MILITARY BODIES WILL CARRY DIFFERENCES TO CAPITAL.

Differences between the Multaomah Guard and the National Guard, now being reorganized, will be carried on at Salem during the sension of this is certain and that is the National Guard will have in the Legislature. How many friends the National Guard will have in the Legistrature remains to be seen, but one thing is certain and that is the National Guard has friends at court, and this home guard erganization will have the the fullow.

Guard has friends at court, and this home guard erganization will have ardent champions when the time comes.

Then there is the Oregon Military Police. This force, created to meet an emergency, can expect only hard sled-

Mainly the fireworks will start in the committee on ways and means. If the National Guard manages to seit will only be after the Senate ways and means committee has been ironed out flat. The same is true of the Oro-gon Military Police. If Senator W. T. Vinton is elected president of the Senate his organization will have absolute control of the Senate body, and some of his most staunch supporters cannot see any ex-cuse for the continued maintenance of the military police. The inference is it that the organization in the Senate is will, consequently, be "ferninst" the will, consequently, be "ferminst" the G military police. This same group is far from admir-ing the National Guard, which has y been in process of reorganization of late. The Multnomah Guard, composed W of young business and professional men who have been giving service for more than a year, have won the as-sistance of Senators powerful in the Vinton ranks. If there is any show-down in the Legislature regarding the two organizations, the Multnomah W two organizations, the Multhomah Guard or the National Guard, the former will have the best of the situ-
