Need of Silence Realized.

The message continued: "You must fully realize my position I am threatened on all sides with criminal charges which, if brought, I must face. Therefore, I must reserve any statement until charges are actually brought.

"Also I owe a certain loyalty to the present German government, and cannot make a declaration which might compromise others." The correspondent requested the general to ask the former Emperor whether he would confirm the Crown Prince's assertion regarding the Kruger telegram, and the general brought back the answer: Crown Prince Sustained. "The Crown Prince is absolutely correct in his facts. The telegram, already written, was laid before me for signature. I refused to sign it for three days, but finally did so under pressure of the German diplomats and my po litical advisers, who advanced many reasons for sending the dispatch.
