LOMBARD WILL UPHELD .- Gay Lombard, former well-known Portland business man, and his brother, Harry Lombard, failed in their efforts to set Lombard, failed in their efforts to set saide the will of their deceased brother, William A. Lombard, according to word received yesterday in Portland. Their dead brother's estate, valued at $175,000. is piaced under the control of the widow, Mrs. Grace Lombard, as executrix. In the courts at Riverside, Cal., the brothers filed a contest against the estate, charging that William was of unsound mind and had been plied with liquor just before the will was executed. The widow, Mrs. Grace Lombard, her mother, Mrs. Lillian M. Spurgeon, and N. R. Bell were named as defendants in the contest. as defendants in the contest.

STREET IMPROVEMENTS HELD UP.— Taking over of certain city streets for improvement by the county is being held up pending the establishment of curb lines on these streets. In a re-port to the City Council yesterday, Commissioner Barbur approved the dissioner Barbur approved the Commissioner Barbur approved the plan, but requested that formal ac-ceptance of the county's proposal await action by the City Engineer. Portions of Jefferson street, Macadam road, Taylor's Ferry road and East Seventeenth street are to be improved by county funds when the proposition is accepted. The city's paving plant will be used in putting on the final surface, If Mr. Barbur's plans are approved by County Commissioners.

THIRD RAIL PLANS DO NOT CONFLICT. -Plans of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company to place a third rail on Yambill street between First and nd so that Hawthorne bridge cars may turn on Yamhill do not conflict with the terminal amendment, according to a report of the Commission of Public Docks to City Commissioners. They say that the proposed action does not affect the interchange of traffic between water and rail carriers and therefore is not a quession for them to decide. Granting of the permit now in the hands of the City Council.

Mrs. Mary Kisby, 3533 Princeton Ave., Spokane, Wash., writes: "I was sick in bed with a grippe and threatened with pneumonia; I coughed so very bad. I sent and got a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and it stopped my cough and I got better, so now I am around the house. I am 75 years old and can say as long as I live I will praise your medicine." Thousands of men, women and children can testify to splendid results obtained with Foley's Honey and Tar in treating coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough.—Adv.

RED CROSS TO CALL Grande, Or., Fred J. Holmes, State Fuel.
Administrator, announced that his office will no longer perform the function of investigating complaints about apartment and rooming-house temperatures. Such complaints may in the future be made to the Mayor's office, he stated. Tenants in apartment and rooming-houses have been pouring their complaints about heat in to the Fuel Administrator's office for many weeks and Miss Margaret Dunning, Mr. Holmes' secretary, has been doing much to bring rent profiteers to time. The work really falls outside the Fuel Administration's functions, Mr. Holmes OREGON'S THOUSANDS
