Trouble, in Part, Alleged Due to Inexperienced Men.

LOTTERY CASES NUMEROUS

Probe Is Expected to Deal Principally With Gambling, Disorderly Houses and Chinatown.

The war emergency squad probably will be the storm center in the grand jury investigation of the Police Bureau, cording to consensus of opinion at police headquarters yesterday. Johnson said the inquiry dealt principally with gambling, disorderly houses and Chinatown concessions.

Just what evidence has been gathered against the moral squad, or some of its members, has not been revealed. Mayor Baker, however, has announced that something definite has been disclosed as a working basis, although the Mayor has made no statement that the moral squad will be the particular ob-Ject of the present probe.

Members of the police bureau contend that not more than a dozen policemen, and perhaps less, will be involved in the investigation. They believe, too, that the trouble, at least in mark will be found due to honest mispart, will be found due to honest mis takes made by inexperienced men. This is the police view. Whether it tallies with the facts to be revealed remains

Lottery Cases Numerous.

Police officers say that new men have been appointed to the emergency squad for two reasons. One is that the more experienced policemen, realizing the dangers of trouble in moral work, decline to go on that detail ex-cept under positive orders. The other is that men who have been on the po-lice force for some years are too well known to be efficient in moral work.

After being arrested once, operators of illegal resorts are wary about admit-ting the policemen who arrested them. The Municipal Court was busy all day The Municipal Court was busy all day yesterday trying operators of Chinese lettery games. Judge Rossman assessed unusually heavy fines, saying that he had determined to close up Chinatown as far as possible. Reports that white women were buying lottery tickets spurred him to action, and he told Chief Johnson several weeks ago that he would proceed with unusual severity if the nolice would round up the Chinese.

Judge Rossman insisted that the cases yesterday had nothing to do with the impending investigation. He said that immediately after the armistice with Germany was declared, he anticipated a slackening in the court business and determined to begin a clean-up on gambling. The total of the fines was $2356.

Lieutenant Thatcher, head of the war emergency squad, handed in to Chief Johnson a report of the last 10 months work. The report shows that $30,068 has been collected from persons arrested by the squad. The squad arrested 3845 persons, and confiscated 21,911 quarts of liquor.

He has been elected three successive times and is at present a hold-over. Senator Wood is a physician, a graduate of the medical school at Ann Arbor, Mich. He was born in Washington County and has resided there all his life. Senator Wood is one of the few men who insist on applying the acid test to appropriations, and when on the ways and means committee any appropriation that met with his approval had to have the best of business reasons to justify it. He is a Republican.

Representative-elect Louis E. Bean, of Lane County, is a familiar figure in the Legislature. This will be his fifth session. Mr. Bean was originally elected to the House in 1909 as a Representative from Lane County. In the sessions of 1911 and 1913 he served as State Senator for Linn and Lane. At the session of 1911 he was back again in the House from Lane County, and he has once more been elected to serve in the same capacity. Mr. Bean has been City Attorney of Eugene, is a member of the oldest law firm in Eugene and is an active Republican.

Charles Childs. Representative-elect, will be in his fourth session in January. He is a Republican, representing Linn County. Mr. Childs was elected to serve in the sessions of 1913, 1915 and 1917, so this makes his fourth successive election to the place. His home is in Brownsville. Between legislative sessions he is active in civic affairs, specializing in educational matters.
