

HELIG RAY TRIBUTE TO WANKS OVERSEAS Troop in Russia Feat on Delicious Wild Turkey.

LONDON HOMES ARE OPENED Special Services at Church of Madeleine Feature Celebration for Americans in Paris.

ARCHANGEL, Nov. 28.—(By the Associated Press).—So far as was possible in these frozen wilderness, the American troops in Northern Russia tried to observe an old-fashioned American Thanksgiving...

Fighting Is Not Ended. Unlike the troops in France, the fighting is not ended. All the forces in this area have President Wilson's Thanksgiving proclamation sent to them together with a statement by Dewitt C. Foster, Jr.,...

Relief Committee at Treves. AMSTERDAM, Nov. 28.—According to a Treves dispatch published in Monday's issue of the Dusseldorfer Nachrichten, six American officers, described as "of the American relief committee," arrived at Treves, conferred with the Workmen and Soldiers' Council and proceeded to Coblenz.

DAILY METEOROLOGICAL REPORT. PORTLAND, Nov. 28.—Maximum temperature, 44 degrees; minimum temperature, 39 degrees. Wind, light S.W. breeze; light rain, 2.1 inches.

LONDON, Nov. 28.—The American Thanksgiving day was celebrated today in England as never before. The British people co-operated in the observance of the anniversary and entertained Americans in many places.

Church Service Impressive. In the morning at the Church for the Army and Navy, Bishop James De Wolf Perry, of Rhode Island, preached and read the Bible lesson. Foreign Secretary, Raoul Bradbur, of the British Embassy, and Earl Curzon and American, French, Italian Japanese and Chinese diplomats were present.

Red Cross Gives Dinners. The American Red Cross supplied all the Americans in English hospitals with a turkey dinner, gave dinners to 500 officers in different camps and distributed the President's proclamation.

Scores of American wounded were conspicuous at the assembly in Westminster Cathedral. PARIS, Nov. 28.—Undoubtedly the most striking Thanksgiving celebration in Paris was that organized by the Knights of Columbus at the Church of the Madeleine in honor of victory.

Ragpickers' Children Steal to Get Turkey Dinner. HUNGRY and Cold. Two Little Waifs of Humanity Warm and Fed at Fraser Home.

RAGPICKERS, as a usual thing, do not have turkey for their Thanksgiving dinner. But the little palates of the underfed children of ragpickers thirst for the tender cuts of the dark meat and the white with the same zest as those of children of more favored parentage.

Andrew Faded is a Russian and is 7 years old. His mother asks out an existence for herself and Andrew and his three older brothers in a junk shop where she receives uncertain employment and uncertain wages as a ragpicker.

At the Theaters. Hellig. AN audience that filled the Hellig to capacity paid pleased attention to "My Soldier Girl," the timely musical comedy which opened last night.
