

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

City Editor... Main 7070, A 6095 Sunday Edition... Main 7070, A 6095 Advertising Department... Main 7070, A 6095 Superintendent of Building... Main 7070, A 6095

AMUSEMENTS. BAKER (Broadway, near Morrison)—Baker Players, in "The Unkissed Bride" tonight. ALCAZAR (Morrison at Eleventh)—Alcazar players, in "The Unkissed Bride" tonight.

THRIFT STAMPS AND WAR SAVINGS STAMPS. On Sale at Business Office, Oregonian.

GRAZING RATES ANNOUNCED.—New grazing rates for five-year permits, costing from 25 cents to $1.25 a head for cattle, according to the advantages of the range, have been announced by George Cecil, District United States Forester.

MAZAMAS TO HAVE COUNTRY OUTING.—On Saturday afternoon the Mazamas will leave town on any one of the three trains going to Ruston, from Bull Run the members will hike to the Ashcroft Hotel at Marmot, a distance of seven miles. A stay will be made at Marmot until Sunday afternoon, when the return to the railroad will be made in time to take the 6 P. M. train.

BRITISH URGED TO ATTEND.—The weekly meeting of the British Red Cross Society will be held in Women of Woodcraft hall on Saturday evening. The annual election of officers for the ensuing year will take place. After the election the meeting will be addressed by Captain W. M. Clement, of the Canadian expeditionary forces, and music will be rendered by Mrs. Murtugh and Harry Sewell.

RECEPTION BOWS TO BE ASKED.—City Attorney La Roche yesterday was instructed by City Commissioners to apply to the capital issues committee for authority to issue $500,000 of assessment redemption bonds to date from February 1 and to yield 5 per cent interest. The funds raised in this way will be used to repay outstanding bonds and to buy up delinquent tax property. It does not increase the city's debt, according to city officials.

UNUSUAL COLUMBIA TOPIC.—H. H. Ward will address the members of the Portland Realty Board on "The Unusual Columbia River—Portland's Problem" at their noon luncheon today in the crystal room of the Benson Hotel. The board now has a committee at work on the problem which Mr. Ward will discuss.

CHANGES IN NAMES.—Street signs in the Brooklyn district that formerly bore German names have been changed to American names in conformance with an ordinance passed by the City Council several months ago. Delay at the municipal shop in getting out the new signs caused the postponement of adoption of the new names by the residents of the neighborhood. Some of the changes are: Karl to Haig, Frederick to Pershing, Rhine to McLoughlin and Benmark to Bush.

SOLDIER MEMORIAL ANNOUNCED.—A memorial service for Private Jesse Colomare, Company E, 157th United States Infantry, killed in action in France, November 10, will be held in the University Park Methodist Episcopal Church, Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The pastor, Dr. James T. Abbott, will be assisted by Rev. D. A. Waters, a former pastor of the B. J. Headley and C. A. Dotson, Harry Fassett and Dr. Earl R. Abbott will sing solos.

LITERATURE CLASS MEET TONIGHT.—The class in literature of National Idealism conducted by Mrs. Mable Holmes Parsons, of the University of Oregon, will meet at 7:30 in room H of the Library. The class in problems of style will meet at 8:30 tomorrow morning in room H. The short story class will meet at 7:30 in room A on Tuesday evening. Visitors are welcome to these classes.

REINSTATEMENT OF FREEMEN REFUSED.—The City Civil Service Board yesterday again refused to reinstate three firemen who had recently quit their jobs for other work. One of the reinstatement was urged by Commissioner Bigelow. The board has announced the policy of refusing reinstatement to city employees who quit their jobs for higher pay in the war emergency.

SERVICES TO BE HELD.—Services will be held at the Congregation Ahavah Sholem, Park and Clay streets, tonight at 8 o'clock. Rabbi Arthur S. Montas will deliver a sermon. Tomorrow morning services at 9:30 o'clock. Rabbi R. Abrahamson will officiate.

NAVY OFFICERS.—The exhausted and unstable nervous system finds remarkable restoration in the Milk and Heat Cure as given at the Moore Sanatorium, East St. Office 293 Selling building, Main 6101.—Adv.

JEFFERSON CLASS PLAY POSTPONED.—The class play, "The Lion and the Mouse," to have been given by the seniors of Jefferson High School tonight and Saturday night, has been postponed on account of the influenza and will be given after the holidays.

BRITISH RED CROSS SOCIETY.—Meeting Saturday, Women of Woodcraft, Hag Tenth and Taylor sts. Annual election of officers. Address by Captain W. M. Clement. Music by Mrs. Murtugh and Mr. Sewell. Invitation extended to all interested.—Adv.

JEWISH SERVICES TONIGHT.—Services will be held at the Congregation Nevah Zedek, Talmud Torah, Sixth and Hall streets tonight at 8:30 and tomorrow at 9 A. M. Rev. Abraham I. Rosencrans officiating.

REV. MR. MILLS TO SPEAK.—Rev. H. Edward Mills, leader of the Realization League of this city, will give an address to men at the Y. M. C. A. at a cafeteria dinner tonight, at 6:15, on "World Conditions in the New Age."

POSTLAND MAN TO LECTURE.—P. R. Layman has been engaged to lecture at the University of Oregon one afternoon each week on "Corporate Organization and Management."

WIDOW.—Good reliable family to adopt a soldier widow's new-born child. Good family, good blood. Call Main 5634 for particulars.—Adv.

GEORGIANA, 7 A. M. daily, except Friday. Astoria, and way points; Larine, 8:30 P. M. daily, except Sunday.—Adv.

DR. CHARLES E. HILL returned, 311 Oregonian bldg. Phone Main 759.—Adv.

KLAMATH RANCHER ON TRIAL.—Henry Lemler, a rancher of Olene, about 15 miles east of Klamath Falls, is on trial in the Federal Court for violation of the espionage act. He is alleged to have tried to induce Francis Brotherton, a youth of draft age, to take a rifle and ammunition and go into the hills and fight any officers who attempted to take him. Lemler is also charged with urging young Brotherton to induce other young men to join in such an adventure. Lemler is accused of saying he would like to see a rope around the President. The jury for the case was presided late yesterday afternoon. The Government is represented by United States Attorney Haney and his assistant, John J. Beckman.

FINNISH LABORER SUICIDE.—The body of Adolph Brannare, 41, a Finnish laborer, who committed suicide by hanging, was found in a vacant apartment of a rooming-house at 102 North Sixth street, early yesterday morning. Brannare had occupied the room there two days before. During the night Brannare had arisen and gone to the vacant apartment, where he tied his belt to the radiator, looped it about his neck, and hanged himself. The body

DOVE OF PEACE OFF LIBRARY BOARD PERCH

Petition for Use of Hall by Radical Stirs Trouble.

DEBS-STOKES MEET DENIED Request Preferred by Dr. C. H. Chapman, Who, Mr. Woodward Says, Is Menace to Country.

The dove of peace, which has roosted at recent sessions of the board of directors of the Portland Library Association, fluttered from her perch at the last one, when the issue of whether the library auditorium should be used as a rallying hall for radical meetings was fought to a finish for the negative.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

DOVE OF PEACE OFF LIBRARY BOARD PERCH

Petition for Use of Hall by Radical Stirs Trouble.

DEBS-STOKES MEET DENIED Request Preferred by Dr. C. H. Chapman, Who, Mr. Woodward Says, Is Menace to Country.

The dove of peace, which has roosted at recent sessions of the board of directors of the Portland Library Association, fluttered from her perch at the last one, when the issue of whether the library auditorium should be used as a rallying hall for radical meetings was fought to a finish for the negative.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

A Clothes Lesson From the War

The war taught us to economize. Waste and extravagance were tabooed. In clothes, economy meant better quality. Good clothes last longer, look better—and, in the long run, are most economical.

Are we going to forget this lesson? Economy in peace-time is as worthwhile as in war-time.

Let's keep on practicing economy. Let's continue to demand the best. Buying

Kuppenheimer Clothes is practicing true clothes economy—before the war, during the war and after the war.

We Sell Them Overcoats, Suits $30, $35, $40 and Up

Lion Clothing Co. The Kuppenheimer House in Portland The Ralston Shoe House in Portland MORRISON AT FOURTH

Copyright 1918. The House of Kuppenheimer. Many Suggestions in Gift Things that will appeal to man and boy are attractively displayed in our store and show windows.

Marie Equi at Arlon Hall, was to formulate a petition praying that President Wilson grant amnesty to Eugene V. Debs and Rose Pastor Stokes, now under sentence.

ing the employment of labor, the building of highways and settlement of land. It was decided to call a county convention of citizens of Lewis County for December 30 to discuss the problems of demobilization and re-employment, National, state and county highway construction.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, editorial writer for the Evening Journal, and stormy petrel of radicalism, precipitated the strife Wednesday evening through the presentation of a request that use of the library auditorium be granted for the holding of a protest meeting against the recent convictions of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist party leader, and Rose Pastor Stokes, widely renowned radical, both of whom were tried for violations of the espionage act.

Copyright 1918. The House of Kuppenheimer. Many Suggestions in Gift Things that will appeal to man and boy are attractively displayed in our store and show