

OREGON GIVES $124,358,800

War Investments and Contributions in 18 Months $155 Per Capita. In the 18 months America was in the war the people of Oregon raised $124,358,800, or an average of $1,000,000 every month. Based on an estimated population of 866,000, the per capita for every man, woman and child is $155. Bonds amounting to $102,900,000, and war savings stamps to the extent of $18,600,000, were bought. Oregon people have given to the American Red Cross, the Armenians, Salvation Army, Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., Knights of Columbus, Jewish Welfare Board, American Library Association and War Camp Community Service the sum of $1,258,900. Almost half of this money has gone to the Red Cross, which received $1,028,000 on its first drive, $248,000 last Christmas, and $249,000 last May—a total of $2,225,000. The United War Work Campaign received $1,751,560.
