago. The Colonel is now in communication with Washington, hoping for permission to issue all the remainder of the uniforms. President Campbell, in a short ad-dress at assembly, explained the ex-isting situation to the student body, emphasizing that the university would be executing possible to bein the men do everything possible to help the men adjust themselves to the sudden change in conditions.

The actual details of the demobilization here have not yet been worked out, Colonel Bowen announced. The telegram from Adjutant-General Har-ris, he said, was all the information had on the subject.

German Press Says French Officers and British Representative Maintained Cold Attitude.

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 27.—The armis-tice conferences between the German delegates and Marshal Foch and his

After the French met the German commissioners they were driven for ten hours in automobiles to an appointed rendezvous. "It seemed to me," says the narrator, "that the drive was intentionally prolonged in order to carry us through the devastated prov-inces and prepare us for the hardest conditions which hatred and revenge might demand. One of the Frenchme pointed to a heap of ruins, saying 'be-hold St. Quentin.'

"We entered a train with blinds drawn in the evening and awoke in the morning in the midst of the forest of Complegne, surrounded by soldiers. "Marshal Foch, whom we only saw twice—at the beginning and at the end of the conference—is a stern, plain man. He did not speak a single word

"Finally we were obliged to sign."
The narrator remarks that the French officers and Vice-Admiral Wemyss, British representative, main-tained a cold attitude, "never tem-pered by a friendly word."
